

REIGLE TO ADDRESS PREBLE EDUCATION BOARD AT MEETING

EATON, O., Feb. 18.—Vernon Reigle, state assistant superintendent of public instruction, will address the annual meeting of the district boards of education of Preble county, to be held here Thursday in the public assembly room in the courthouse. He will speak upon "Recent School Legislation," the address to be presented at an afternoon session.

The meeting will open at 9:30 a. m. At this session Rev. A. W. Kirby, of Concord, will address the audience on "Teacherages for Our Schools." J. S. McDill, head of the Jackson township centralized schools, will speak upon "Some Problems With the Automobile Van." C. E. Ulrich, member of the county board of education, will speak upon "The State and Adequate Financial Support for Centralized Schools." "Objectors and Objections Overcome" is the subject of an address to be given by C. R. Coblenz, of New Paris, head of the Jefferson township schools. Subject of the several addresses will be open to general discussion.

The afternoon session will open at one o'clock, with Mr. Reigle's address. The speaker will answer questions concerning the subject of his address. County Agricultural Agent A. J. Swift will talk upon "The Community's Benefits From the School." Rev. R. H. Dunaway, of New Paris, will speak on "Education for Character," and C. M. Wilcox, of New Paris, will speak on "Dental Inspection of School Children." General discussion will follow each address.

Twenty-one timely topics concerning the school will be presented for round table discussion. Among the list are: How are boards meeting increased contingent expenses? Motorizing our school routes: is it practical? Why not a revaluation of real estate in this county? Do we need medical and dental inspection? Is the law on compensation of board members just? Should Ohio aid the consolidated school? Are auto vans a menace to wagons? The new Teachers' Retirement Law. What would be a good salary schedule for Preble County? Value of community centers. Need for Americanization in Preble County. Why not more Smith-Hughes schools in Preble County? Schools without a teacher, or temporary and emergency certificates to persons not qualified. Which?

Fire Destroys Smith Home.
Fire, thought to have originated from a defective fuse, completely destroyed a house on the corner of Main and Second streets, owned by Mrs. Alice Smith. The house, which was valued at about $5,000, with a small amount of insurance. The house was occupied by Luther Smith and his family, who lost practically all their household goods. Mrs. Harrison and her sister were ill in the house when the blaze started. They were hurriedly removed to a place of safety.

To Speak to Farmers.
Walter Hunnicutt, of Uniontown, County Agricultural Agent, A. J. Swift, of Eaton, and C. E. Ulrich, of New Paris, county grange deputy, are the speakers thus far announced for the county-wide meeting of farmers and farm organizations of Preble county, to be held here next Saturday. The meeting will be held in the public auditorium in the courthouse. A program is open at one o'clock. An important question to come before the meeting is that of continuing the county agricultural agent in this county, as County Agent Swift retires March 1 to engage actively in farming.

Prisoners to Cincinnati.
Persons convicted in police court and committed to the workhouse will be cared for in the Cincinnati workhouse, the city council having entered a contract with Cincinnati to care for each prisoner at a cost of 75 cents a day.

City to Oil Streets.
Adhering to a custom established a few years ago, the city will do its own street oiling this year. It is likely council will receive street oiling petitions in a meeting the latter part of February. It is expected that oiling operations will this year begin early in May. City Engineer, A. L. Reid, is to solicit bids for 21,000 gallons of oil for street oiling purposes.

To Confer Degree.
Waverly lodge, K. P., will confer the Knight rank upon a class of candidates in a meeting tonight. The degree staff of Royal Lodge, West Alexandria, will present the work. A luncheon and smoker will follow the initiation. Eaton chapter, Royal Arch Masons, will be subject to its annual inspection Wednesday night at the hands of S. Rufus Jones, of Dayton. The meeting will close with a social session and serving of refreshments.

Civil Funeral Held.
Funeral and burial of Mrs. Hannah Cail, 63, wife of David Cail, took place this afternoon at New Paris, following her death Sunday at her home near New Westville. Her husband and eleven children survive her.

Rev. A. W. Kirby conducted funeral services this afternoon at Concord for Mrs. Ida Duval, 75, who died Monday of heart disease at her home near Boston, Ind. Burial was in Concord cemetery. Four sons survive her.

H. S. Smith, brother-in-law of Lee W. Schenker, of Eaton, died at his home in Brunswick, Maine, according to advices received here. He was 51 years old. His wife was Miss Carrie Schenker before her marriage.

AFTER "FLU," GRIP
Fever and Other Prostrating Diseases that Exhaust the Blood.

There is often that extreme tired feeling, loss of appetite, tendency to anemia, nerve exhaustion, inactive bowels, constipation and great danger of still further prostration and serious illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla first works upon the blood. It is remarkable how promptly its purifying, vitalizing effects are noticed. It "makes food taste good," promptly assimilation so as to help secure the greatest nourishment possible, promotes digestion. Nerve strength and cheery health inevitably follow, further danger is avoided and the glad-to-be-alive feeling again prevails. To read this is well to realize it yourself is better.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today, and for a cathartic, nothing better than Hood's Pills, in small doses a gentle laxative; larger, and active cathartic. —Advertisement.

FORMER CZAR SOUGHT.
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Information as to how the service of legal papers can be obtained on Nicholas Romanoff, supposedly executed Czar of Russia, was sought by the Marine Transport Service corporation, which recently obtained a judgement of $117,540.11 against the late czar. Justice Benedict previously ruled that the corporation must serve Romanoff in order to prosecute its suit to have $1,000,000 in the custody of New York bankers for the Russian government applied to the payment of the judgment. Today Supreme Court Justice Callahan dismissed the suit and gave the corporation permission to appeal to a higher court.
