The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Sumich Laymon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Laymon, South Fifteenth street, and Merle Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Williams, was announced at a pretty party given Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Williams. During the evening games and dancing were enjoyed. The guests were invited to the dining room for a dainty supper. Yellow and white were artistically carried out in a color scheme. The table was arranged with yellow butterflies. In the center of the table was a pretty French basket filled with daffodils and tied with yellow ruffles. Covers for the guests were marked by attractive place cards which were used to announce the date of the marriage. Paper butterflies were fastened to the cards and on the wings of the butterflies was found the initials of Miss Laymon and Mr. Williams, and the date April 10. The guests were Miss Teresa Crebb, Miss Guywirth Brewster, Miss Helen Firth, Miss Laura Pritchard, Miss Frances Owens, Miss Margaret Shinn, Miss Johanna Shinn, Miss Celia Whidell, Miss Burnice Layman, Mrs. Ralph Personette, Mrs. Marion Williams, Mrs. Arthur Williams and Mrs. Lessie Crebb.

A pretty party of the week was given Thursday afternoon by Miss Myrtle Crawford at her country home for Miss Fannie Horrell who will be married Saturday, April 3, to Albert Gilmer. Thin, Nervous People Need Bitro-Phosphate Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nervous starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that one of the best things for the nerves is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

By strengthening the nerves, weak, tired people regain energy and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright; and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. It is sold by Conkey Drug Co. and all good druggists.

CAUTION—Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so, that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks. Those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh, should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

hall Thursday evening for members of the lodge and their families.

Style Show Crowds Pack Coliseum; Exhibit Voted Biggest Event of Kind

Surpassing any event of its kind ever given in Richmond, the Sixth Annual Style show, which opened at the Coliseum Wednesday night, was a big success.

The Coliseum was arranged with a stage at one end, set in three scenes, and a promenade was built around the entire balcony. The models stepped from a flower covered entrance at the back of the stage, and after a courtesy on the stage, walked slowly around the platform, showing to advantage the latest styles in clothing for men, women and children.

One of the most pleasing parts of the show was the display of children's garments, by ten small children. Miss Jane Sudhoff, the youngest of the juvenile models, caused much merriment with her efforts to display her recital.

She was excellently accompanied by Miss Tina Mae Haines, organist and choir director of St. James Methodist church in Chicago. Her background position as accompanist was intelligently held.

Never florid nor ornate; always clear, toned and earnest, Madame Arendt made a lasting impression upon her audience. Her voice is beautiful. Despite the fact that she has practically forsaken public life for her family, Madame Arendt has lost none of her buoyant charm and technical perfection.

Has Sweet, Rich Tones.

Her opening song "Nina," by Pergolesi, displayed immediately her trained power and artistry. In this was brought forth tones of inimitable sweetness and rich fulness. Nothing on her program so greatly illustrated her "music from the heart" ability.

In Handel's beautiful "Care Seive," she produced tones and interpretation of exquisite quality.

"Il Partit" from Massenet's "Griselda" was dramatically done, and yet particular care was given to dramatic tones. More fire and tone volume was exhibited in the "Hymn au Soleil" from "Miaja" by Georges.

Sympathetic Interpretation.

"Homing" by Del Riego, and her final encore, "The Last Rose of Summer," were two of the most charming numbers on the program. The latter brought the last laurel to the singer for her perfection of sympathetic interpretation.
