GRAIN PRICES

WAGNER GRAIN LETTER
CHICAGO, March 10.—Corn market loosened, two sided or bulge sale. No. 2 mixed contract now probably 10 cents over May corn. Great need of a new army of bulls to take the long side at $1.50. Receipts small. Cash prices due to see bottom on Thursday. About one-half million rye taken in two days. Oats acreage looks an increase. United States oats are six cents above Canadian oats. New York predicts about enough delayed oats on track to meet eastern wants for a long period. Overnight if a closing bulge would sell but market may meet with good buying on breaks Thursday. Australia declares against price fixing.
