

CINCINNATI LOSES SIXTH GAME TO SOX, 5 TO 4

OVER-CONFIDENCE BEATS REDS AFTER THEY SECURE BIG LEAD; RUETHER IS TAKEN OFF MOUND

(By Associated Press)
REDLAND FIELD, CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—The Chicago Americans won the sixth game of the world's series here, today, making a great up-fight and annexing it in a tenth inning rally by a score of 5 to 4. Kerr pitched the full game despite being hit hard. His teammates were also in a hitting mood. Ruether who won the opening game for Cincinnati, was knocked out of the box in the sixth inning with the score standing 4 to 3, in the Reds' favor, no outs, and a man on second. A timely hit brought this man home and in the tenth a double right off the reel and a single shortly after enabled the American leaguers to put across the winning run.

FIRST INNING
CHICAGO—John Collins opened hostilities by popping a high fly in back of second base that Rath captured. Roush came in fast and got Eddie Collins' low fly. Weaver nailed the first ball and drove it to left but it hit a few feet foul. Weaver singled through Kopt into center field. The Cincinnati shortstop could not quite get to it. Jackson went an easy pop-up to Groh. No runs, one hit, no errors.

CINCINNATI—Rath hoisted to Risberg on the third ball pitched. It was an easy out. Daubert batted the first ball pitched to Kerr, who tossed him out at first. Groh doubled to right center. It was a liner that landed between Felsch and John Collins and was retrieved quickly by the latter. Roush singled to Risberg, but Groh was caught by overrunning third. Risberg hit Weaver. Roush's hit was over toward the second sack. No runs, 2 hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING
CHICAGO—Felsch sent a long fly almost to the bleachers, but Neale got under it, and captured it. Gandil put a Texas leaguer out toward right, but it fell a few inches foul. Kopt took Gandil's bounce and tossed to Daubert. Risberg flied to Neale. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CINCINNATI—The crowd gave Duncan an ovation as he stepped up to the plate. Duncan was safe when Risberg fumbled his easy grounder. Kerr became uneasy at the sight of Kopt. Neale forced Duncan at third. Kerr to Weaver. Neale attempted to sacrifice, but Kerr made a quick throw to third. Risberg forced Neale. E. Collins to Risberg. Kopt taking third. Risberg claimed that Neale interfered with him, but the claim was not allowed. Ruether bounced one to Kerr who threw to first for the put out. No runs, no hits, 1 error.

THIRD INNING
CHICAGO—Ruether failed to get the ball over the plate and walked. Schalk, Kerr, sacrificed. Groh to Rath. Schalk's pop to second. It was a well laid out play. Collins sent a high fly to Roush in short left center. Duncan made a great running catch and captured E. Collins' liner in left center. No runs, no hits no errors.

CINCINNATI—Duncan was cheered to the echo as he walked to the bench. The Chicago outfield played in. Rath. Rath proved easy. Eddie Collins taking his offering, throwing him out at first. Daubert singled to right. Groh struck out. Daubert stole second. Roush was hit by a pitched ball. He trotted to first. Duncan doubled to right center, bringing in Daubert and Roush. It was a mighty wallop. Felsch ran way back and caught Kopt's long fly. Two runs, 2 hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING
CHICAGO—Duncan took Weaver's line drive that went almost to the left field crowd. Bariden went back almost to the grandstand and nailed Jackson's high fly. Felsch singled through the pitcher's box, the ball rolling to center. Kopt threw out Gandil, stopper in time to get his grounder, after starting for second to cover the bag. Felsch went down. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

CINCINNATI—Neale tripled to right center. There was an argument that Neale did not touch one of the bases, but the umpires did not allow the claim. Bariden sent an easy grounder which Collins grabbed and tossed him out at first. Neale holding third. Ruether doubled over the third base sack, the ball hitting the left field pavilion. Neale scoring. Rath drove an easy one to Risberg, but the latter hit Ruether going to third in his attempt to put him back. Ruether scored. Rath taking second. Rath stole third. Daubert hoisted to Jackson, and Rath was caught at the plate for a double play, Schalk getting the put out. It was a great throw of Jackson's. Two runs, 2 hits, 1 error.

FIFTH INNING
CHICAGO—Risberg walked. Ruether failing to put the ball over the plate. Schalk also walked. Ruether appeared to be becoming unsteady. Kerr singled advancing both runners a base. Risberg taking third and Schalk second. Risberg overran third but Groh failed to put Kopt's throw on him. J. Collins flied to Roush and the latter's throw was so fast that Risberg, who had started for home turned back and held third. Ring began warming up for Cincinnati. E. Collins flied to Roush and Risberg scored. Schalk failed to go to third on the play and Kerr ran down to second. Groh seeing the predicament ran over and touched Kerr off. Roush getting an assist on the play. One run, no hits, no errors.

CINCINNATI—Groh sent a high fly to Felsch. J. Collins, after making a good run for it, captured Roush's fly. Felsch went way back and misjudged Duncan's fly, getting his hands on it, but dropping it. Duncan reaching third. Risberg threw out Kopt. No runs, no hits, one error.

SIXTH INNING
CHICAGO—Weaver popped up a Texas leaguer that went for a double when Kopt and Duncan played an Alphonse and Gaston act. Jackson singled to center and Weaver crossed the plate. Felsch doubled to center field crowd. This was enough for Ruether and Ring relieved him on the pitching mound. Jackson scored. Ring was very slow and deliberate. Gandil hoisted to Daubert who got the ball in back of first base. Felsch holding second. Kopt took Risberg's grounder and threw to Daubert, putting him out. Felsch taking third. Felsch scored on Schalk's single. Schalk stole second. Groh grabbed Kerr's grounder and retired the side, by catching him at first. Three runs, 4 hits no errors.

CINCINNATI—Neale singled thru the pitcher's box, the ball batted a little too high for Kerr. J. Collins took Bariden's line drive. Neale holding first. The crowd began to hand clap in unison. Ring struck out, taking a healthy swing at the third strike, but missing. Neale was out stealing. Schalk to Risberg. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING
CHICAGO—Liebold batted for J. Collins and will play right field for Chicago. Kopt came over fast and took Liebold's grounder, throwing him out at first. E. Collins hoisted a high one that Roush got under and caught. Weaver batted left hand and Rath took his grounder and threw him out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CINCINNATI—Rath hoisted one in to short left for a Texas leaguer single. Jackson made a gallant attempt and turned a somersault trying to get it, but barely missed. Daubert attempted to sacrifice the first ball, but it rolled foul. He laid the next one down nicely for a sacrifice. Kerr to Gandil, Rath going to second. Groh walked, after fouling off several, he succeeded in working Kerr for a pass. Rath on second. Roush forced Groh at second. Risberg to Eddie Collins. E. Collins completed a double play by throwing to Gandil and getting Roush. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING
CHICAGO—The outfielders played deep for Jackson. Jackson walked. Ring temporarily lost control and passed Jackson, the first man up in this inning. Rath hit a high fly to Neale. Jackson holding first. Ring also walked Gandil, and appeared very unsteady. Roush came in fast to get Risberg's line drive, and then ran to second, tossed the ball to Rath, retiring Jackson for a double play. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CINCINNATI—Gandil ran almost to the right field side seats and took Duncan's foul. Kopt changed his bat. Kopt lined out to Kerr. Kerr apparently hurt his hand in catching Kopt's liner but resumed pitching. Neale singled through the box. Neale taking second. Risberg tossed Ring's bouncer and forced Bariden. No runs, 2 hits no errors.

NINTH INNING
CHICAGO—Schalk fanned, the final strike being called on him. He drove to Ring who tossed to Daubert, getting him. Liebold walked. Ring was having trouble finding the plate. Liebold stole second, beating the throw easily after getting a big lead. E. Collins lifted a high fly to Roush. No runs, no hits no errors.

CINCINNATI—Weaver threw out Rath at first. Daubert singled to center. It was a clean line drive. Risberg took Groh's grounder and tossing to E. Collins, forced Daubert at second. Groh at first. Groh was out stealing second. Schalk to E. Collins. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

TENTH INNING
CHICAGO—Weaver opened the tenth with a double to left field that Duncan could not quite reach. Jackson's first sacrifice attempt went foul. Jackson singled. Weaver going to third. Jackson laid down a bunt and beat it out. Felsch struck out, taking a swing at the final one. Gandil singled into center, scoring Weaver and putting Jackson on second. Ris-

VATICAN SINGERS SURROUNDED BY RICH TRADITIONS

Famous Vocalists Bring to Richmond Letters of Introduction from Famous Men.

Wide publicity has been given to the news that four soloists from the famous Sistine Chapel of Rome are now in America, and will sing at the Coliseum here Monday evening, Oct. 13th.

They are on a concert tour that will include half a hundred or more cities before they return to Italy in December, and their first appearance in New York a few weeks ago aroused such interest that Carnegie Hall was sold and out two hundred listeners sat upon the platform. A dozen concerts in other cities since then have repeated the ovation that New York gave to the illustrious visitors.

The four singers, Alessandro Gabrielli, Luigi Gentili, Izio Cecchini and Augusto Das Santos bring with them (Continued on Page Eleven)

REDLAND FIELD, CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—Perfect baseball weather, with the sun shining brilliantly, and a cloudless sky, greeted the fans that journeyed to the park two hours before the beginning of the sixth game of the world's series of 1919 between the Reds and White Sox here today. At noon the pavilions were almost filled to capacity, but the bleachers seemed slow in arriving and while the right field stand was half filled, the left field bleachers were empty. However the crowd appeared in gay mood and each selection played by the band met with much applause.

The crowds began to gather at the ticket office of Redland field at day-break, and two hours later several thousand persons were in line. Only unreserved seats and standing room tickets were for sale all the reserved seats having been purchased before the series opened.

Cincinnati today greeted her returning victorious baseball team. The victories of Manager Moran's men at Chicago added to the enthusiasm.

The hotels last night were jammed to capacity with visitors and this condition became worse when twelve special trains including those upon which the Reds and White Sox traveled, rolled into town this morning.

ALBERT PRAISES RECORD OF 37TH

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—On board King Albert's train—King Albert of the Belgians, one of the foremost soldiers of Europe, paid tribute to the gallantry of Ohio's 37th division when he awoke this morning within the boundaries of the state of Ohio, which furnished the American army its 37th division.

His majesty's message said: "The king takes occasion to render his homage to those magnificent troops for the brilliant part they took in the fighting in Belgium."

"The king, as commander of the group of armies of Flanders, is profoundly happy to be able to bring to these heroes on their own territory, this tribute of admiration of their Belgian brothers in arms, and the expression of gratitude of the entire Belgian nation toward the deliverance of which the glorious 37th division contributed so much."

"The king desired to add to this expression of sentiment the name of the gallant chief who commanded the troops, Major General Charles S. Farnsworth."

The only stop of the day, except to change engines, will be at Toledo, which the Belgians will visit as the friends of Brand Whitlock, American ambassador to their country, who endeavored himself to the entire nation during the war.

Teachers' Low Salaries Menace U. S., Says Hoover
(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—Warning that unless better pay is forthcoming, the nation will be faced with a dangerous radicalism from the centers of higher education was voiced by Herbert Hoover, former federal food administrator in an address before the Harvard club of California at a dinner here last night.

"Out of the war and misery of the war has arisen a silhouette of class distinction and class hatred that is not to be obliterated with a few words," Mr. Hoover said. "The development of radicalism in Europe during the last twelve months is beyond anything in history. This European wind of radicalism is sweeping our way."

"In our great universities the instructing and faculty staffs are hard hit by the present economic situation. America cannot permit this growing sense of injustice to remain with the nation's educators. There is a menace to the nation's safety in discontent in the back ground of the University faculty work and every right thinking citizen must see it."

INDUSTRY MEET ADJOURNS AFTER RULES SQUABBLE

Committee Proposal that Unanimous Action Is Necessary, Breaks Up Big Conference.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Disagreement over rules proposed for governing the industrial conference called by President Wilson, resulted in the conference adjourning suddenly today after Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, had been elected permanent chairman. As proposed by committee, the rules provided that all conclusions and decisions must be arrived at by unanimous vote of the three groups representing capital, labor and the public, while the decision of each individual group would be a majority of the members of that group. The rule was attacked by John Spargo, of New York, a delegate representing the public.

Mr. Spargo declared the conference might as well adjourn, if the provision of the rules was adopted whereby a majority vote of any group was necessary before a member of that group could introduce any subject for discussion.

Such a rule, he asserted, hindered especially the public group, which was not composed of delegates, representing a homogeneous interest like the labor group, but contained men and women of diverse activities. He objected particularly because, he said, there was no provision for minority expression.

Thomas L. Chadbourne, of New York, replying for the committee, declared the provision was believed necessary to obtain effective action instead of debate.

On motion of Frederick P. Fish, of the employers' group, the conference adjourned to allow each group to consider the rules separately, the employers voting solidly on the motion, and the public and organized labor group opposing it to an adjournment at a time when they declared the conference should be getting down to business.

Other provisions of the rules reported by the committee were that the meetings be opened to the public and the press and that there be two daily sessions from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and from 2:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m. It was expressly stated that there should be no meetings on Sunday, indicating that the conference expected to continue two weeks or more.

Committees on nominations for permanent officers and rules worked far into the night preparing reports to forward proceedings today. Chief interest centered in the selection of a chairman. There was no indication early today of the committee on nomination's selection.

Meanwhile decisions of the conferences on several proposals prepared in advance and designed to promote industrial peace were awaited with interest. The most important of the plans already suggested is that of the department of labor, which involves the creation of a board similar to the recently dissolved war labor board, to settle disputes between employers and employees.

Yesterday's opening session was without definite action on the part of the conference. Secretary of Labor Wilson called delegates together with a speech dealing largely with the objects for which they are assembled, while John Barrett, Director General of the Pan-American union, welcomed them to the use of the union's building during their stay.

ITALY RATIFIES PACT IN POWER

PARIS, Oct. 7.—King Victor Emmanuel of Italy signed a royal decree ratifying the German and Austrian treaties yesterday, according to a Milan dispatch to the Eclair.

Ratification of the German treaty by the royal decree of the king of Italy virtually completes the steps necessary for putting into effect the pact between Germany and the allied powers which was signed at Versailles on June 28, and which stipulates that it would become operative when ratified by the three of the great powers.

The British parliament has already ratified the treaty and the document now awaits only the signature of King George. Approval was given the convention by the French Chamber of Deputies last week and the Senate is expected to take similar action on Friday or Saturday. The royal decree must receive approval from the next parliament.

SOLDIERS OF U. S. VETERAN DIVISION ON STRIKE DUTY

Veterans of Overseas Patrolling Mill Town—Picketing Not Stopped, but No Meetings Will Be Permitted.

WOOD IS IN CHARGE

GARY, Ind., Oct. 7.—It was announced officially that Gary would be placed under martial law at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

With federal troops in Gary martial law enforced by Indiana militia in Indiana Harbor and East Chicago, and Illinois local authorities reinforced and alert at South Chicago and Waukegan, quiet reigned today in the Chicago district of the steel strike.

Union leaders at the three Indiana centers emphasized that they welcomed the troops, as they were assured protection.

The usual claims and counter claims as to the return of strikers to the plant were in evidence, the most significant being an announcement from Illinois Steel company forces at South Chicago that for the first time since September 22 some skilled workers had returned to their jobs.

The call for federal troops was made by James P. Goodrich, Governor of Indiana, after thousands of strikers paraded and held mass meetings after being forbidden by the mayor, the police and the state militia 300 state militiamen stationed at Gary. The course of the strike here has been marked by little violence. With the reports during the past week that strikers in increasing numbers were resuming their old places in the steel mills, the attitude of pickets whose numbers also increased became threatening and for a time it seemed as if a serious clash would be unavoidable.

Situation Threatening.
With the parade yesterday however, according to a statement by Governor Goodrich, the situation became so threatening that it was deemed advisable to ask for federal troops. The governor acted on the advice of Mayor Hodges, of Gary, and Harry B. Smith, state adjutant general, he said. Both officials expressed alarm at the attitude of the ten thousand strikers in Gary and said they feared that the small number of state troops stationed there was insufficient to cope with the situation," read the Governor's statement.

Upon the arrival of the federal soldiers, and the issuance of a proclamation by General Wood proclaiming a military area, the strikers were ordered to Indiana Harbor and East Chicago, Ind., where Governor Goodrich declared martial law.

The approximately 1,600 men under Major General Wood are regarded as sufficient to enforce his directions that no more parades or demonstrations be held and forbidding parades and demonstrations against the authorities. Carrying of weapons of any description by persons other than the police, military authorities, troops, and members of the city government also was forbidden.

No Soldiers Unattached.
Following the action of several severe men wearing the uniform of the United States army in leading the parade yesterday, General Wood's proclamation ordered that "no soldiers, whether in the service of the United States or otherwise, who are not part of the United States armed forces on duty within the city limits will be examined, and those who are in the service of the United States will be attached to an organization within the city limits and continued on duty during the present disturbance."

It was made plain that martial law had not been declared. The federal troops it was stated by a member of General Wood's staff, will be kept and prepared for working in conjunction with the civilian peace authorities. Arrests made by the military forces will be handed over to the civilian officers and tried in courts of law instead of by courtmartial, he said.

Picketing by strikers at the various plants will not be stopped. Captain Charles Bolton, officer of the day said early today. It was not intended to interfere with the general course of the strike, except in so far as disorder and destruction of property were concerned.

The federal troops here are from the Fourth and Sixth overseas divisions. The men from the Fourth division, 915 men and 109 officers, were sent here late yesterday in motor trucks from Fort Sheridan. Arrival of the troops was greeted by cheers as they drew up in the public square and prepared for work in machine guns, rifles, automatic rifles, hand grenades and other items of equipment for any emergency.

General Wood preceded the troops by several hours. One of his first actions here was to call a conference of city officials and strike leaders. Oscar Anderson, a strike leader, asserted after the conference he was satisfied with the military control, adding that "the strikers now will get protection and we will win the strike."
