

Heart and Beauty Problems

By Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Five years ago I kept company with a girl my own age. She was exceptionally pretty, talented, educated in college, and from a very fine old and wealthy family. Her parents and my parents had been pals from childhood. They were most happy because they were sure we would marry in time.

Then I went away to a large city, where I met a fellow who I thought was a "nut." I felt sorry for him and on coming back brought him, who had become nearly a pal, because I could do anything with him. I put him to work with us and he stopped at our house. He went with me everywhere and I thought I was educating him.

One Sunday I took my lady friend and secured another for him. We took a long trip to a lake, but this fellow couldn't leave my friend alone. He stuck like glue and I had failed to educate him in etiquette. He called the girl on long distance and made a date. Finally I discharged him. He went away and I found out that he went to see her very often.

I did not go back to see her. I decided I would forget her by going to school. When I got there, she was there, ready to spin a gauzy web around me, because the other fellow had gone to war. It was two months before I felt, but I was determined to play my part and so I told her I loved her and we would be married. I bought a car and took her everywhere.

Then the war was over. She told the other fellow she did not care for him and not to come back. After she had said this I went with another girl more beautiful than she and I told her I did not care for her at all and never would. She wrote the other fellow, who came back immediately.

She was going to marry the boy with the bad record for generations back. He had no money to go ahead with, but I hope they come out all right.

Will you tell me who is the fool, the girl or myself?

GLAD TO HAVE FOUND HER OUT

I think you were the fool. You hardened your heart for revenge. It is not up to you to punish; a higher hand with more sense of justice could take care of that.

You say of the man, "He has no money to go ahead." Perhaps not, but if he has love in his heart the girl will be happier with him than she would be with you, since you find joy in cruelty.

Try to be more gentle and remember that riches are nothing if you have not love in your heart.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ-destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to heal irritated skin and heal eruptions, such as rash, pimples and ring worms.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin troubles should obtain at small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

ColiseumMilk Laws Not Changed, Says Inspector Edwards

J. R. Edwards, city dairy inspector, Friday listed the dairies serving Richmond which handle raw milk and those which pasteurize the product.

The Fred Blockwede Co., and the Himes Brothers, pasteurize, said Edwards, and George Kircher, Henry Goble, C. T. Pitts and Oren Caskey handle the raw product, he said.

Robert Haas recently sold his raw milk route to Fred Blockwede, he said.

The state board of health has advocated, said Edwards, that pasteurization of milk be required, or that dairies selling raw milk have their cows inspected, but there has been no change in the laws.

Any complaints on local service should be sent to him or telephoned to 1762, he said.

A grouch is the worst work of nature, but the man who thinks he must be silly all the time in order to be entertaining, is about as bad.

Bond Lands Washington at W. R. C. Celebration

"His love of liberty and true patriotism, were among his most distinguishing characteristics," said Judge W. A. Bond, in eulogizing George Washington at the celebration of the birthday of the first president, held by the Women's Relief Corp in the courthouse Thursday afternoon.

Judge Bond further touched on the great qualities of mind and heart of Washington, emphasizing the fact that these qualities should be used by all citizens during the present crisis.

Two patriotic recitations were given by Miss Florence Faick. A drill by the corps, patriotic songs and a flag salute by the officers, completed the program.

CAMBRIDGE MAN TRIES TO KILL WIFE IN NEWCASTLE
NEWCASTLE, Ind., Feb. 20.—An attempt to kill his wife, Crystal, was made by Claude Duncan, a railroad foreman of Cambridge City, here late Thursday. Failure of his revolver to explode and interference by bystanders prevented Duncan from committing the act.

Here Is One Thing That Is Absolutely Impossible

Rheumatism Has Never Been Cured by Liniments or Lotions, and Never Will Be.

You never knew of Rheumatism—that most painful source of suffering—being cured by liniments, lotions or other external applications. And you will never see anything but temporary relief afforded by such makeshifts.

But why be satisfied with temporary relief from the pangs of pain which are sure to return with increased severity, when there is permanent relief within your reach. Science has proven that Rheumatism is a disordered condition of the blood.

How then, can satisfactory results be expected from any treatment that does not reach the blood, the seat of the trouble, and rid the system of the cause of the disease? S. S. S. has for more than fifty years been giving relief to even the most aggravated and stubborn cases of Rheumatism. It cleanses the blood by routing the disease germs. The experience of others who have taken S. S. S. will convince you that it will promptly reach your case. You can obtain S. S. S. at any drug store.

A valuable book on Rheumatism and its treatment, together with expert medical advice about your own individual case, will be sent absolutely free. Write today to Medical Department, Swift Specific Co., 250 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.—Advertisement.

A Fruit Supreme

The tempting fragrance of Hood's luscious ripe pineapple from sunny Hawaii will suggest countless ways of serving this delicious fruit.

Hood's Extra Quality Pineapple is grown where they attain their finest flavor and packed only when lusciously ripe, thus all the natural fragrance is imprisoned in the can.

Used in a pie (getting the grated fruit), topped with a thick, fluffy meringue, delicately browned, it takes its place as a dessert supreme. For tasty puddings and snappy salads Hood's Extra Quality Pineapple can not be surpassed.

FOR A DELICIOUS DISH, TRY THIS:

Cook one cupful pineapple juice, one cup water, juice of half a lemon, one-half cup sugar and two level tablespoonfuls cornstarch in a double boiler until clear. Take from fire, stir in beaten yolks of two eggs, then fold in the beaten whites, and one cup pineapple cut in cubes. Set in slow oven in buttered baking dish for twenty minutes. When cool top with whipped cream and pineapple slices.

Ask your grocer for Hood's fruits and vegetables. All are grown and packed on the spot expressly for the W. H. Hood Company, from the world's best gardens and orchards. A taste is the test. If you want economy and excellence, the Hood Label foods will supply it. Ask for them.
