WHAT IT COSTS!

WASHINGTON, April 15.—National prohibition enforcement should not cost more than $5,000,000 a year, according to Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, in a letter read today in the Senate by Chairman Warren, of the Appropriations Committee. Although the letter would be "given due weight," Senator Warren said, "it would cost a good deal more than that and every Senator here knows it." Mr. Wheeler's letter was prompted by a recent statement in the Senate that enforcement would cost $50,000,000 a year.
