Stock Selling Schemes

And still they come. The stock selling promoters. Armed with glittering and glowing prospects, flashing patterns and promises, they try to convince us that our dollars will grow if we exchange them for beautifully engrossed stock certificates.

The companies they represent usually have no earnings. They are simon pure prospects. Their assets too often consist only of promises of great dividends to come, of patterns of new inventions, of prospects of golden rewards.

A meritorious project usually does not go begging for backers. Capital is only too eager to snap up an opportunity to make money. It is unnecessary to give stock salesmen from 20 to 50 per cent of the subscriptions to sell the stock. Salesmen of these companies use every bit of persuasion at their command to sell stock because their commission is from one-fourth to one-half of what you pay them for the stock.

If you have money to invest, don't exchange it for a stock certificate of a company that has no backing and is rich in promises. Don't let the salesman cloud your judgment by pointing to the big returns made by other companies that are in the same business. The success of the established companies did not come over night. It is the result of years of hard labor, of careful management, of the solution of infinite details.

The money you pay for stocks in new companies is invested in a highly speculative venture. Nine times out of ten you are gambling. You have more chance for getting your money back if you toss a coin to see who is to take the money on the table.

The best way to assure yourself of the soundness of a venture is to accompany the salesman to a reputable banker. He will tell you if the company has a chance of returning dividends, or if it is a stock promotion venture in which you will lose your money.

SIGHT OF FOOD MADE IND. FARMER SICK AT STOMACH

Marion, Indiana, Farmer Declares He Had No Appetite; Suffered Daily From Constipation, Kidneys Were Weak and Back Ached.

Wants His Friends to Know What the New Medicine, Dreco, Did for Him.

"I just feel so much better that I want my friends and neighbors to know what it was that brought me out," are the words of Mr. Harrison Lloyd of Route 5, Marion, Ind., who is a well known farmer.

"I've always suffered from constipation; had pains in my back, kidneys acted bad and had rheumatism in my shoulders, which annoyed me very much. On top of this I had flu, which left me in a very weakened condition; seemed I couldn't get my strength back. I got to where I didn't want to go to the dining room at all, for the sight of food made me sick at the stomach."

"I noticed in the papers where people were praising Dreco so high, so went to town and got a bottle, and now I can't praise this medicine enough. It gave me a good appetite; stopped the backache and pains in my shoulders; got my bowels moving regularly; in fact it has helped me in every way. I am taking a bottle home to my sister, as she needs a good medicine to strengthen her up, and I know Dreco will do it."

Dreco is the pure liquid extract of many roots, herbs, barks and leaves, which act on the vital organs of the human body. After taking Dreco it is noticed that the stomach is soothed and the gassy condition eliminated; the liver becomes active, relieving headaches, that dull, tired-out feeling; nerves are quieted, which induces sound sleep. The kidneys are strengthened; appetite increased; bowels act with ease and regularity, and the whole system takes on renewed energy, vigor and vitality. Dreco is harmless, pleasant to take and the effects are quickly felt.

All progressive druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Richmond, Ind., by Clem Tust, waite's Six Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Druggist Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenrh Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Your druggist has been appointed agent for Allenrh in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.—Advertisement.

Dinner Stories

The children were telling a visitor what they studied at school.
"I," said the eldest, "get reading, spelling and definitions."
"And what do you get, my little man?" said the visitor, addressing the little one, who had listened in a bored way while the others recited their list.
"Oh, I gets readin' spellin' and spakin'."

"I have more respect for a bull than I used to have."

"How so?"

"Look how he takes after a red flag."

"There's an atmosphere of wealth about this home."

"Do you judge from the size of the house, the ample garage in the rear, the maid sweeping down the front steps and a gardener busy on the lawn?"

"No; I judge by the size of the dog on the veranda. Anybody who can afford to feed a Great Dane these days must have plenty of money."

Good Evening

By Roy K. Moulton

It is told of a certain Long Island suburbanite that he arrived home on the 6:11 the other evening with a package under his arm, the outlines of which created great interest among his fellow passengers. To be brief, the package looked as though it contained two quarts lashed together tightly and inclosed in paper.

After dining that evening a delegation called on this gentleman to spend the evening. It was a sort of surprise party. The party had no sooner arrived than the host invited them down cellar, saying that he had something to show them. "I brought them out on the train tonight," he added.

And he took them down cellar and showed them the cutest pair of Indian clubs. "I have got to exercise every day with them," he said.

"Oh!" exclaimed several of the guests, and that is the way the party ended.

About one thousand persons met Carpenter at the dock to one who went to meet Maeterlinck, which means something or other in the advance of civilization, but we can't think just what it is.

PERHAPS SOME OF THEM ARE PLANNING TO

"All women who are planning to wear clothes this spring will be interested in the announcement from Paris that Paris fashions show 'severe lines'."—New York Evening Mail.

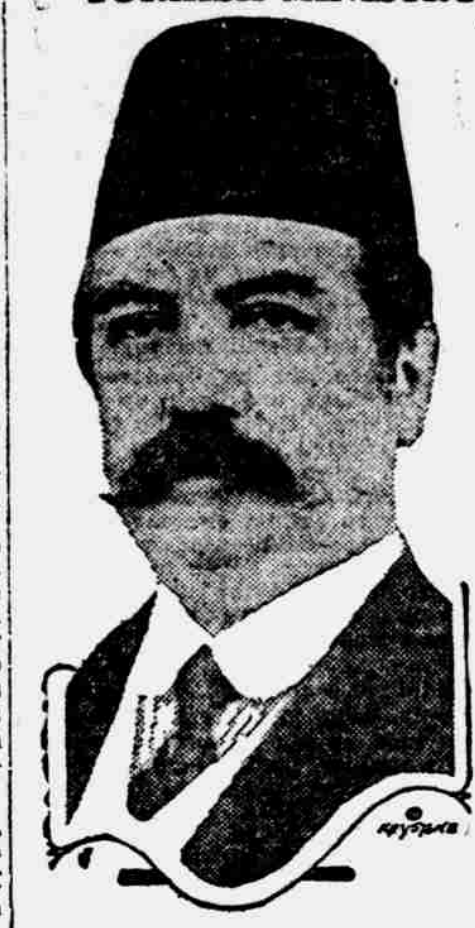

A very unusual taxi accident occurred in Brooklyn the other night. For the first time in the history of such accidents, the papers did not inform us that "An unknown woman made her escape from the wreck before the police could question her."

COULD NOT BEGIN TO TELL ALL

"I could not tell you all the benefits I had from the use of Foley's Honey and Tar," writes Miss Rose Florke, 209 Hawkins Ave., N. Bradock, Pa. "I had a cold in my chest and fearing it would cause pneumonia I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and it was not long till I felt relieved. I hope others suffering from severe colds will try it." Many such letters have been written about this time-tried, reliable family medicine for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough. For sale by A. G. Loken & Co., 630 Main St.—Advertisement.

British Foster Parents Find Jobs for Soldiers

LONDON.—While the war was on the "godmother" may have had a just claim for popularity among the soldiers, but now that the men are civilians again, and what is more, searching the elusive job, a new sort of foster parent has been established in England. And that is the "godfather."

It is an official affair. The labor department has approved a scheme by which professional and business men in London will be enrolled as godfathers to ex-service men. The godfathers are to give their proteges expert advice for commercial and professional work and help them get work. Red tape is reduced to a minimum, the human side of the unemployment problem being emphasized. The godfather takes a personal interest in the discharged veteran, "adopts" him. So far, over 6,000 applicants have been assigned godfathers, and one in five has been actually placed at work as a direct result of the personal interest taken by the godfathers.

The Minister Never Fails You

Every officer of the Government with a war message to deliver appealed to the ministers first of all.

But 80% of the ministers receive less income than government economists figure as a minimum for the support of an average family.

When hospitals need money they enlist the support of the ministers—and receive it.

But when sickness visits the minister or the members of his family they must be treated in a charity ward. His pay is less than a day laborer's.

We Pay Him Half the Wages of a Mechanic

8 out of every 10 ministers receive less than $20 a week—about half the pay of a mechanic. And of these pitifully inadequate salaries, how much do you contribute? Nothing if you are outside the church; an average of less than 3c a day if you are a church member.

All of us share in the benefits of Christian ministers to the community. They marry us; bury us; baptize our children; visit us when we are sick. In their hands is the spiritual training of the youth.

We Are All Profiteers at Their Expense

Part of the Interchurch World program is this—a living wage for every minister of Jesus Christ; an efficient plant and a chance to do a big man's job.

If you want better preachers, help to pay the preachers better. It's the best investment for your community—and for your children—that you can make.
