SONG WRITER HELPS TOWN
LONDON—The author of the famous war song, "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag," is now a village garbage collector. True, the position has been conferred upon him as an honorary one, and he has accepted it for one day a week, in response to a garbage collection scandal in his village.

He is George Powell, proprietor of the tavern called the King's Arms, in the lovely little village of Twyford, Berkshire. "I have a horse and cart," he said recently, "and next Thursday I shall start work."

His village just now is seething with indignation because nobody has bid for the contract for garbage collection, which the parish council is trying to let. The drainage system in use in the village is an old one, and for years past there has been no systematic collection of village refuse.

News and Events Among R. R. Workers

The boiler-washing building at the east yards was completed Friday afternoon and active operations were started Saturday morning. The building is a frame structure built around two large tanks, and although about 20 feet west of the roundhouse, is connected with the latter by several large pipes. The building is used when the water is pumped from the boilers of the round house into the large tanks. The round house boilers are then cleaned out and the water from the tanks—which is filtered while there, is pumped back into the boilers, the whole operation consuming less than 30 minutes.

The ground in front of the power house, round house, repair shops, storage rooms and master mechanic's office, which becomes a sea of mud and water when rain sets in, is being rapidly filled in with cinders. These make rather rough walking at first, but soon pack into a passable roadway.

Need for laborers in the car repair department is acute. Foremen report that the number of mechanics coming out for work is increasing, but no laborers are in sight.

Roy Chiles, round house clerk, who has been absent from work because of the flu, returned to work Friday. There has been a need of clerical help in the roundhouse office. L. G. Rathbun has been appointed chief clerk for the roundhouse office force.

Four yard engines were in the roundhouse at one time for repairs, Friday. This slightly held up the "working over" of several passenger engines, as the yard engines are acutely needed.

The car repair department is working at top speed in an endeavor to alleviate partly the car shortage. The force is considerably short handed, but in proportion to number is far ahead of the repair department at either Logansport or Columbus.

The Richmond shops are not equipped for the manufacturing of large parts for locomotives. Consequently badly needed locomotives are often held idle in the roundhouse while parts are being sent here from Columbus or Altoona. Small parts, however, are manufactured at the Richmond shops.

An unidentified man was taken off Number 20 Friday evening and taken to a nearby physician for illness, between Indianapolis and here. He was able to resume his journey later. Number 20 makes no stops between here and Indianapolis.

Meat Saving Week Will Start Monday in State

Next week will be "meat saving week" in Indiana.

Under the plan citizens will be asked during that period to refrain from buying the most choice cuts of meats. They will be persuaded to take cuts of round steak and other meats at lower prices than those they have been accustomed to buying.

The week will be carried out in cities of eastern and middle western states. It was designed by the department of justice with a view to bringing about a cut in the consumption of the choice cuts of meats and subsequently a reduction in price.

Stanley Wyckoff, fair price commissioner, is in charge of the plan in the state.

BOILS SNOW FOR DIAMOND

SIOUX CITY, Iowa—Losing a diamond from her engagement ring, a resident of the town went to the place where she remembered slipping on the ice, and her hand striking against something hard. She got a truck and carted the snow from the spot to her back yard. Then with the aid of a washbottle she boiled the snow and found her diamond.

G. O. P. Politicians To Be Pushed Out of Limelight By H. S. Party Leaders

Chicago and San Francisco will be back numbers next June, as far as politics are concerned.

Richmond High school civics students will have settled the question of presidential candidates, definitely and forever, long before that time. Plans are being made to conduct a real national political convention, with delegates from the classes.

The exact routine of a national convention will be carried out, with debate, appointment of committees, selection of candidates for president and vice-president, and the adoption of a platform.

The exact date for the convention has not been set, but several active school "politicians" have started work on their nomination speeches. Whether the league of nations covenant, with or without reservations, will be settled at the convention also, has not been announced.

WALKS 1,000 MILES TO SEE HIS DYING MOTHER

BUDAPEST, Hungary—Misdrag Pokorny, a seventeen-year-old Serbian boy, has arrived at Belgrade after walking from Petrograd, a distance of 1,000 miles. The journey took six months. He had been arrested by the Bolsheviks. He heard his mother was ill and wanted to see him. He escaped from prison. Without funds or food he set out on his tramp. He was arrested many times, but escaped. The mother was overjoyed to see the lad. In the last three months Misdrag covered 600 miles without boots. His clothing hung about him in rags.

FED HORSE TOO WELL
LONDON, Eng.—"The animal is suffering from gout, due to good feeding," said a solicitor at Thames Court, when a man was charged with cruelty to a horse.

STOMACH TROUBLE AND CONSTIPATION ENDED

Suffered So He Couldn't Work for a Year, but Mr. McCormick Was Cured Promptly.

"I had stomach trouble and constipation for five years. One year of this time I was unable to work, suffering untold agony. I doctored with some of the best physicians, also took many proprietary medicines, but could not find permanent relief. Finally a friend recommended Milks Emulsion. The first few doses relieved me greatly, and three bottles of it effected a permanent cure."—C. A. McCormick, Anderson, Ind.

Mr. McCormick is only one of many hundreds who have endured torture for years and then found that Milks Emulsion gives blessed relief and real, lasting benefit. It costs nothing to try. Milks Emulsion is a pleasant nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.
