When the big league magnates gathered in Chicago the other day to thrash out the annual grist of problems, raise the rules and try to muzzle Harry Frazee or kick him out of the game, John McGraw, scrappy owner of the Giants, was among those absent. You know, Jawn recently became one of the principal owners of Oriental Park race track at Havana, Cuba, and is busy down there. President Stoneham of the Giants represented the club at Chicago.
