

Society

From time to time this winter the women's club has brought to Richmond a number of interesting people, among them Granville Barker, famous English actor and dramatist, the Lincoln trio and Thomas Neale. On Friday at 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. George Eggeneyer on East Main street, Dr. Frank Chandler, dean of the College of Liberal Arts of Cincinnati University, will lecture on "Why We Laugh." Dr. Chandler is one of the most "talked of men" in the middle west at the present time. His lectures are unusually popular and are attracting attention. Every member of the Woman's club is invited to attend.

Miss Mary Kuhlbeck of South-west Second street, was given a surprise party Friday evening at her home by a number of friends, in honor of her birthday anniversary. During the evening games and music were enjoyed. A luncheon was served in the dining room. Pink and white decorations were used on the appointments. The guests were Miss Matilda Schwengemann, Miss Eida Maag, Miss Genevieve Maag, Miss Lorraine Puthoff, Miss Elizabeth Taube, Miss Lucille Taube, Miss Gladys Burris, Miss Helen Pfeiffer, Miss Agnes Sauer and Master John Cully.

Gordon Graves, a professor at Purdue University, is spending the week end with his mother, Mrs. Clara Graves, at her home on North Seventh street.

Miss Boss Parker of Indianapolis, is spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker, of North Eighth street.

Miss Emma Fetta went to Indianapolis Saturday to attend the Adolph Bohm concert.

Nimrod Johnson and daughters, Helen and Jane spent Saturday in Indianapolis.

Claude Miller, a student at Wisconsin University, is spending the spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Miller in Washington Court.

The public art gallery will be open Sunday from 2 until 5 p. m. The public is invited to view the exhibit of paintings of the New York Society of Painters.

Mrs. Vernon Ballinger was hostess Friday evening for a miscellaneous shower for the pleasure of Mr. Morris Gay, nee Miss Margaret Van Sant who was recently married and Miss Sarah Hill, who will be married this spring. The house was attractively decorated, and late in the evening the hostess served dainty refreshments. The guests included members of the Young Woman's Missionary society of the Reid Memorial church. Those present were Miss Sarah Hill, Mrs. Morris Gay, Mrs. J. S. Hill, Miss Louise Marshall, Miss Lucille McCristen, Mrs. Frank Vossler, Mrs. Harry Hosteter, Mrs. George Galt, Mrs. Ray Harvey, Mrs. C. E. Ballinger and Miss Mary Dixon.

The composer's convention which will be held in the Polk Memorial building, Greenwood, Ind., June 1, 2, 3, 4 in charge of Grace Porterfield Polk, formerly of this city. This is a part of the Americanization program. Noted musicians and composers from all parts of the country will attend among them Mrs. David Allen Campbell, editor of the Musical Monitor who will conduct the round table during the convention. On June 3, which is Indiana Day, the prize songs of Grace Porterfield Polk Indiana Song contest, will be sung. Mrs. Polk is eager for compositions from Richmond persons. The contest is on from April 1 to May 25, a prize of $100 being offered for the best song and one of $50 for the best folk song. Any one wishing to enter the contest should send the manuscript to Mrs. Polk at her home, Greenwood, Ind. Before May 1 Mrs. Polk's address is Coral Park, Miami, Fla.

Miss LaVerne Jones of South Eighteenth street is a member of a house party being given this week-end by Miss Leone Coffey of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lackey of North Twelfth street have returned to their home after spending the winter in California.

Miss Helen Ligon and Miss Juanita Wickert, will be hostesses for a towel shower for Mrs. Morris Gay, nee Miss Margaret Van Sant, at the home of Miss Wickert on Linden Avenue, Saturday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Marvel spent Saturday in Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp were host and hostess for their regular assembly dance Friday evening in the Odd Fellows hall. Kolp's orchestra furnished the dance music. The dancers were Miss Edna Johnson, Miss Mildred White, Miss Gwendolyn Spitzer, Miss Merle Mashmeyer, Miss Rosella Elstro, Miss Irene Bishop, Miss Rhea Randall, Miss Gertrude Williams, Miss Clara Daub, Miss Esther Coyle, Miss Marquette Cox, Miss Florence Cummings, Miss Mildred Townsend, Miss Vivian Harding, Miss Anna Dallas, Miss Letha Chrow, Miss Martha Hill, Miss Marie O'Brien, Miss Martha Gennett, Miss Dorothy Lebo, Miss Mildred Kemmer, Miss Florence Wentz, Miss Benita Monarch, Miss Kathryn Carr, Miss Clara Myrick, Miss Maxine Lockridge, Miss Doris Puckett, Miss Kathryn Binley, Miss Frances Asbury, Miss Roba Morgan, Miss Elizabeth Kolp, Miss Helen Snodgrass, Ralph Matley, Roland Locher, Lester Leiter, Carlton Smith, Allen Haynes, C. L. Cloyd, Kenneth Dollins, Irvin Funk, Harold Sine, William Dunn, William Hale, Waldo Dubbs, Louis Ripberger, Kenneth Toler, Thornton Brehm, Earl Bullerick, Julian McCarthy, Peter Bichtensels, Arthur Wischart, James Sackman, Harold Busch, Louis Weidner, Stanley Youngflesh, Alvin Alexander, Alfred Smith, Claude Miller, Joy Edwards, James Rees, Harold Sifer, Willard Morgan, Mark Golden and Robert Graham.

Mrs. Harry Kaufman of Kenmore, N. Y., is the guest of Miss Emma Rosa and other friends and relatives. Mrs. Kaufman will be in the city two weeks.

Mrs. George Eggeneyer will be hostess for the Magazine club Monday afternoon at her home on East Main street.

Mrs. Frank Holly and Mrs. Edward Johnson returned Saturday from Logansport.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Jennie Addleman of Whitewater, Mrs. Claude Addleman delightfully entertained Friday afternoon at her home on Pearl street. The afternoon was spent sewing. Late in the afternoon no-guests were invited to the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served in courses. Yellow and white was carried out as a color scheme. The centerpiece was a French basket filled with daffodils. Favors were daffodils. The guests were Mrs. Jennie Addleman of Whitewater, Mrs. Taylor Fishback, Mrs. Charles Addleman, Mrs. Clarence Reid, Mrs. Orlando Little, Mrs. Leroy Little, Mrs. John Smelser, Mrs. James Redell, Mrs. Irene Barnell, Mrs. Miriam Little, of Middleboro.

The Ben Hur degree staff will meet Monday at 7 p. m. in the club rooms. Every member is urged to attend. Following drill practice a dance will be given for members of the Ben Hur lodge and their friends. Miller's orchestra will furnish the music.

Women in Politics

BY ESTHER GRIFFIN WHITE,
County Republican Women's Chairman

Every woman in Wayne county is invited to be present on Tuesday afternoon, April 20, at the informal reception to be given in the foyer of the Westcott Hotel to the candidates for state, county and national offices who will be in town to attend the Republican meeting to be held in the Coliseum on the evening of that day.

The reception is for the auspices of the woman Republican chairman, and the precinct committee-women, and is to introduce the women personally to each candidate. The hours are from three to five.

Numbers of questions having been fired at the writer on account of the action taken by her to get her name printed on the ballot as delegate to the Republican State Convention, for the benefit of the women voters, the following explanation is given:

Delegates to the state convention in Indiana, both Republican and Democratic, are elected at the primaries in the spring.

What are the primaries? many women ask.

The primaries are the nominating elections held by both parties to select the man they want as their candidate for office.

But delegates to the state convention must be elected, not nominated at the primaries.

Why?

Because their function is to attend the state convention and the latter is always held in June.

In Wayne County Republicans can, this year, have 25 delegates.

And these are apportioned according to population.

The Fourth Ward in Richmond, in which the writer lives, can have two of these delegates.

Five persons in the Fourth Ward have declared their intention of running for delegate.

So that two out of the five must be selected.

The five include William Pickett, James Fry, J. P. Dillon, William Herzog and Esther Griffin White.

The writer naturally hopes that she will be one of the two to be elected and calls the attention of every voter in the Fourth Ward to the fact that she is a candidate.

"How could you get on the ticket if the state board of election commissioners and the general assembly of Indiana ruled against women being eligible as delegates?"

Because the final decision in the placing of the names on the ballot rests with the county board of election commissioners.

Why did they put it on after they had announced they would leave it off?

Because the writer's attorney examined the law and found that there was no reason why the name of a woman as delegate to the state convention should be left off, since no qualifications are specified in the laws governing the activities of candidates for delegates.

And nothing could be binding until it was passed upon by a court.

The attorney general's statement was merely an opinion and not the law.

By "qualifications" is meant that the law does not say the delegate must be a voter or a "man" or a "woman."

But if it comes to being a voter, it is a fact that Indiana women are now voters. Not going to be.

Many men seem unable to understand that the women are here politically.

A disagreeable fact that must be accepted with the best grace possible.

Bachelor Girl Sayings

By Helen Rowland

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Oh, don't you just love this "free verse"?

Good Heavens! It ought to be free!

Which sounds like a gangle—or worse.

And looks like a soup-recipe?

Why does a man always call it "business," when he talks economy to his wife, and "nagging" when she mentions it to him?

A clever girl can get about everything she wants, in this life, but it takes a little pink-and-white thing with a dimple and one brain-cell to make a man get it for her.

Most young men have the same attitude toward making a living as a woman has toward getting a divorce. They love to sit around and vaguely speculate on how it could be done if they should ever care to do it.

Half the time, a man doesn't know whether to accept his wife's allusions to his sins before company as "honorable mention," an apology, or a threat.

Nature reveals in a thousand colors—the color of the set, the color of the sky, and the color of the rose. But Black she has left for coquettes, widows—and the devil.

Sweet Pet Names of Man for Man. Old Duffer—His best friend. Good Old Scout—The man with a wine cellar.

Simp, Boob, Proacher, Poor Fish—The other man, who calls on his girl. Old Gargyle—His Boss.

Nut—The man who takes anything seriously.

Pinhead—The man who doesn't agree with him.

Why does a man always speak of having "given" his heart to a woman—when he knows perfectly well, that she had to WRENCH it from him?

BUNDY HEADS ART ASSOCIATION; ANNUAL REPORTS ARE HEARD

J. E. Bundy, nationally known landscape artist, was unanimously elected president of the Richmond Art association in place of the retiring president, William Dudley Foulke, who presided at the annual dinner, attended by 100 members of the association, in the south gallery in the high school building Friday night.

A motion that a committee be appointed to attend council and boost buying the Rodefelt machine shop property at the west end of the Main street bridge, as a detriment to the beauty of the west approach to the city, was passed. The committee will be appointed by the president.

With the exception of Dr. A. B. Price, retiring treasurer, who asked that his name not be submitted for re-nomination, all officers of the last year were re-elected, including: J. H. Bentley, first vice-president; Mrs. Paul Comstock, second vice-president; W. G. Gate, secretary. Francis H. Edmunds was elected treasurer. Mr. Edmunds, Mrs. Edna Cathell, Mrs. Arthur Charles and Mrs. M. F. Johnson, board members retiring following three years' service, were all re-elected, except Mr. Edmunds, who automatically becomes a member of the board in his official capacity. F. H. Harrington was elected in his place.

Important business was discussed following the dinner. The annual reports of Mrs. M. F. Johnson, director of the art association, and Mr. Price, the treasurer, were heard following addresses by Mr. Foulke, Harold H. Brown, director of the Herron Art institute in Indianapolis; Mrs. J. E. Cathell, J. H. Bentley and Mrs. Paul Comstock.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

Mrs. Johnson's report included a brief account of each exhibition, the number of people attending each, and the number of pictures purchased. A total of 14,382 persons visited the gallery during the year. Seventy-two pictures were sold, totalling $3,190.75 for the artists' exhibiting. Pictures by Mrs. Eggeneyer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Morris, Mr. Girardin and Mr. Brown, and a rug, the gift of Amer Keshisyan, were added to the permanent exhibits.

keep your love to yourself, the deeper it will grow, which is not a very good thing for a girl of 17.

You need experience and variety before you can choose wisely. Be a wise little girl now and postpone your thoughts of love until you are in your twenties. You can do this if you push aside thoughts of the young man and busy yourself with something.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man of 18 years of age and I am going with a pretty little girl of the same age.

We are deep in love but my father doesn't want me to go with her. I do not go with her only when I slip out from father. He gives me thunder every time he hears I have been with her. Her father does not care; he likes me very well, and tells me to come back again. I feel that my father is too hard on me, don't you? Give me your advice.

Dear Marion C.: What is your father's objection to your friendship—it is foolish to talk of love at your age—with this young girl? Has he given no reason why he does not wish you to further the acquaintance? If not ask him, and try to ascertain his point of view. Then write me for advice.

As a Woman Thinketh

By Helen Rowland

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Every woman would like to know: Why every man has to have a blonde in his life!

Why a man's theories regarding "woman," and his tastes in "women" are so different.

Why a man always carols and thrills at his bath!

Why a man loves himself better in a red necktie than in any other kind.

Why a woman has to go through seventeen different kinds of torture, in order to attain that nice, clean, kissable effect, that a man has after a shave.

Why a man can tell a woman all about science, engineering, dynamics, perpetual motion, and the modus operandi of an airplane—and yet, can't make his "flivver" go, when it gets temperamental.

How a man CAN know so much about politics as he says he does—and then, let them put prohibition over on him.

Why all the husbands in the comic strips are so "abused!"

Why a man, who falls in love with a girl's pretty foot and ankle is always shocked to discover that she has a brain at the other end.

Why a man will rack his brain to make small talk with a woman, when all he need do is to keep on saying: "How pretty you look! How pretty you look!"

Why there is so little difference between the savage and the civilized man—before breakfast.

Why a man always begins to find fault with the domestic regime the moment you succeed in getting a servant in the house.

Why Darwin said men sprang from monkeys, when they appear merely to have CREPT away!

Why a man always beams as proudly when you enumerate his sins, as though you had presented him with a bouquet or a Carnegie medal.

How a man can tell the front from the back of his hat.

Why a man always listens to his wife's conversation with that "I-am-ready-to-bear-with-you" expression.

Why a man's idea of "housecleaning" consists in running a straw through the flat and blowing the dust out.

Why Solomon was the only man who ever appreciated "Woman's infinite variety."

Why men are so nice—and captivated!

INDIANA GIRLS IN CONCERT

OXFORD, O. April 17.—The annual concert of the Oxford College Choral society will take place this evening in the college chapel. Several young women from Indiana will have solo parts in the program: Miss Alice Piersol, of Jamestown; Miss Clara Moore, of Elwood; Miss Vivian Brown, of Crawfordsville; Miss Olive Seams, of Plainfield; Miss Helen Crozier, of Madison, and Miss Lillian Couchman, of Roachdale.

THE RIGHT KIND OF COFFEE

Roasted right makes just the right kind of a coffee drink. Roasted fresh daily at—

TRACY'S

No extra