One of the promising affairs of next week is the dance to be given Wednesday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall by J. C. Coyle and Frank Bescher. The big attraction of the affair will be the music. The Varsity Six from Miami University, will play the program of dance music and a soloist from the university will entertain the guests. The dance will be a "Hard Times" affair.

The Tourists held a very interesting meeting with Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Bond last evening. Wilfred Jessup gave an able paper on "The Former Colonies of Germany—Past and Future Government," which brought out a good discussion. Mrs. Fred Lemon, assisted by Mrs. E. F. Hiatt, Mrs. E. R. Lemon, and Miss Alice Lemon, gave a farce, "While the Family Waits." Twenty-eight members and several guests were present. The last meeting of the year will be the banquet, April 30.

The New York Society of Painters' exhibit will open in the public art gallery Sunday at 2 p. m. The public is invited.

Robert Johnson has returned home after spending the week in Indianapolis with his sister, Mrs. Robert Barrett Evans.

The Evan Smith orchestra furnished the program of dance music at the Phi Delta Kappa get-together dance given Friday evening in the Odd Fellows hall. Harry Frankel was the soloist. The dancers were Mr. and Mrs. George Brenizer, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. Clem McConaha, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Klute, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huston, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Anderson, Miss Julia Lichtenfels, Miss Mary O'Brien, Miss Mazie Marshall, Miss Florence Miller, Miss Marie Duane, Miss Camilla Haner, Miss Helen Murray, Miss Beulah Bowers, Miss Dorothy Marine, Miss Marie Robinson, Miss Esther Nichols, Ray Lichtenfels, Pete Lichtenfels, Bill Brennen, Joseph Smithmeyer, Culton Scott, William Williams, Artie Mahan, Everett Skinner, Otto Hiatt, Neal Ely, Walter Scherer, John Dunn, and Bob Moser of Winchester.

William Rindt informally entertained a party of young people at his home on South Twenty-first street Friday evening. The evening was spent in dancing and in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Those included in the party were Miss Ethel Tullman, Miss Rhee Crandall, Miss Edith Lewis, Miss Alice Star, Miss Emily Balfay, Miss Janice Merritt, Kenneth Dollins, Wayne Haisley, Keifer Calkins, Gurney Mann, Jean Harding and William Rindt.

The Junior-Senior Prom given in the art gallery in the high school building Friday evening was one of the prettiest high school affairs of the year. Over one of the doors to the art gallery was a large "20" in gold and black, the senior colors and over the other entrance was a large "21," in blue and gold, the junior class colors. From the two class emblems were drawn streamers of the gold and black and the blue and gold, forming an archway into the rooms of the art gallery. Dance programs with cords of the two class colors, were given to the dancers. The Harms Novelty orchestra played. Punch was served during the evening. During the intermission a clever vaudeville skit was presented by Harold Vore, Harold Laatta, and Roland Cutler. Miss Helen Jessup gave an interpretative dance, and Miss Edna Johnson a reading. Members of the school board and the high school faculty chaperoned the affair. Those attending were Richard Thornburgh, Roland Loehr, Wynne Evans, Roy Johnson, Eugene Messick, Ralph Motley, Edwin Ross, Elvin Hoerner, Harry Thomas, Marion Zuttermeister, Merle Scoville, Wilson Pierce, Frank Crowe, Nelson Hunt, Russell Allen, Pete McMahan, Alfred Gross, Joseph Smith, Carl Smith, Roy Johnson, Lawrence Shesler, Wayne Hill, John Livingston, Stanley Youngflesh, Robert Carson, Alvin Alexander, Ed C. Miss Louise Malsby, daughter of Mrs. Clara E. Malsby will be married Wednesday, April 14 to Mr. Houston Reece Mariatt at her home on South A street. The guests will include only the members of the immediate families.

Circle No. 3 of the First Presbyterian church of which Mrs. W. J. Blakemore is leader, will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Earl Cox, 28 South Eighteenth street. The hostesses will be Mrs. Cox and Mrs. George R. Hays. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Daniel Hart has as her guests her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Harry Brehm and Margaret Mary Brehm, of Chicago.

Mrs. Richard Van Zant, of North Tenth street, will be hostess for the Dorcas Society Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Wilson will be hostess for the Goldenrod Needle club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Linden Avenue.

The Degree of Honor will meet Tuesday evening in the Commercial Club rooms. Important business matters will be brought before the organization.

WHAT GIRLS FROM EIGHT TO EIGHTEEN WILL WEAR THIS SPRING

Girls, just like trees and grass and flowers, want to shed their dark winter garments for something bright and cheery, or at least for something new, when the balmy days of spring come. Nothing gives one such a feeling of new life and real joy as the new outfit for the season. Here are four spring costumes which will please the little girls from eight to eighteen. Simplicity marks all of them and makes them all suitable for youth.

and all members are urged to be present.

The Friends' Foreign Missionary Society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Rebecca Davis at her home, 444 West Main street.

"The Crisis" the well known book by Winston Churchill will be shown in a movie at the Joseph Moore school Friday evening, April 16, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association. There will be special music by Ruth and Richard Hutchins. The program will begin at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited. The picture to be shown is one equally as interesting as the "Birth of A Nation" but more suitable for children to see. The proceeds will be used for the school.

The April committee of the Country club, Mrs. Wilson Magaw as chairman, Mrs. Wilbur Hibberd and Miss Eleanor Seidel, announces a luncheon party next Friday at 1 p. m. This will be a progressive party. The committee will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Kolp at a children's party which they are planning for April 24.

Members of the Trifolium Society of the First English Lutheran church will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Rohr at their home on South Fifteenth street at 7:30 p. m. Monday.

The illness of the Rev. F. A. Dresel has caused the postponement of the guest day meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First English Lutheran church indefinitely.

Members of the Alice Carey club will meet at the home of Mrs. Martha Barr on North Seventeenth street at 2:15 Thursday. All are to be present.

The Ladies' Bible class of the Trinity Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. Claude Addleman at her home on Pearl street at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The Neighborhood Club will meet with Mrs. Harry Shute at her home on the Garwood road at 2 p. m., Tuesday. Sewing and other work for the victims of the Fountain City tornado, will be done.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Second Presbyterian church will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. in a called meeting at the home of Mrs. George Harper, 317 North Seventeenth street. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Cofield, of Wayne county east of Richmond, are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Reid, 2237 East Main street. Mrs. Mollie Hattie of Detroit is also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reid. Mrs. Cofield is Mrs. Reid's sister.

FRANCHISE LEAGUE WILL MEET ON APRIL 17

The Richmond Franchise League will hold a meeting in the public art gallery Saturday, April 17, at 3 p. m. Mrs. W. W. Gaar, who attended the state meeting, will report.

Important political questions will be discussed. Mrs. William Dudley

FREED FROM THE PHYSIC HABIT

"I had stomach trouble and constipation very bad for a long time. Tried everything but kept getting worse. I could hardly eat anything and my bowels would not move unless I took physic every day. I have to support myself and two children, yet I couldn't work.

The first bottle of Milks Emulsion did wonders for me and I have continued its use until now. I feel fine and can work every day. I have a good appetite, my stomach trouble has left me, and my bowels are as regular as clock work."—Mrs. M. A. Widner, 103 Court St., Sioux City, Iowa.

Mrs. Widner found out what all sufferers should know—that pills, salts, and physics do not end constipation, but Milks Emulsion does.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and medicines. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has worn them out, and is a powerful aid in preventing and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

For the only Milks Emulsion made, and so palatable that it can be taken with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take a bottle home with you, use it to satisfy children, directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60¢ and $1.00 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Teaneck, N. J. Sold by druggists everywhere.

its appearance in Italy, also, and in Spain, where it is still popular. The Germans adopted it as Antoinette, and the French are responsible for the charming Antoinette which is forever pitifully recorded in history through the fate of lovely Marie Antoinette, queen of Louis VI.

The French later contracted Antoinette to Toinette, a popular form throughout the country. Toinon is also sometimes used as a diminutive. Italy has an Antoinette and an Antoinette. Antoinette and Antoinette are the favorite equivalents in Sweden.

The garnet is Antoinette's talisman stone. It possesses many of the powers of the ruby, whose flaming heart it is so closely imitates. It promises its wearer courage, a dauntless heart, and success in every ambition. Friday is her lucky day and 5 her lucky number.
