WAGNER GRAIN LETTER

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Locals mainly assume that May corn will decline somewhat Monday and that the present budge to $1.37½ was based on squeeze in January corn. Oats gossiped friendly. Cars scarce in all directions. There is no change and if we base predictions on the car supply for the coming week the dips in corn and oats will be mild. We are surprised at the bulge in rye when compared with the small exports. Lard should sell lower during early February.

MEN ONLY WILL BE USED IN COUNTRY'S INDUSTRIAL CENSUS

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Enumeration of the nation's industries, including manufacturing plants, mines, quarries, oil and gas wells, forestry and forest products, will start March 1, it was announced today by Director of Census Sam L. Rogers.

For the purpose of this census the country has been divided into 589 districts and 1,200 men will be needed to make the count. A force of 98 special agents from the Washington office will be in charge of the peace conference and to the British government in the various states.

In our schools boys and girls learn to read, and those who are fortunate enough to attend school of the best type form the habit of reading, learn to distinguish good books from bad and worthless books, and acquire a taste for the best. Others are less fortunate and finish or quit school with little knowledge of books, with no well-established habits of reading, and without a sure and discriminating taste.

For most American girls school life is short, school hours are few, and there is little time in school for general reading. At best, the schools can give them only the ability to read—to understand through the eye and to interpret the printed page. The actual reading, beyond the school lessons, must be done at home and most of it after school days are over; for this most American girls have much time.

It is true also that reading is most profitable to those who, at the same time, are gaining knowledge through the actual and ordinary experience of life and home and industrial occupations.

The young man made his first appearance in open court yesterday, successfully defending an attack by a representative of the corporation counsel's office on the validity of the documents he had prepared in the case. Becker alleged he was libeled by a published report recommending cancellation of his teacher's license.

TERRE HAUTE.—The shortage of cars which has kept many mines in the Terre Haute field idle for several weeks exceeded its previous record when 72 mines in the field were idle, with a loss of the production of 53,715 tons of coal.

VINCENNES.—The city has installed seven new one-man street cars, all of the latest safety design, which are attracting so much attention that business must meet and assume in life, and with a consideration for their practical value in helping girls to learn the things they need to know, which can be learned most easily through reading.

The vessel carried a cargo of milk and other food especially adaptable to feeding children which would have met pressing demands at Warsaw, for two months. In semi-official quarters it is said there is no indication the vessel will be floated soon.

LA PORTE.—A movement was launched at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon, following an address on "Americanization" by a Chicago man, to organize the city to fight Bolshevik, socialist ideas and radicalism.

LAFAYETTE.—Col. Daniel B. Kehler will not retire on Feb. 1 as commandant of the Indiana State Soldiers' Home. He tendered his resignation because of ill health, but at the request of Governor Goodrich and the board of trustees he will remain at the head of the institution until May 1.

PORTSMOUTH—Joseph T. Tracy, 14 years a member of the state board of accounting, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for state senator.

EAST LIVERPOOL—James Sheehan, 60, coal miner, was instantly killed when caught under a fall of slate at Salineville.

COLUMBUS—G. W. C. Perry, publisher of the Chillicothe Gazette, was elected president of the Associated Dailies of Ohio.

MARIETTA—When Mrs. Mary Mosher asked for divorce she told the court her husband did not even pay the preacher when she was married—that she had to foot the bills. She is the mother of 10 children.

MARIETTA—Greasy Neale's Marietta college basketball team is equal with Pittsburg as top-notchers in tri-state basketball circles.

CLEVELAND—The body of Wilbur M. Hall, 49, architect, was found in the Cuyahoga river. He had been missing for two months.

WILMINGTON—After a funeral one of the big limousines skidded into a ditch with mourners, and while B. D. E. Arthur, funeral director, was directing the work of rescue, he slipped on the ice, falling head-first down the bank and was rendered unconscious.

Two cases of measles were reported Saturday morning and the following births:
