

Society

All reservations for the dinner dance to be given at the Richmond Country club Wednesday evening must be in by Tuesday night. Dinner will be served at 7 p. m. Dancing will follow. Evan Smith's orchestra will play the program of dance music.

Reservations for the luncheon bridge to be given at the Country club Friday at 1 p. m. must be in by Thursday night. Progressive bridge will be played during the afternoon. All the women of the club are invited.

The marriage of Miss Louise Malsby and Hulton Reece Marlatt will be solemnized Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Clara E. Malsby on South A street.

A pretty party was given Monday evening by Miss Mildred Edwards at her home on South Sixteenth street. For Miss Margaret VanSant, whose engagement to Morris Gay has been announced. The bride-to-be was presented with many gifts by means of a mock wedding. The evening was spent informally, after which the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Hearts were used in the appointments. The guests included Miss Florence Johnson, Miss Lova Mansfield, Miss Catherine Rhoades, Miss Helen Ligon, Miss Charlotte Mitchell, Miss Theresa Karcher, Miss Ada Study, Miss Grace McElrath, Miss Helen Larson, Miss Electa Foster, Mrs. Amos Jenkins, Mrs. Howard Williams, Miss Fern Marshall of New Paris, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Miss Juanita Wickett, Miss Evelyn Edwards, Miss Mildred Edwards, Mrs. F. M. VanSant and Mrs. Anna J. Edwards.

A card party will be given by members of the Y. M. I. in their club rooms Tuesday at 8:15 p. m. The club will give a dance next Tuesday evening. Miller's orchestra will furnish the music. Both affairs are for members of the club and their friends.

The M. M. M. club will meet Wednesday evening with Mrs. Rex R. Buckley at her home, 718 West Main street. All members are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Herbert Warfel and children have returned from Indianapolis where they visited Mrs. Warfel's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert H. Cummings of South Sixteenth street have returned from a motor trip to Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Charles E. Cannon of South Sixteenth street, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cincinnati where she spent three weeks with friends and relatives.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Third M. E. church will meet in the church class rooms for regular work Wednesday at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Koehring were pleasantly surprised Monday evening in honor of their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary. During the evening euchre was played at five tables, favors going to Mrs. George Haner, Mrs. Waltherman and Mrs. Russell Koehring. At a late hour luncheon was served. The guests included Mrs. George Haner, Mr. Waltherman, Mrs. Ellsworth Hart, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Koehring, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Beckshultz, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kuntz, Mr. and Mrs. John Schwagman, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roell, Mr. and Mrs. William Knollenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fornsheim, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Durkel, Russell Koehring, Marguerite Koehring, Emmett Koehring and Ruth Ellen Kuntz.

Miss Wilma Ellibee entertained the members of the Tyrolean club Monday evening at her home on Charles street. Miss Helen Edgerton, a member of the club who will be married this month, was presented with an electric toaster by the members. Refreshments were served during the evening. Those present were Miss Dorothy Rees, Miss Clara Daub, Miss Anna Dallas, Miss Helen Edgerton, Miss Helen Hagelstine, Miss Wilma Ellibee, Miss Mary Luring, Miss Martha Plummer and Miss Esther Hamilton.

Mrs. Francis Glass will entertain the We-Do-So club at her home on East Main street Wednesday evening.

Miss Helen Hagelstine will entertain the Oran's Melas club Tuesday evening at her home in the McConaha apartments.

Miss Ruth Marlatt of Cincinnati, Miss Ruth Slayback of Hamilton, and Miss Alice Blinham of Munster, will come Wednesday to attend the Marlatt-Malsby wedding.

The Star Bible class of the Second Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Worth, 322 North Seventeenth street. She will be assisted by Mrs. George Harper.

Mrs. Benjamin Dallas will entertain Circle No. 1 of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at her home on North Fifth street.

The young people of the city are looking forward to the dance to be given Wednesday evening in the Old Fellows' hall by J. C. Coyle and Frank Descher. The Varsity Six from Miami university, and the soloist of the Miami university glee club will furnish the music. The affair will be a hard times dance. A number of interesting features have been arranged.

Miss Pauline Maher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Maher of North Thirteenth street, left Monday for Ursuline academy after spending the spring vacation with her parents.

Miss Belle O'Neil spent Monday in Cincinnati with friends.

The Perseverance Bible class of the First Baptist church will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Russell

Cox at her home, 208 South Eleventh street.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon with Miss Emma Rosa at her home on South Sixth street.

The Missionary societies of all the Friend's churches will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Davis, 444 West Main street. Edith Wildman will discuss the "Language Question." Mrs. Rema Allen will have a paper on "Arrested Assimilation." Miss Martha Dean, dean of women at Earlham college, will talk on "America's New Awakening." Mrs. B. Willis Beede, nee Miss Juanita Ballard, will sing. All members are urged to attend. Following the program an informal reception will be held for Mrs. Beede, who will sail with her husband in May for Africa.

Mrs. Earl Cox, Mrs. George R. Hays and Mrs. Harry Simmons will be hostesses for Circle No. 3, of the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cox, 27 South Eleventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fosnot and son of Shadyside, Ohio, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fosnot of South Seventh street.

Members of the Loyal Daughters class of the First Christian church entertained their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Manly Monday evening. A business session preceded the social hour. During the evening a violin solo was given by Miss Margaret Campbell, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Snavely. Mrs. Russell Wiley gave several piano dialogues. A luncheon was served. The assistant hostesses were Mrs. Howard Longfellow, Mrs. Walter Snavely, Mrs. Ruth Tegg, Mrs. Archibald Campbell, Mrs. Carrie Stevens, Mrs. Joseph Jones, Mrs. Francis Honsenstern and Mrs. Jason Holler.

The last meeting of the season of the Art department of the Woman's club will be held on Wednesday, April 14, at 2:30 p. m. in the public art gallery. The program for the afternoon will be several talks on the exhibit of the New York Society of Painters. A general discussion will be led by Mrs. M. F. Johnston. This will be an open meeting and all members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. C. O. Snider entertained the members of the West Richmond W. C. T. U. Monday afternoon. The lesson on government was led by Mrs. Robert Campbell. Mrs. D. W. Scott will be hostess for the organization in two weeks at her home on Asylum avenue. At this time Mrs. Scott will be leader.

Mrs. Archibald Campbell will be hostess for the Narcissus Embroidery club, Wednesday afternoon, at her home on North Ninth street.

The Ladies' Aid society of Reid Memorial church will meet Wednesday at 1 p. m. at the church. All members are urged to be present, as there will be important work.

500 ATTEND SOCIAL AND DANCE AT ST. MARY'S

More than 500 persons attended the card social and dance given by the alumnae of St. Mary's school in St. Mary's hall Monday night. Progressive euchre was played from 8 to 10 p. m., then followed dancing until 12 p. m. Miller's orchestra furnished music.

Proceeds of the affair will be used towards buying equipment for the commercial department of St. Mary's high school.

The Diary of an Engaged Girl

By Phyllis Phillips

This ceremony over, he once more frowned and said, "Your mother reports that you are deliberately leading your cousin, Cecil, into a flirtation, under her nose. That he is evidently more than receptive, and in fact—hm— you are both very naughty young people."

Here dad scowled harder than ever at me, and winked very hard for some reason. That done, he winked deliberately. "What have you to say for yourself, miss?" he asked me.

"Daddy, dear, do you think me capable of flirting? Have you ever known me to be guilty of such unladylike behavior?" I asked innocently, sidling up to him, ingratiatingly, before he could answer. With that he caught me in his arms and played with me just as he used to when I was a very little girl. That's what I love most about dad; he still wants me to be a little girl, and feels sorry about the way mother and the world try to pile up responsibilities, etc., on my young shoulders.

Between you and me, he told me that he just hated to think of me as a married woman, and that it seemed all too short, the period of girlhood, to his way of thinking. As for my flirting with my handsome young cousin, why bless your heart, it was the most natural thing in the world. Even he had been guilty of a mad passion for a cousin of his, at the tender age of sixteen. So, you see, it must be in our blood. Then dad told me to have the time of my life while in Europe, and to miss nothing, not even a flirtation—thing of it, for I would never have such a chance again. "Marriage," he assured me, pensively, "clips the wings of little birds like Lindsey!" And I do declare, there was the realest tear in his dear eye, as he looked at me very hard again. We "get" each other, dad and I. That is why I never mind a visit to his study.

"Now, my dear," said he, after the lecture was over, "go and have your dinner, and don't forget to be properly starched out of you, and you are on the verge of becoming a reformed character. This is what your mother expects, so let's play up to her expectations." We hugged each other again, and I skipped to the dinner table. There I found Cecil, with his naughty, inquisitive eyes fastened on me, and a little smile at the corner of his mouth. It made me wonder how much he suspected about the secret compact between dad and me!

June 15.—Fair and warmer than ever today. Exciting things have happened. One of them being the booking of our passage for July 16. Aunt Cecilia has decided to go; at least she sails with us, and will stay as long as she can bear the separation from Jeffrey—which I fear will not be long. We sail for Southampton, and go direct to London. It's too good to be true.

Cecil assures me that London will surprise me, but he forgets that a perfect lady is never surprised. At least she never shows it if so. He also says that I will return much seasoned. Now that is sheer impertinence on his part. Am I a cow or a vegetable to be "seasoned"? Dear, these British cousins are queer.

It seems to me that a modern girl gets all the "seasoning" that she needs right here in little old New York. Of which there is no better time in being grateful to the fates that gave unto me an American roughneck for a fiance. A dear, adorable, kindhearted

I know that my manners will not come up to their standards. That is understood, but then, what are a few manners between allies? Despite my poise and worldly manner, I find that Cecil considers me quite gauche and unmolded, which is funny when you come to think of it. Most of my friends think me too advanced. As for my mother!

Cecil informed me the second day of our acquaintance, that I "burst" into a room, instead of "entering" it. They are so critical, the English. Also, so tactless despite their corner manners. There are any number of faults that we Americans could easily find in the British, but our inimical tact keeps us from doing so. We are crude, but kind.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

We do not cling, neither do we bore.

Through we are annoying, I'll say. I feel sure that when I meet those perfect paragons, Cecil's sisters, all about my own age, and so many of them, they will turn pink with condescension and curiosity. We shall have nothing in common, and they will appraise every detail of my clothing and complexion, which will be amusing.

The one that Cecil thinks I shall like the best is Gwendoline. She is his favorite, and the best chum in the world. He goes to her with all his troubles, and she mends his underwear. I fear that Gwen will not care for me, nor get my good points, however, in spite of his assurances. She will find me woefully lacking in the understanding of the needle, or of parlor accomplishments.

However, I shall do my Yankee best to be a lady, and cordial to all their little peccadilloes, be sure of that.

For me, nor get my good points, however, in spite of his assurances. She will find me woefully lacking in the understanding of the needle, or of parlor accomplishments.

However, I shall do my Yankee best to be a lady, and cordial to all their little peccadilloes, be sure of that.

For me, nor get my good points, however, in spite of his assurances. She will find me woefully lacking in the understanding of the needle, or of parlor accomplishments.

Cecil informed me the second day of our acquaintance, that I "burst" into a room, instead of "entering" it. They are so critical, the English. Also, so tactless despite their corner manners. There are any number of faults that we Americans could easily find in the British, but our inimical tact keeps us from doing so. We are crude, but kind.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

Cecil calls me a little savage, which makes me smile, for I instinctively know the sort of girls he has been used to in his country. Pale, spineless, young things, with a passion for politeness on all occasions. They would bore our men to death after the first two months, which is something that our girls never do, no matter what other shortcomings we may have.

and adoring Jack, who loves my lightest vagary, and understands my peculiar disposition to a T.
(To be continued.)

Heart Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man 21 years of age and am engaged to a young lady of the same age. A few nights ago we dropped into a gathering. While there she talked to several young men and did not notice me at all.

On the way home we talked it over—not too pleasantly. In the midst of it she shipped and called me names, blaming me because she was unfortunate.

We have been engaged for three and a half years. Do you think we would be happy together or that she would nag me?

LOVELY-HEARTED JOB.

Since you are only 21, you will have plenty of time to discover the girl's true regard for you. It would be most unwise to marry before you are 25, since your tastes will most likely change during the four years.

You cannot judge the girl fairly by the way she acted that one night. If it was her first exhibition of temper, it might be attributed to an over-tired condition or some physical disturbance. Form your judgment from the three and one-half years you and she have been engaged.

A woman is the inventor of a desk telephone which closes the ears against outside sounds with two receivers, as the transmitter is held in the hand.

When You Get up "tired as a dog" and sleep is full of ugly dreams you need

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Fatigue is the result of poisons produced by exercise or failure to digest food properly, and eliminate it promptly with the aid of liver and kidneys.

Largest Sale of any Medicine in the World.

Sold every where, in boxes 10c, 25c.

Whizz!

On With The Dance!

WASHINGTON Starting Sunday

Pyramid Pile Treatment

The Great Household Treatment for Itching, Bleeding or Protruding Piles.

SEND FOR FREE TRIAL

Almost every family has at least one sufferer who should have the blessed relief afforded by Pyramid Pile Treatment. You can have a free trial by mail or if you cannot wait, get a 60-cent box at any drug store. Take no substitute. Join the happy throng who are singing the praises of Pyramid. Use this coupon for free trial.

Up in the Morning Feeling Fine as the Result of Pyramid Relief.

FREE SAMPLE COUPON

Pyramid Drug Company, 55 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Kindly send me a Free sample of Pyramid Pile Treatment, in plain wrapper.

Name.....

Street.....

City.....State.....

THE FRANKLIN Air Cooled Motor Car

J. B. CHAPMAN, Dealer

Demonstrations by Geo. Worley

15-17 S. Ninth St.

BUEHLER BROS.

Wednesday

SIRLOIN STEAK, lb.27c