

PRO-GERMANISM RISING IN U. S. CLAIMS WILSON

Says Treaty Fight is Issue Between New Order and Old German Order.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Sept. 9.—Asserting that pro-Germanism again had lifted its head in this country, President Wilson declared in an address here last night that "every element of chaos" was hoping there would be "no steady hand" placed on the world's affairs.

This element saw a chance, he said, by keeping the nation out of the league of nations, to make possible again what Germany had tried to do in the great war. It was a clean issue Mr. Wilson declared, between this new order or the old German order.

Declaring the peace treaty provision for an international labor conference would give labor a new bill of rights, the president declared the treaty was a "laboring man's treaty" in the sense that it was a treaty drawn up for the benefit of the common people.

People Given Rights

The political settlements themselves said the president, were made for the peoples concerned. He asserted that the document laid down forever the principle that no territory ever should be governed except as the people who lived there wanted it governed.

"That is an absolute reversal of history," said the president, "and it's all in the league of nations."

High taxes, a large standing army, and a "military government in spirit" would be required, he said, if the United States were to follow the advice of some men and "stand by herself."

Asking his hearers to suppose for a moment that the land titles of South Dakota were to be upset and every farm line moved ten feet, Mr. Wilson said that was somewhat like what happened in Europe, and a central authority was necessary to stabilize conditions and prevent strife.

Crowd Defies Rain

Although it was raining when the president's train arrived, the downtown streets were lined with crowds and a wave of cheering followed the president on his way to the Coliseum.
A Shriner's band led the parade. Governor Peter Norbeck, a Republican, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Wilson who sat on the stage, was presented with some roses by two little girls who walked across the stage to her place while the crowd, which packed the hall, cheered. Mrs. Wilson thanked the girls with a kiss and there were more cheers.

The president opened his address by relating how a woman who shook hands with him at a way stop today had burst into tears when she tried to tell him of her son killed in France.

This incident, said Mr. Wilson, brought home to him that the country had suffered greatly not for a temporary advantage but for a permanent betterment of the world. In the eyes of the American boys who went across the seas, he continued, the people of Europe had seen a determination not only to defeat Germany but to see that such a thing never happened again.

Alkali In Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully.
If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali.
This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mul-sified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly, and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months—Adv.
