

13 JOIN HARRY RAY POST; MAY OCCUPY NEW QUARTERS SOON

Thirteen new memberships in the American Legion were announced at the meeting of that organization in the Commercial Club rooms Wednesday night. These additions bring the total membership of Harry Ray Post No. 65, up to 102. Plans are now under way for an intensive membership campaign by which officials of the Legion hope to enroll every former service man in this territory.

J. A. Connor, chairman of the executive committee, reported that he had purchased a considerable quantity of furniture for the Legion's new home. Mr. Connor was able to get the manufacturers to guarantee a fixed price and also secured a promise of delivery.

The work on the new headquarters is progressing very slowly on account of the scarcity of help, materials, etc. It is the plan now, however, to purchase a supply of second hand furniture which can be used until the new equipment arrives.

May Occupy Quarters Soon.

If this plan is carried out it may be possible for the former service men to occupy their new quarters in the K. of P. Building within the next few weeks, although final repairs and complete equipment will probably not be ready before the first of September.

The resolution committee was ordered to send a resolution of thanks to the Traveler's Protective association, thanking it for a donation of $50 which the Legion has received.

The Theatres

WASHINGTON

Playing a somewhat different role, Vivian Martin, the dainty and talented Paramount-Aircraft star, is said to do some of her most charming work in "The Third Kiss," a new Paramount-Aircraft picture which is showing at the Washington Theatre the last times today.

"Missy" is a little factory girl, who works among the people whom she is trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

A Sturdy Food

The full, rich nourishment of selected wheat and malted barley, baked 20 hours for easy digestion.

Grape-Nuts

requires just enough chewing to develop its rich nutlike flavor

A wonderful building food for young and old

Grape-Nuts needs no sugar

It's So Easy To End Catarrh

Go to your druggist and say "I want HYOMEI outfit"—take it home—open the box—pour a few drops of HYOMEI from the bottle into the little hard inhaler—breathe it for five minutes and note the refreshing relief—breathe it four or five times a day for a few days and catarrh and all its disgusting symptoms should gradually disappear.

HYOMEI contains no opium, cocaine or other harmful drugs and is sold on money back plan for catarrh, asthma, colds, coughs, and catarrhal deafness. Complete Outfit $1.15 extra bottles if needed at 60 cents at Conkey Drug Co. and A. G. Lukens & Co., and druggists everywhere. Simple instructions for use in every package—you can't fail to banish catarrh if you follow instructions.

HYOMEI

(pronounced HIGH-O-ME) Ends Catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Outfit including inhaler $1.15. Extra bottles 60c. All Druggists.

GETZ

WASHING MACHINES

—sold by—

Richmond Electric Co.

PALACE

—TODAY—

A Paramount-Aircraft special

ENID BENNETT

—in—

"The Keys of the Righteous"

By C. Gardner Sullivan directed by Thomas H. Ince. A combination of star, author, director and maker that can't be beat. A stirring romance of the copper fields, with it

JACK PERRIN

In the whirlwind of thrills, action and laughs

"THE LION MAN"

And with these, those funny little laugh makers

MUTT AND JEFF

Pipe organ for music

—SATURDAY—

DUSTIN FARNUM

SELECT VAUDEVILLE

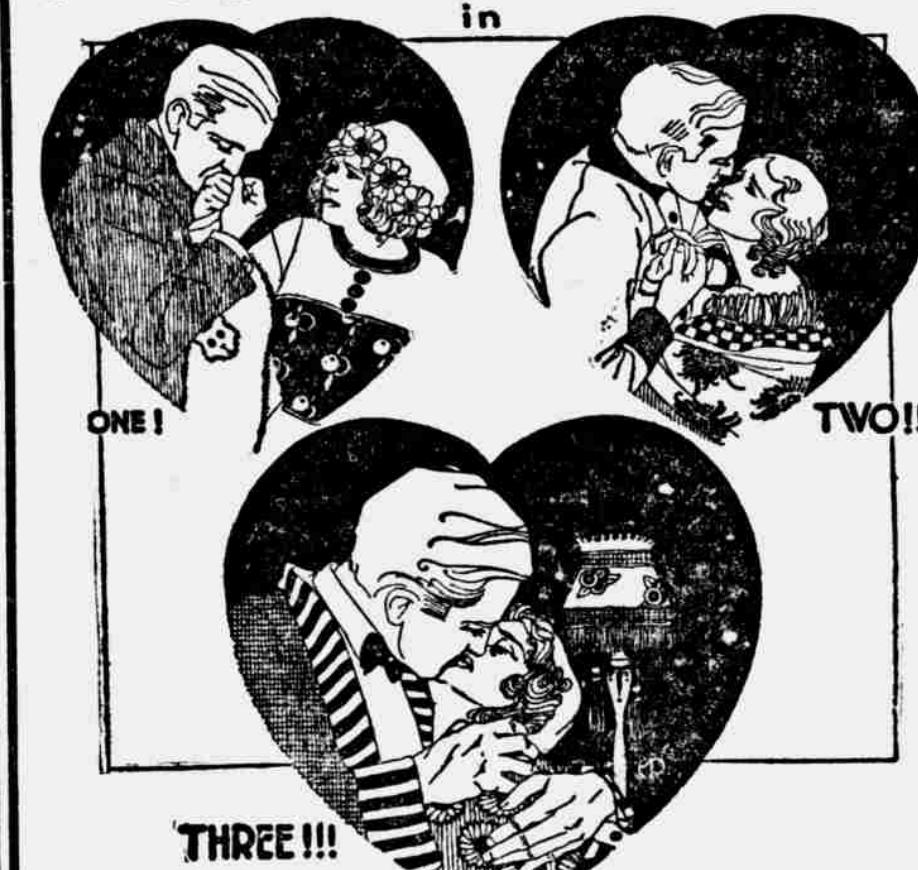

WASHINGTON

—Showing Last Times Today—

Jesse L. Lasky
Presents

VIVIAN MARTIN

in

The Third Kiss

A Paramount-Aircraft Picture

One, two, three, and out goes she! There was no other way. She simply had to admit defeat when that third kiss was stamped where the gods intended it should go.

But a factory fire, a society scandal, a big settlement job, and the queerest tangle of hearts and honor you ever saw, all had to come before the final thrilling climax.

One—a theft! Two—an outrage! Three—come and label it to suit your own taste!

—Also—

Bray Pictograph

MURRAY

BETTER COME EARLY

HEAR OUR PIPE ORGAN CONCERT ORCHESTRA

Three New Acts and Feature Picture Today and Last Half.

ALICE TEDDY AND CO.

World's famous roller skating and wrestling bear, Alice Teddy, will hold a reception on the stage for the kiddies after the matinee Saturday.

ALICE JOYCE

—in—

SLAVES OF PRIDE

The screen's most beautiful girl in a five-reel Vitagraph production

LEE AND LAWRENCE

A clever man and woman team, in their comedy skit "MILADY RAFFLES" Special scenery

ANN SUTER

“THE DIXIE GIRL”

Character songs and changes

NOTE: We offer $25.00 in gold to anyone throwing Alice Teddy in a wrestling match

NEAL HART IN "THE WILDERNESS MAN" A GOOD GO GET 'EM WESTERN

THE RICHMOND PALLADIUM AND SUN-TELEGRAM.

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in love with Missy. Oliver Cloyne a friend of Rupert, offers to marry Missy, revealing the brewing scandal in its true light to her by showing her a newspaper clipping. She agrees and the result of this loveless marriage is a big surprise. The climax of the picture is a thrilling rescue from a burning tenement of the heroine by her husband, which cements their friendship into a union of love.

MURRETTE

During one of Warren Chandler's trips abroad he was walking along one of the principal thoroughfares of London

trying to uplift and benefit. Although she owns the factory at which she is employed, this is kept a secret, as she wished to atone in a measure for the wrong committed by her deceased uncle, when, through his negligence, the factory was destroyed by fire, and many girl employees were burned to death.

To make her work more effective, she is co-operating with Rupert Bawit, a young man who has given up a life of luxury to better carry on settlement work among the poor. Although Rupert is married, he falls hopelessly in