Beautiful in the charm of the simplicity and the sweet solemnity of the Quaker service was the wedding of Miss Juanita Ballard, daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Jay Ballard, of Southwest A street, and B. Willis Beede, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Beede, of Whittier, Cal., which took place Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. in the West Richmond Friends' church before an assemblage of prominent Quakers of the community, and college friends.

At 2:30, Kent Morse, a member of the senior class of Earlham college, of which Miss Ballard is a member, presiding at the organ, played the Lohengrin wedding march. The ushers, Clarence Pickett, Wilbur Kampe, Milton Hadley, and Mr. David Henley, led the bridal party. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Alice Forsythe, Miss Eleanor Bly, Miss Eleanor Seidler and Miss Dorothy Helronimus, who were attractive in orange frocks of pale colors.

Miss Forsythe wore pale pink organdy and wore a corsage of pink and white sweet peas. Miss Seidler wore pale blue and a corsage of pink and white sweet peas. Miss Bly wore pale yellow organdy with a corsage of white and lavender sweet peas and Miss Helronimus pale green with a corsage of white and lavender sweet peas. Next came Miss Eleanor Ballard, sister of the bride, who, as maid of honor, wore a gown of pink georgette with a bodice and ribbons of blue satin. She carried a sheaf bouquet of Columbia roses.

The bride followed alone. Miss Ballard was demurely charming in a simple gown of white crepe de chine. The only ornament on her gown was a pearl yoke which her mother wore on her bridal gown. Her wedding veil was arranged with a crown which was bordered with orange blossoms sent from Florida. Miss Ballard carried a shower bouquet of white roses, with sweet peas and freesias. The party met the groom and best man, Mr. Ross Hadley, at a platform in front of the church. Miss Ballard and Mr. Beede took their places on the platform which was simply decorated with baskets of pink roses and potted ferns. In accordance with the Quaker service the ceremony grows out of a meeting for worship and when the bridal party was seated a few moments of silence followed.

Dr. Alexander Purdy, of Earlham college, gave the opening prayer. This was followed by a song by Samuel Garton, head of the department of music of Earlham, who sang, "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" by Keble. Charles Woodman, pastor of the church, had charge of the scripture and message. This was followed by the wedding ceremony, performed by Miss Ballard and Mr. Beede, who repeated the marriage vows of the Quaker church. In addition to the Quaker ceremony, they presented each other with a ring. The signing of the marriage certificate by the bride and groom and relatives and friends followed. The certificate was written by Dr. H. E. McGrew, president of Penn college. Miss Susan Thomas, of Springfield, O., cousin of the bride, who is the possessor of a beautiful contralto voice, sang "O Perfect Love" by Blomfield. The closing prayer was given by Dr. Charles E. Tebbets of Whittier, Cal. The bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

A reception was held at the Ballard home following the ceremony. The house was simply decorated with ferns, pink roses and potted primrose. Mr. and Mrs. B. Willis Beede, Mrs. Alberta Beede, mother of the groom and Mrs. Mary A. Jay Ballard, mother of the bride, were in the receiving line. The guests were served cake, ices and candies. The ices and candies were of pink, blue, lavender, green, yellow and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Beede left for a short wedding trip and will return to Richmond to remain until May, when they will sail for Europe. Mrs. Beede is a graduate of the Westmont boarding school, Westmont, Pa., and of Earlham college, belonging to the class of 1920. She has a large number of friends made by her sincerity and animated personality. She took an active part in athletics at Westmont and Earlham. Mrs. Beede possesses a voice of sweet quality and has taken part in all musical activities, having been a member of the Madrigal club of Earlham. Mr. Beede took his A. B. degree from Occidental college, Los Angeles, Calif. For one year he attended the Kennedy school of missions in Hartford, Conn., and graduated from the San Francisco Theological seminary at San Anselmo, Calif. Mr. Beede is now field secretary of the American Friends' board of Foreign Missions. In May Mr. and Mrs. Beede will sail for Liverpool. They will attend the Friends' conference at London after which they will go to Paris and from there to Italy. They will then go to Africa and from there to Palestine, thence to Japan and Korea, Honolulu, and back to the states, arriving in Richmond about May, 1921. During this time Mr. Beede will investigate mission work in these fields. While in Korea, they will be the guests of Mr. Beede's sister, who is a missionary in Korea.

Among the out-of-town guests who came for the wedding were Mrs. J. J. Beede, and Dr. Charles Tebbets of Whittier, Calif. Mrs. Edgar Thomas and Miss Susan Thomas, of Springfield, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellerman and Mrs. Melville Ellerman, of West Milton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ballard of Plainfield, Ind., and Miss Theodora Wilson of Battle Creek, Michigan.

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid soap from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advertisement.
