Belgium's Restoration

If Belgium's desolation by the Huns was one of the greatest outrages of the century, her recovery from misery and destruction is one of the marvels of the age.

In less than a year her coal production reached 90 per cent; sugar refineries 100 per cent; cotton looms 60 per cent; wool products 75 per cent; shoes 70 per cent, and steel production, which suffered most, 30 per cent.

When Germany ravaged Belgium, carrying away the machinery of its industries, dynamiting the plants, and demoralizing the commercial system, the expectation was that industrial production had been crushed and a competitor forever removed from the markets of the world.

THE GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS DAILY TALK

HUNGER

Life begins with an expression of hunger in the cry of the baby. And all thru the years to follow does this power assert itself.

But we eat only that we may live to give from the storehouse of our getting.

It is that way with all other kinds of hunger—the craving for mental and spiritual food, for instance. Always are we hungering and thirsting after that which we so much lack. And it is to our credit that we do get hungry.

We should not be satisfied with a limited diet, when it comes to fulfilling the hunger of the mind or heart.

All folks are so much akin that those with an abundance of wealth, should be quick to share with others from their stores—not money-wealth, but love-wealth, mind-wealth, experience-wealth, and all the other kinds of wealth that are common in greater or less degree, to all.

Somebody is always hungry—for something!

Never mind if you are hungry in some way most of the time. Balzac wrote many of his greatest masterpieces on an empty stomach. "Home Sweet Home" was written by man who had no home—and was always hungry for one. The great Mervon traded his etching masterpieces for food. In hunger did he conceive them!

Always be glad to feed the hungry one—no matter what the cause for hunger. First feed. Then ask questions, if you like.

Good Evening BY ROY K. MOULTON

TO MARJORIE

If your eyes were not so luring,
If your cheeks were not so fair,
Or your smile so reassuring,
Or so smooth and dark your hair;
If you weren't, as I'm hinted—
So adorable to view—
Dear, I never could get printed
Any bits of verse on you.

—Bel Canto.

Have you a little brown sugar in your home?

Thirty thousand American draft-draggers are said to be living in Mexico. Servs 'em right.

If you can't afford sugar as a table sweet, keep a bee.

The only song which seems to hit the sugar situation is: "In the Sweet Buy-and-Buy."

There are lots of profit tears in the motion pictures.

When they shoot that rocket at the moon it would be just as well not to have any of the ladies aim it.

Many men are trying to go on substitutes.

Rubey Cowan has discovered the laziest man in the world. The latter refuses to drink coffee for breakfast for fear it will keep him awake.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid, which excretes and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder disease.

Whence this quick restoration, this miraculous return to pre-war activity?

The answer is to be found in the national determination of the people to restore their industrial output and to increase their export outflow with dispatch. General strikes were frowned upon. Extravagance was condemned, frugality extolled, the result being that the thrift of the nation will within a few years restore pre-war production in almost every sphere.

The machines which Germany stole are being returned by the thousands. Miles of railroad track and bridges are being reconstructed so fast that the transportation system is almost restored to its former efficiency.

While Belgium is humming with industrial activity, other allied countries are reporting cessation of production, orgies of extravagance, unrestricted speculation, strikes and industrial disturbances.

Belgium has found by experience that it pays to return to work without delay and that work, as has always been the case, is the only method whereby prosperity and happiness can be brought to a land.

Other nations may pay for their folly in a period of depression and unhappiness. Belgium has pointed the way to a restoration of pre-war conditions—work.

BOMB PLOTTERS FROM PATERSON

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 17.—Evidence that the bomb plots of last June, when attempts were made on the lives of Attorney General Palmer and other prominent men, originated in Paterson, was found in Sunday's raids on terrorists there, it has been announced here. Frank R. Stone, chief of the New Jersey division of the Department of Justice, sponsored the statements.

Link paper similar to that found in the wreckage in front of Mr. Palmer's house in Washington after it was dynamited, was found in the printing establishment of Benjamin Mazotta, it was asserted. Two dozen sheets of it are being sent to the Bureau of Standards at Washington for analysis and comparison with the paper found in the Palmer residence debris. Stone said.

Department of Justice agents from two score industrial cities in the East are on the way here to examine the I. W. W. records seized in the raids.

The records seized were the complete files of I. W. W. headquarters, formerly at Chicago, for the entire Eastern section of the country. They showed I. W. W. branches in nearly 50 industrial centers throughout the territory, mostly in Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana, New Jersey and the manufacturing cities of New England.

JUDGE WANTS HEARINGS
FOR ALLEGED RADICALS

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 17.—Declaring that "In Russia men might be held in jail without charges being brought against them, but it can not be done in Mahoning county," Judges W. S. Anderson and David G. Jenkins of common pleas court, asked C. M. Woodside, United States commissioner, to arrange at once for hearings for thirty-seven alleged radicals held in the county jail here.
