

INTERCHURCH WORK HEADS OF INDIANA MEET IN CAPITAL

Sixty-seven men and two women in Indiana have accepted appointment as directors of county united financial campaigns for the drive which the inter-church world movement will conduct April 25 to May 2, said Frank J. Ressler, united financial campaign director of Indiana, Thursday.

The denominational financial directors and directors who will have charge of the united campaign, were attending a conference at Indianapolis Friday, where they will study the survey which will be presented by the Rev. J. F. Russell of the survey department of New York.

Thirty denominations, representing 60 per cent of the protestant church membership of the United States, will participate in the financial drive for $336,777,572, the sum of the total campaign budget for 1920. The portion of the budget to be paid in 1920 is $175,418,349. The amount raised will be used by 182 boards and organizations officially related to the 30 denominations co-operating in the movement to carry on the regular work of missions, education and philanthropy, both in America and in foreign fields.

The inter-church world movement forms a clearing house for these denominational groups participating in the campaign, and will not undertake to administer work in any of the fields covered by the denominations or their executive boards.

William Stump, head of the Richmond business college, with Roy Babylon, representing the United Brethren, were to attend the Friday meeting from Richmond. Walter B. Royce, of Indianapolis, head of the district, which embraces Wayne, Franklin, Fayette, Henry, Rush, Union and Hancock counties, with headquarters here, was also to attend.

Church Federation Calls for Easier Gathering of New Church Members

The church federation of Indiana has sent out a call for Easter gatherings of new members all over the state, to conclude the evangelistic campaign which has been in progress for several months, Richmond and Wayne county pastors heard Friday.

The call, which was signed by Edgar L. Williams, executive secretary of the federation, urges Sunday schools to have decisions for Christ on the Sunday preceding Easter, and that church workers be organized by pastors for special effort to bring new people to the pastor's notice.

County Campaigns. Several counties in Indiana have had county wide campaigns, and will round up the results Easter Sunday. The work has been especially successful in Allen county and Wayne county. At Port Wayne, 17 simultaneous meetings produced results. One pastor received 124 new members. In this city Grace M. E. church, of which the Rev. A. H. Backus is pastor, received 178 new members.

Leaders in Work. The leaders of the evangelistic department of the federation, who have been promoting state-wide campaigns are: The Rev. T. W. Grafton, chairman; the Rev. Edgar L. Williams, secretary, and the Rev. Philip L. Frick, president. An evangelistic committee of about 50 pastors and laymen has worked with these men. It was stated at the opening that the goal of the campaign was 100,000 more members of Sunday schools and 20,000 more members to attend prayer meetings.

Lift Off Corns!

Doesn't hurt! Lift touchy corns and calluses right off with fingers

Apply a few drops of "Freezone" upon that old, bothersome corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting. Then shortly you lift it right off, root and all, without pain or soreness.

Hard corns, soft corns, corns between the toes, and the hard skin calluses on bottom of feet lift right off—no humbug!

Tiny bottles of "Freezone" cost but a few cents at drug stores

Lawrence Garwood Asks Clemency of State Board

Lawrence Garwood of Wayne county, sentenced to a term of two to 14 years for burglary, from the Wayne circuit court, Jan. 20, 1917, was to appear before the state board of pardons Friday. Garwood was sentenced to the Indiana Reform school, and later transferred to the state prison. Charles Revaloe, of Wayne county, serving a life sentence for murder, was given a hearing Thursday.

WILL ASK INCREASES
Salary increases for librarians throughout the state will be sought by a committee of the Indiana Library association of which the librarians and assistants of the local library are members, according to the announcement made from the office of the Indiana public library commission.

18 EGGS DAILY FROM 20 HENS

500 Eggs a month from these 20 Hens. That's what Mrs. Henry Younghaus, 918 East 9th Street, Erie, Pa., is getting. She says she gets these results because she makes Pratt's Poultry Regular in the feed daily.

Pratt's Poultry Regular, mixed with a good egg-making ration, not only makes hens lay, but the eggs wanted for hatching will produce sturdy chicks that will develop into A-1 pullets and cockerels. Test "Pratt's" with this understanding—"Your Money Back If You Are Not Satisfied." Pratt's Poultry Preparations will make your poultry pay. A. J. Luken & Co., E. H. Stegman, Omar G.
