

VETERAN RANDOLPH PHYSICIAN QUILTS AFTER FIFTY YEARS

WINCHESTER, Ind., April 17.—Dr. J. H. McFarland, of New Pittsburg, in the northeast part of the county, has retired from the profession after 50 years as a practitioner. He is well known throughout a large part of Randolph and Jay counties, Indiana, and Darke county, Ohio. He will devote his time to looking after his farms.

"Swiped" Theatre Tickets
Oliver Canada, aged 11, made himself popular with his young friends here Thursday when he gave away a handful of Arcade theatre tickets. Chief of Police Fletcher investigated the lad's generosity and found the boy had taken the tickets from the office of the theater while the ticket seller was absent from the office. The boy will be arraigned in juvenile court upon the return of Judge Shockey from Louisiana.

Mrs. Puckett Succumbs
The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Puckett, 68 years old, who died suddenly of heart trouble Wednesday night, was held Friday afternoon in the Maxville church, six miles west of here, with the Rev. O. T. Martin in charge. Interment was in the adjacent cemetery. Mrs. Puckett is survived by two daughters, Miss Bernice Puckett and Miss May McIntire, and her husband, William Y. Puckett.

Shortages Continue
The shortage of coal and gasoline here still continues, there being no coal in the hands of the dealers, and very little gasoline. The sale of gasoline has been restricted. On Thursday there was only one dealer in the town who had a stock of gasoline. The natural gas flow also is much impaired.

Two Are Badly Hurt
Two accidents occurred Thursday at Fairland. The Rev. Dwight R. Lusk, former pastor of the Winchester Christian church, suffered a broken arm while cranking an automobile. Kenneth Craig was struck by a train while driving an automobile across the Big Four railroad in that town, and the machine was completely demolished. Craig escaped with his life, but is in a serious condition. Three persons have been killed at this crossing in the last five years.

Summoned Before Committee
William W. Canada, of this city, who was appointed counsel to Vera Cruz, Mexico, by President McKinley and served there during the unpleasantness in 1914, has been summoned by telegram before the senate committee on Mexican affairs, and left for Washington Thursday.

Officers Are Elected
At the Woman's club meeting held Thursday Mrs. Mabel Lasley was elected president; Mrs. E. E. Brown, vice-president; Mrs. John I. Cheney, recording secretary; Miss Ruth Reinheimer, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. J. A. Brown, a member of the board.

Land Leased for Oil
It is reported that several hundred acres of land have been leased for oil in the east part of the county, near Union City. Wells that have been abandoned for years have been cleaned out and are showing a small production of low-grade oil, yet in paying quantities. The field that was leased near Winchester has two rigs at work drilling, but as yet they are not at the proper depth to shoot. Some new gas wells have been reported with a small flow.

LIBERTY, R. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Truman Lackey and Mr. and Mrs. Horace LaMar were shopping in Connersville Thursday afternoon. Clyde Newkirk and Frank Cromwell made a business trip to Richmond Thursday. The Highland Economic club went Monday to Brookville to see the Home Special train which made a tour of the state over the Big Four railway lines under the direction of Purdue university. The labor-saving devices for the home, as well as the sanitary provisions, were of intense interest to the women. The demonstration showed that each modern farm home can have all the conveniences of any town or city home. The electric labor-saving machines and apparatus, such as churns, washers, electric irons, electric sweepers, running water and other household conveniences, make the work of women on the farm very little. If any, have in the home. The cost of providing these conveniences for the women of the home is no greater than those to lighten the labor of the men. More than 200 farm homes in Franklin county already are supplied with electric machines for light and power. Those attending from this community were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brookbank, Mrs. Ethel White and daughter Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Baudendistel, Mrs. Clarence Haag, Mrs. Omer Doty, Miss Leona Haag, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Newkirk, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Brandenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snider, Mrs. John Hockenberry, Mrs. Shelby Hayward and son John Alden, Mr. and Mrs. Horace LaMar, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Lackey, Mrs. Ray Miles and son Maurice, Curtis Crocker and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Templeton Sunday afternoon.
