

DEMOCRAT SENATORS ANGRY BECAUSE OF PRESIDENT'S LETTER

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Many Democratic senators agree with William Jennings Bryan that to make Article 10 a campaign issue "would be suicidal," but President Wilson's latest uncompromising letter has so disturbed the treaty situation in the Senate that ratification now seems impossible and the escape from a treaty issue in the campaign appears unlikely. They fear a split in the Democratic party should President Wilson force the party to take a position against safeguarding reservations.

It was regarded as significant that Senator Owen of Oklahoma, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, declared in the Senate this afternoon that he is unwilling to "follow any leader who is leading to the treaty's defeat or defeat."

Copies of the speech were issued later from the Owen presidential headquarters. As a part of his remarks in the Senate, Mr. Owen inserted a statement from William Jennings Bryan that "ratification without reservations is no longer within the range of possibility" and expressing his confidence "that the Democratic senators will refuse to assume responsibility for making Article 10 a campaign issue."

Mr. Owen said that he is willing to vote for a ratifying resolution with interpretative reservations, with Hitchcock reservations or with Lodge reservations. He added that the differences are not sufficiently important "to justify delay in declaring peace."

He declared that the country is "incensed with all those who delay ratification." This was regarded as a sign at the stubborn president as well as at those Democratic senators who hesitate to accept reservations because they fear the presidential wrath.

Democrats Worthy.

Democratic senators who come up for re-election this year were worthy today because the president apparently is deliberately forcing delay and defeat of the treaty with the idea of making it a campaign issue, yet they fear to vote for compromising reservations lest the president embarrass them by pocketing the treaty.

Except for the president's letter as many as 30 Democratic senators would have accepted the new Simons-Watson reservation to Article 10 and early ratification would have been assured with as many as 34 Republicans supporting it. Senator Simons is still optimistic enough to believe that as many as 28 Democrats will support the compromise reservation despite the president's uncompromising attitude. However, this number would be short of the number required for ratification.

Senator Watson believed yesterday that a solution to the treaty controversy had been found at last in the Simons-Watson reservation but today he believes that the president's letter has caused too many Democrats to back out to make ratification possible. He now sees no chance to obtain ratification.

Will Change Economic Note to Suit France

(By Associated Press) LONDON, March 10.—French criticism of the proposed economic memorandum to European countries has been considered by the supreme allied council, according to reports, and such alterations as will meet French objections have been agreed to. These include an engagement to maintain the authority of the reparations commission to give or withhold permission for German reparation to be mortgaged to possible reparation lenders to Germany until Germany's treaty obligations to France are fulfilled.

It is understood the council has notified the Bucharest government it will recognize the reunion of Bessarabia and Rumania. Members of the Rumanian delegation deny reports emanating from Reval yesterday to the effect that 150,000 Bolsheviks had crossed the Dniester river and would soon enter Bessarabia.

STRIKE CAUSES COAL DEFICIT (By Associated Press)

PARIS, March 10.—A deficit of 20,000 tons of coal daily will be the result of the miners strike in northern France, according to the Petit Parisien which says a restriction on consumption will be imposed to remedy the situation.

The government it is said will request railways to reduce the number of passenger trains, pending a settlement of the trouble. The secretary of the miners' federation has declared the strike to be purely local.

Lancaster, Pa.—"I was weak and run down, had pains in my head, back and stomach all the time, and bearing down pains. I had used Lydia E. We were married sixteen years and had no children, but now we have a fine big boy and we always call him our 'Pinkham' boy. The doctor was afraid of my case as I was 41 years old when the boy was born, but I came through all right.
