

DUNHAM HART DEAD; MIAMI U. ALUMNI OF PREBLE WILL DINE

EATON, O., March 1—Dunham Hart, 75, well-known Preble county farmer died Wednesday noon at his home near Sugar Valley, six miles southwest of Eaton, after an illness of two days' duration. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at his home. Burial will be here in Mound Hill cemetery.

Mr. Hart was born in Sugar Valley neighborhood, where he lived all his life, with the exception of several years that he lived in Missouri when young man.

He is survived by one son, Walter Hart, two daughters, Mrs. William Thomas and Mrs. Ambrose Toney, all of whom reside in this county; also a brother, Joseph Hart, of Princeton, Ill.

Burbaker Services Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Burbaker, 75, wife of George Burbaker, were held this afternoon at Gratiot, where she died Monday at her home in that village. Drowsy was the cause of death. Her husband survived. Mrs. Burbaker was twice married, her first husband being the late Isaac Bower. Of this marriage she is survived by two children, Ira Brower, residing southeast of Eaton, and Mrs. Samantha Glant, of Kendallville, Ind.

Miami Alumni to Dine

Preble county alumni of Miami University will give a senior banquet in Eaton, April 1. Chester A. Burns, Mrs. John Shannon and Miss Velma Ayers have been named as a committee. County School Superintendent W. S. Fogarty, Harvey H. Heistand, Esther Gormly will prepare the program and the invitation list. Miss Gormly has been elected secretary of the association, succeeding C. W. Walters.

Farm Bureau Will Campaign
In an effort greatly to increase its membership, the Preble county Farm Bureau will conduct a membership campaign. Date for inauguration of the campaign has not been fixed. Present plans are to fix the membership fee at $10, the membership to cover a period of three years.

At this time there are not sufficient county funds at hand to carry on county agricultural agent work. The bureau expects to raise enough money in its membership drive to make up the deficiency of county funds.

After three years' service, A. J. Swift some time ago resigned as county agent, since which time the county has been without an agent.

City Wars on Dogs
War has been declared by the city council on unlicensed dogs running at large in the city limits. Officers who are to enforce the resolution say they are wondering if enough ammunition is available to do the job.

STEINHART OPENS RICHMOND BUILDING

Men from the Indianapolis office and other state officials are here to welcome motorists of the district at the opening, which will close Saturday night.

Guy S. Means is Richmond manager. The company has the state agency for the Cadillac and Chevrolet.

The new building, which cost approximately $80,000, is two and one-half stories high. The front first floor is occupied by the salesroom, and the service station is in the rear of the first floor. Offices are located on the Mezzanine floor along with the parts and used car department. The third floor is confined to general repair. Ten Cadillac cars have been sold in the county since the first of the year.

Account Board Claims Credit From Legislators

Walter McConaha, of Richmond; James M. Knapp, of Hagerstown, and Oliver Lafuze, of Liberty, members of the state legislature, have been mailed letters from Jesse Eschbach, state examiner of the state board of accounts, presenting statements showing savings effected in the state government by the accounts board.

The statements say that during the past five months, when Eschbach has been state examiner, the expenditures of the office have been $5,139 less than during the same period in 1918.
