GRAIN QUOTATIONS

WAGNER'S GRAIN LETTER

CHICAGO, Oct. 7. — Hard to buy corn while cash stuff is flabby. Corn about one cent lower on slow demand. Hogs 50 cents to $1 lower. Packing people say England is well supplied with meats for many weeks. Oats news indicate much of the recent large sales were a special affair and demand may drag. Country is not selling much new corn and offerings of old corn are apparently exaggerated. The old corn premium of 25 cents or so over December suggests, however, that the consumers will buy with great care. Locals seem to expect another dip overnight. Government report due tomorrow at 1 p.m., Chicago time.
