

WAR MOTHERS TO PLAN BIG CELEBRATION

Association Meets Monday to Get Ready for Feeding of 2,000 Men.

Final arrangements for the homecoming dinner and celebration for Wayne county's ex-service men to be held at the Coliseum on October 4, will be made at a meeting of the county chapter of the War Mothers, to be held in the G. A. R. rooms at the court house, next Monday afternoon.

Committees will be appointed to look after the feeding of the 2,000 service men expected to attend the affair. Already almost a thousand reservations have been made and members predict that many more will be received.

Service men of the county who did not receive printed reservation cards are urged to make their reservations either on the blank that was printed in the Palladium last Tuesday, or by a letter to Mrs. R. P. Whisler, 113 South Fifteenth street.

Reservations may be made until Tuesday of this week, although the War Mothers ask that reservations be made as early as possible to give them a better opportunity to plan the dinner.

1,000 Chickens; Oh Boy!

Members of the War Mothers' committee have undertaken a big task. The list of foodstuffs needed, aside from "extras" such as jellies, jams, salads, fruit, and the like is: 1,000 chickens, 250 loaves of bread, 350 pounds of sweet potatoes, 100 gallons of ice cream, 25 gallons of sweet cream and milk, 250 pies, 250 cakes, 45 pounds of coffee, 60 pounds of sugar. All of the food will be cooked at the homes of the War Mothers, and will be brought hot to the Coliseum, where the dinner is to be served.

Dishes and silverware for the affair will be furnished to the association by various organizations of the city, and arrangements will be made to build special tables at the Coliseum, in order to seat the men that are planning to attend the celebration.

Yanks in France Gained Ten Pounds to the Man

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Men of the American expeditionary forces averaged a gain in weight of ten pounds instead of a loss of avoirdupois, as was the rule in all preceding wars, according to Dr. William Darrach, dean of the college of physicians and surgeons of Columbia university, who was the principal speaker at the college's opening exercises today.

Dr. Darrach served in the war with both the British and American forces. The gain in weight, he said, was not the only evidence of the benefits conferred by the medical branch of the service.

"By their training in hygiene and sanitation in the camps and in the fields," he said, "millions of young men were not only improved physically, but were taught lessons of right living which they will carry home and teach to others."

EXCUSE FOR BOOZE JAG; BUT NONE FOR GINGER SAYS WHITE

He was a gangling, loose-boned, limber-jawed youth who looked as though he had been sent for and couldn't get away. He blew into the Gazette office today for being on a jag. He expected to get a job on the Santa Fe and would not be employed if his name appeared in the Gazette, and as it was his first offense, we kept his name out. But by way of diversion we hereby hand him the following hard-boiled language:

"You are a damned fool, Mr. Ginger Jag, and we use the words damned and fool advisedly. Any man who hasn't enough sense to keep Jamaica ginger out of his stomach as a beverage, won't have sense enough to function in this world; he is damned from here to eternity. And any man who deliberately sets out to get drunk where there is nothing but Jamaica ginger and lemon extract to cheer him, is a fool. There might have been some sense in the head of the man who, under the stimulus of social encouragement, a gang of other cheerful idiots, and a luring good brand of booze, in a gay and festive livery stable or other bacchanalian retreat, filled his system full of assault, arson, larceny and manslaughter microbes, which would steal upon him rather unaware."

Stoke Up Self
"But for a man to go out with malice prepense, and stoke up a lot of lemon extract or Jamaica ginger, which in itself is a poison, and then go out and steal a motor car, and ride off and try to climb a tree with it—that man is a fool; a damned fool, and what is more, unless some woman of God Almighty performs a miracle on him, he will be at it again."

"The next time we propose to print his name and mail a marked copy of it to the superintendent of the Santa Fe. The sooner he is fired, the safer traveling on the system will be, and we have no desire to shield a man in a job who is such a calf-bound chump that he gets drunk on groceries and hardware instead of regulation drugs. So, Mr. Ginger Jag, go it while you're young, for you haven't got enough in your bean to last another year. And when you fall, blame yourself. The city of Emporia has protected you by city ordinance; the state of Kansas has shielded you from temptation by state law. The constitution of the United States has been amended at a great expense for just such suckers as you, and if after all you haven't got anything in your head but sweetbreads, you are not worth saving. So keep your eye on the junk pile, and pick out your landing. For you're due there in about six months."

Board of Works Orders Opening of Randolph St.

The board of works at their regular Thursday morning session decided to open Randolph street from North West First street to Richmond Avenue. Plans for the opening were submitted by City Engineer Dell Davis, and the board members who have been fully advised as to the project, approved them.

W. K. Bradbury, Willard B. Dye and Charles D. Shideler were appointed appraisers of property for the opening of South Fifth street from South H to South I streets.

A letter, from H. H. Friedly, state fire marshal, to Mayor Zimmerman calling attention to Fire Prevention Day, Oct. 9, was read before the board, and referred to the Commercial Club, who are to work in conjunction with the city offices and insurance companies, for observation of the day. The board approved the observation of Fire Prevention day.

London Women Smoke on Streets; Like Cigars

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Sept. 25.—Cigarette smoking among London women is now being varied by the occasional sight of a woman in a restaurant smoking a cigar. It is not a big, fat cigar, for big, fat cigars in London are very expensive.

Another development of smoking by women is street smoking, and frequently one may see a girl at the
