A pretty wedding solemnized Wednesday at 5:30 p. m. was that of Miss Bernice Layman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Layman of South Fifteenth street, and Merle Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Williams of North Eighteenth street, which took place at the home of the bride's parents. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Arthur Williams played a number of bridal airs. The bride entered to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin. She was attended by Miss Helen Firth. The groom entered attended by Mr. Robert Brumley. The ceremony was performed before an altar of ferns and smilax. The bride's gown was white georgette beautifully adorned with silk lace. She wore a picture hat and carried a huge bouquet of the bride's roses tied with tulle. Miss Firth wore a frock of pale blue or-gandy with a hat to match. Her flowers were sweet peas. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. James, pastor of the United Brethren church. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was arranged in the dining room. Those seated at this table were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Williams, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. James, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Williams, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Layman, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams, Miss Helen Firth, Miss Myrtle Layman of Dublin, and Robert Brumley. For the other guests small tables were arranged in the other rooms which were attractively decorated with flowers, ferns and smilax. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chester Layman and daughter, Crystal, of Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Wy-song of Connersville, Mrs. Ralph Per-sonnet, Miss Ruth James, S. L. Williams, Mrs. Frank Weaver, Mrs. William Hatfield and daughter, Ruby, of Peru, Mrs. Merle Roberts of In-dianapolis, Miss Margaret Long, Miss Teresa Crebb, Miss Mildred and Miss Marie Wysong of Connersville, Henry Hour, Elmer Layman, of Dayton, R. A. Layman of Dublin and Orland Wy-song of Connersville. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left Wednesday evening for a short wedding trip. The bride was wearing a blue with white trim, and the groom was wearing a blue with white trim. They will be at home to their friends after April 18 at the home of the bride's parents, 226 South Fifteenth street.

Silks and satins were laid aside Wednesday evening for bungalow aprons and calico dresses and old suits were pulled out of the old clothes bag for the "hard times" dance given in the L. O. O. F. hall by Frank Bescher and Clarence Coyle. The girls were attractive in gingham and calico, many wearing sunbonnets. Some of the men were almost unrecognizable in their old suits and overalls. The com-monplaceness of dress put everyone in jovial spirits, making the dance one of the most delightful of the season. Clever in every measure and entirely in harmony with the clothes were the decorations. The electric lights were beautifully shaded with tin cans bor-owed from the trash pile. A clock with the numerals very much disar-ranged was hung in one end of the hall. Signs with explicit directions to the dancers as how to dance were hung around the room. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp. The Varsity Six, from Miami university, played the program of dance music. Whether or not music is good is determined by the amount and the spirit of the applause accorded by the dancers. The Miami musi-cians were encored enthusiastically again and again. June Gale and Rol-and Wedre both of this city, students at Miami, are members of the orches-tra. The dancers included Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp, Mr. and Mrs. Voyle Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Land, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Himes, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. FLORENCE OIL COOK STOVES

More Heat
Less Care

EASY to cook with, easy to control, and easy to keep clean—that's the story of the Florence Oil Cook Stove.

Burns kerosene. No wicks, no valves. Cooks, bakes, roasts, and does it evenly and thoroughly. Powerful burners direct the intensely hot blue flame close up under the cooking. The heat is automatically controlled by turning the lever handles.

The Florence Portable Oven has a baker's arch that throws the heat to all parts of the oven. We are always pleased to show you why the use of the Florence Cook Stove and Oven means more heat and less care.
