BOSTON WOOL MARKET
(By Associated Press)

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—The commercial bulletin tomorrow will say: "The week among the wool houses here has been a very quiet one and the English government wool auction of Thursday furnished about all the excitement, which was not much, although wools at this sale went fairly well. Freighters have been badly demoralized and shipments have been almost impossible. Prices show little or no change. The situation among the mills is hardly changed, although some trouble looms on the industrial horizon."
