

PASTORS TO APPEAL FOR ACCOMMODATIONS FOR MUSIC FOLKS

An appeal to the congregations for aid in furnishing accommodations to the 400 delegates of the music teachers convention here in April, will be made by Richmond pastors the first Sunday after Easter. This decision was reached at the weekly meeting of the Richmond Ministerial Association in the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning. To devise plans for the appeal and also to fix a nominal rental for the delegates to be charged, a committee composed of the Revs. Semans, Murray, and Mitchell, was appointed.

Phases of the coming financial campaign of the Inter-Church World Movement were presented by three representatives of the state organization. The pastors were urged to present the representatives with a list of the members of their respective congregations.

May Appoint Layman
The pastors were also urged to appoint a layman that would co-operate with the regular campaign director, but would be directly responsible for class B, or those not being affiliated with any one church.

Acting upon a motion presented by the Rev. J. J. Rae, the evangelistic committee of the church federation was ordered to forego holding services in the county jail. A minister is appointed for each Sunday and these report that hardly ever more than two or three men are in jail.

"Making the body express the soul" will be the theme of the next week's meeting of the organization, by the Rev. Addison Parker.
