LEWISBURG SUITS OCCUPY COURT IN PREBLE COUNTY

EATON, O., Feb. 11.—Tuesday was "Lewisburg day" in common pleas court, an injunction and alley vacation proceeding occupying the court the greater part of the day. James E. Fuller, of Lewisburg, some time ago obtained a court injunction against the village's new motor fire truck and equipment, he claiming the building would obstruct an alley on which his property abutted. The village instituted a proceeding to vacate the alley in question.

The cases were duly thrashed out Tuesday before Judge A. C. Risinger, with the result that he ordered the alley vacated, upon condition that the village pay Fuller $150 damages within ten days. This was followed by Fuller dismissing his injunction action against the village, an entry in the case setting forth that compromise had been effected.

Mrs. Crampton Dead.
Mrs. Henry Crampton, native of Eaton, wife of Rev. Henry Crampton, former pastor of Eaton Christian church, died suddenly Monday at the family home in Mt. Sterling, O., and the body was brought today to Eaton for funeral and burial. Services will be held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. J. Galloway, sister of the decedent, North Maple street, followed by burial in Mound Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Crampton was a daughter of the late Webb Day, pioneer lumber and coal dealer of Eaton. She was married to Rev. Crampton some years after the death of his first wife. Besides the husband, two daughters and the one sister survive her. Rev. Crampton and his family removed to Mt. Sterling some months ago from Columbus, Ga., where they had lived a few years.

Grads Farmers to Meet.
An association of farmers of Grads township will hold a farmers' institute Friday and Saturday of this week in West Elkton. The Theatres

WASHINGTON.
An evidence of how the act of gambling intrudes at times all sorts of society, and serves as a deciding factor in the facing of problems is provided by a scene in Vitagraph's new picture, "The Gambler." This film, with Harry T. Morey as star, is showing today and tomorrow at the Washington.

It has been said, because of this occasional dependence of all human beings on a message of fate or chance, that all men gamble. Clergymen have been known when confronted by serious questions they are unable to decide, to open the Bible at random and rest their decision on the chance of seeing some particular phrase such as "It came to pass," on the page.

Other men draw lots, or flip a coin, or turn a card. It is by the dealing out of cards that characters in "The Gambler" reach a decision on a troublesome question. The incident lends suspense and dramatic force to a picture full of such elements. "The Gambler" is an adaptation of the famous play by Charles Klein.

Mr. Morey plays the role of Wilbur Emerson, the young financier who enters a combine to combat another combination of capital in a strife for millions. The hero, in the end, finds himself gambling with other people's money.

MURRAY.
Frank Keenan, "America's Greatest Character Actor," at the Murray Theatre today for the last time in his newest Pathé offering, "The False Code." Written by Mrs. Kate Corbaley and directed by Ernest C. Warde, the story is a swiftly moving drama of modern American business life.

Frank Keenan will cause your heart to throb with sympathy for the innocent man who was "framed" by selfish associates and made to suffer disgrace and degradation for their crime. After twelve years in jail he comes forth as an avenging Nemesis, swearing retribution against those who robbed him of his happiness, of home, of wife and of all that made life dear to him.

MURRETTE.
William Farnum, the William Fox star, will be seen for the last time today at the Murrette Theatre in "Heart Strings." Mr. Farnum is here presented as a violinist whose soul finds expression through exquisite melody. He plays the part of a great-hearted French Canadian whose love for a young sister causes him to renounce an enviable career and devote himself to the care of the girl and her baby.

The story is filled with big moments and intensely dramatic situations. It thrills and satisfies. In the cast are Gladys Coburn, Betty Hilburn, Kate Blanche, Paul Cazeau, Robert Cain and Rowland G. Edwards. The story was written by Henry Albert Phillips, the scenario by E. Lloyd Sheldon and the play directed by J. Gordon Edwards.

FAMILY OF FIVE CAN LIVE ON $150 MONTHLY, SHE SAYS

Mrs. J. L. Schoenberger.

Is it possible for a man to marry and raise a family on $150 or less a month? This question was asked by the people of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. Here is the woman who answered it and won a fifty-dollar prize. "Marry on $150 a month, why my husband and I have been raising three boys, buying a house and saving, on that amount," asserts Mrs. J. L. Schoenberger of Cincinnati, O.

TWO YOUTHS SENTENCED FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERIES.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 11.—Within less than twenty-four hours after they had confessed to a series of seventeen robberies, James McDonald, 20 years old, and Clyde Yant, 18 years old, were today sentenced to from five to fourteen years in the state reformatory by Judge Chester R. Montgomery of the St. Joseph Superior Court. McDonald was also fined $100 and costs.

BANK HAUL NETS $13,000.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 11.—Four bandits held up a branch of the Home Savings Bank here Tuesday and escaped with cash estimated at $13,000. Several customers and bank employees were in the bank at the time.

Friends Get Bright Reports From Representatives

Word received at the Friends Forward Movement headquarters Wednesday morning, from Levi T. Pennington, head of the movement, who is with Edgar H. Stranahan, and Arthur Woolan on a tour of the west in the interests of the movement, stated that meetings in Oregon had been extremely successful. The party was to be in Denver, Colo., Wednesday.

Herman O. Miles, who is in New York City in the interests of the financial campaign of the Forward Movement, telegraphed the headquarters Wednesday that he was convinced of tremendous results. The financial conference of denominations co-operative in the movement was highly significant of the power of the movement, he said, and prospects are bright for the Friends part in the general world campaign.

BABY SUFFERED WITH RASH

On Forehead. Itched and Burned. Formed Crust. Was Sore. Cuticura Heals.

"Baby suffered with a rash on her forehead, and it went into her hair. It started with little pimples and formed a crust. It itched and burned and was sore. She would scratch and it stopped her hair from growing. 'I got a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bought more, and in three weeks she was healed, after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Ointment.' (Signed) Mrs. W. Ingersoll, Chappell, Nebraska, July 25, 1919.
