The W-Hub club will meet Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seifert at their home on North Eighteenth street. All members are urged to be present.

A fifty supper will be given in the basement of the Second English Lutheran church Friday evening, beginning at 5 p. m. by the women of the church. Everyone is invited.

One hundred cakes will be sold at the Market House, Saturday afternoon by the women of the Richmond W. C. T. U. The sale will begin at noon.

Mrs. Howard Kamp, of South Seventeenth street, has as her house-guests her mother, Mrs. Olive Bunnelle, and her brother Robert Bunnelle, of Urbana, O.

Two hundred couples attended the dance given at the Coliseum, Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp following the Columbia concert. The music was furnished by the Columbia saxophone sextette and the Yerkes orchestra. There were guests from Connorsville, Union City, Hagers-town, Winchester, Eaton and Cambridge City. Mr. and Mrs. Kolp will receive their assembly dance Friday evening. The next regular assembly dance will be held Friday, March 26.

One of the pretty St. Patrick's parties of the week was that given by the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Christian Church, Wednesday evening in the church. At 8:30 p. m. a banquet was served. Three tables were beautifully decorated in St. Patrick's colors. During the evening games and contests were enjoyed, the winners being Marvin Pickett and Corbett Goldiron. The guests included Miss Florence Corns, Miss Pauline Mansfield, Miss Marguerite Kessler, Miss Marjorie Erk, Miss Margaret Windsor, Miss Ruth Bell, Miss Josephine Washam, Miss Mary Brumfield, Miss Hazel Brumfield, Miss Gladys Arnett, Miss Helen Washam, Miss Lova Mansfield, Miss Katherine Arnett, Miss Ruth Horr, Miss Lola Jones, Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Marie Betts, Miss Elizabeth Hunt, Miss Birdie Gaddis, Miss Blanche Conway, Miss Vera Blossom, Miss Goldie Triplett, Miss Edith Helmich, Raymond Griffith, Glen Carver, Gordon Triplett, Elmer Jarvis, Basil Baker, Ben Carver, William Steele, Luther Loehr, Corbett Goldiron, Orval Chandler, Greek Jones, Boyd Edwards, Raymond Beetley, Carl Cootz, Robert Rolland, Marvin Pickett, William Scheidt, Gordon Borton and the Rev. L. E. Murray.

The Alice Carey club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Eva Jones. The members responded to the roll call with quotations from Cowper. Miss Emma Lindemuth read a paper on "Modern Spain." The guests of the club were Mrs. Arvel Dally and Mrs. Charles Haines. The hostess for the next meeting will be announced later.

Mr. John A. Hasecoaster announces the marriage of his daughter, Coral, to the Reverend Edward Lindsay Williams of Cleveland, O. The marriage was solemnized Thursday. The Rev. and Mrs. Williams will reside in Cleveland.

Miss Elizabeth Marvel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Marvel, of North Tenth street, will sail from New York May 1, for France until time for the Friends' conference in London, which she will attend, after which she will travel on the continent, returning home the latter part of the year.

Mrs. Edwin Shreeve went to Indianapolis Friday morning, to attend the Bryn Mawr college breakfast at the Claypool hotel.

Miss Marjorie Beck, Miss Marguerite, Miss Marie and Miss Edna Decker are spending the week end in Cincinnati, the guests of Miss Elma Rodenbeck. While there they will attend the opera.

Robert Grafton, artist, was in Richmond this week on business.

Miss Helen Rust of South Tenth street, went to Bloomington Friday to be the guest of her brother Lloyd Rust, a student at Indiana University. While here she will be the guest of Miss Helen Hering at the Delta Gamma house. Saturday evening Miss Rust will attend the Phi Kappa Psi formal dance.

A market will be held at Conkey's drug store Saturday by the Neighborhood club. The public is invited to patronize.

Miss Edna Marlett left Friday for Pittsburg where she will spend the week-end with Miss Hulda Kenley, formerly of this city. Next week Miss Marlett will go to Philadelphia to attend the music supervisors' convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert S. Conover of Pittsburg will come the latter part of the month for a visit with Mr. Conover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith of North Eighth street.

Mrs. Alice M. Walker is ill at her home on West Main street.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting of Circle one of the First Methodist Episcopal Aid Society which met with Mrs. Louise Beckett at her home, 526 West Twelfth street. Mrs. Harry Clift was elected president; Mrs. Anna Anderson, vice-president; Mrs. Grace Fouts, secretary; Mrs. O. H. Wilson, assistant secretary; Mrs. Roy Brunton, treasurer; Mrs. LeRoy Nichols, chairman of the working committee; Mrs. L. M. Riderbourn, assistant chairman, and Mrs. Louise Beckett, chaplain. Fourteen members attended. After the business session, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing. The circle will meet Thursday, March 25, with Mrs. O. H. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Paul Gates of Piqua, O., are the parents of a son Robert Grant, born Friday morning. Mrs. Gates was formerly Miss Nellie Grant, of Hagerstown. Mr. Gates, a former resident of Richmond, is supervisor of music in Piqua schools.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Study, South Sixteenth street instead of with Mrs. F. J. Stimson as announced in the year book. Miss Flora Broadus and Miss Edith Moore will have charge of the program.

Mrs. John Ackerman was hostess for a meeting of the Woman's Aid society of the Trinity Lutheran church, at her home on South Eighth street, Thursday afternoon. At this meeting it was arranged to hold an Easter market. Mrs. George Snyder was elected chairman of the market committee. Following the business session two papers were read by Mrs. Oscar Tressell and Mrs. George Pille. Mrs. Horace Logan gave two whistling solos during the social hour. Late in the afternoon the hostess served refreshments.

Audience Pleased With Yerkes Jazz Musicians and Dancing of Rouskaya

Patrons of the Popular Concert series were given a novel entertainment in the program of the Columbia Saxophone sextette, with Yerkes' orchestra and Baroness Rouskaya at the Coliseum, Thursday evening. The concert was attended by the largest audience of any, and was well received throughout. The eight men in Harry Yerkes' orchestra proved their versatility. Each of the players performed on more than one instrument. The saxophone sextette was by far the most pleasing of the organizations, and their medleys of popular airs were real treats.

Color was added to the concert by several feature numbers, including the Bagpipe band and the Laughin' trombone. In these, the personality of the young men was quickly caught by the audience, and the numbers were given long applause.

Baroness Rouskaya, except in her final number, completely won her audience by her interpretations of classical dancing. Although the interpretation of the American Fox trot, including the "shimmy," lacked both the grace and charm that marked other numbers of her program, she showed exceptional ability. Two violin solos by the dancer were very pleasing.

Following the concert, the Yerkes orchestra played a program of dancing for the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp.

BABY GIRL BORN TO MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL JOHNSON

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, of North D street, are the parents of a baby daughter, Rose, born Thursday evening at Reid Memorial hospital. Mrs. Johnson was formerly Martha Gaar Jones.

Hood's Peanut Butter

Hood's Mustard

As a luncheon spread, Hood's Peanut Butter makes a satisfying addition to cool weather menus. Made from fresh-roasted "Jumbo" peanuts, tasty, savory and appetizing. For sandwiches for school and the lunch pail of the head of the house. When you eat peanut butter you save on meat. Packed in 10-ounce glass jars, clean and sanitary.

HOOD'S MUSTARD

An inexpensive and delicious condiment for many uses: sandwiches, cold meats, fish, sausages. Good on roasts and in stews. A whiff of Hood's mustard makes you hungry. Made from nature's choicest product's—mustard, vinegar, spices and tumeric. A dandy recipe on each jar for making salad dressing. Comes in 10-ounce glass jars, sanitarily sealed.

Ask your grocer for Hood's Peanut Butter and Hood's Mustard. Pure, clean and ready for use.
