The Country club was the scene of an attractive social event, Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. William J. Blackmore of South Eleventh street entertained with a dinner dance for Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Stimson of South Fifteenth street and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zetrouer, who are leaving the city for residence. The club was profusely adorned with yellow daffodils and narcissus, intermingled with ferns and smilax. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock and the guests danced from 8 o'clock until 12 o'clock. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Blackmore were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tarkenton, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kitchen, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zetrouer, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp, and Miss Nellie Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew Lacey are the parents of a baby daughter, Janet Elaine, born at Reid Memorial hospital, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Frankel are spending a few days at the home of Mr. Frankel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Frankel in the Reed apartments.

Mr. Earl Bullerick returned to school in Cincinnati this morning after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bullerick of South Thirteenth street.

Mrs. Russell Alexander will be hostess for the Delta Theta Tau sorority at her home on North Eighth street this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cunningham will hold their regular assembly dance in Vaughn hall Tuesday evening.

The Progressive Literary society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lulu Long, South Fifteenth street.

Mrs. Emma Newlin has returned to her home on South Third street after spending a few days in Marion where she was called by the death of her nephew.

For the pleasure of the twenty-second birthday anniversary of Harro Justice, Mrs. George Reid gave a prettily appointed dinner at her home on South D street last evening. A four-course dinner was served at 6 o'clock. In the center of the table was a round of pink roses and ferns. From the dome over the table were extended pink and white ribbons at the ends of which were dainty place cards. Minutaire French baskets filled with pink and white mints were placed before each guest. Following dinner, the guests were entertained with music and games. Those who enjoyed the affair were Miss Mabel Rose, Miss Pauline Wessell, Miss Mildred Townsend, Miss Mary Heidekman, Miss Mary Pfeiffer, Miss Loreta Zeyen, Louis Ripberger, Harry Brinkamp, John Galvin and Marie Justice.

The regular monthly meeting of the War Mothers will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. in the G. A. R. rooms in the court house. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. L. B. Kesser, of South Seventh street and Mrs. John Malloy, of South Eleventh street, spent the week-end in Springfield, O., and attended the installation of the Norris chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Saturday night. Mrs. Kesser is a member of the Home City chapter of that city.

Miss Birdie Norris will be hostess of the Ornis Meas club, at her home on North Twentieth street, Tuesday evening.

Miss Mary Loring, of South Fourteenth street, will entertain the members of the Tyrolean club at her home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. J. Stimson will entertain Circle Three of the First Presbyterian church at her home on South Fifteenth street Tuesday afternoon. This circle

WOMEN URGE BUDGET PLAN OF BUYING AS EFFICIENT WEAPON IN FIGHTING H. C. L.

Mrs. Arthur M. Comley, above at left; Mrs. Frank L. Wilder, at right, and Mrs. H. W. Fleck, below.

Leading women of Bridgeport, Conn., have organized to educate the housewives in buying their supplies on the budget plan to help fight the high cost of living. Weekly meetings are to be held to discuss current prices, economical menus, etc. Mrs. H. W. Fleck, Mrs. Frank L. Wilder and Mrs. Arthur M. Comley are leaders in the work.

The move is a direct result of the mass meeting of Connecticut women held in Hartford a short time ago. Mrs. Fleck, chairman of the committee in Bridgeport and Fairfield county, has been interested in practically all community affairs of the women since the war began.

is headed by Mrs. W. B. Crawford.

The Hughes chapter of the Westminster Guild will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Anna Kenley, North Seventeenth street. All members are urged to be present.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the church instead of the home of Mrs. L. E. Turner, Twenty-first street.

The marriage of Miss Cleo Saint, of Grand Chain, Ill., and Dr. W. E. Russell of Easthaven, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the First Christian church, the Rev. L. E. Murray, pastor, officiating. Only the members of the immediate families witnessed the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Russell left immediately for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will reside.

The annual roll call of the Eden Rebeccah lodge No. 30 was held in the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening. An elaborate dinner was served in the banquet hall to 200 members and guests. Mrs. Lelah B. Chesline, president of the Rebeccah assembly, gave an address on "The Rebeccah Oddfellowship." Talks were also given by Brothers Jessup and George Bishop. Two readings were given by Miss Florence Falk. A musical program was given by Miss Lorene Jenks. Following the dinner and program the guests mingled informally.

All members of Circle Three of the First Presbyterian church are urged to attend the meeting scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. J. Stimson, 36 South Fifteenth street, who is leaving Richmond shortly. Mrs. William J. Blackmore will assist the hostess. Ladies are asked to bring handwork.

Mrs. Graves Heads Thrift Move of Department Club

Mrs. Clara B. Graves, of Richmond, has been appointed county chairman for the "Make Over" and "Do Without" thrift campaign of the general federation of women's club.

In addition to the study of thrift, the co-operation of women is being asked for Thrift Stamp Week, March 1 to 8. Members of each club will be asked through its thrift chairman, to purchase one thrift stamp during the week, and to permit each child in the household to buy one.

Mrs. Julia C. Henderson is chairman of the state movement. The thrift pledge which is being sent out all over the country reads as follows: "I agree to practice thrift in my everyday living; to buy only those things which my family actually needs; to exercise my best judgment in the matter of all purchases; to set aside a reasonable amount for the proverbial rainy day, and to so adjust my expenditures as to make the most of my family income."

Marriage is so often a failure because it is human beings and not gods that marry.

Duroc Breeders Organize Wayne County Association

A number of Wayne county Duroc hog breeders met in the director's room of the Second National Bank, Saturday afternoon, and formed an association, to be known as the Wayne County Duroc Breeders' association.

The purpose will be to advance the interests of the breed by co-operation among the breeders in Wayne and adjacent counties. Regular meetings will be held the last Saturday in January, April, July and October. Any party breeding registered Duroc swine will be eligible to membership.

The officers for the ensuing year are: President, Benton Wilson, Cambridge City; vice president, Clem A. Gaar, Richmond; secretary, L. C. Palmer, Richmond; treasurer, William Wilcoxon, Richmond; Directors, G. A. Hartep, William Waltz, and Ira Kent, all of Richmond. Two previous meetings were held which showed considerable interest and the completion of the organization gives promise of one of the most prosperous swine breeders associations in the state. The new organization has already 30 members.
