

NEXT WEEK AT THE THEATERS

MURRETTE.
Scenes of unusual moment and keen interest are depicted in Mary Miles Minter's newest Reallart production, "Judy of Rogues' Harbor," which will be shown at the Murrette Theatre today and tomorrow. The power to compel a would-be murderer to prepare a grave for his supposed victim is portrayed in a manner that makes the audience gasp and then laugh at the ingenuity of the heroine's plan to save her little Denny from the cruel and inhuman treatment meted out to him by the assassin. "Judy of Rogues' Harbor" is a photo-drama that is interesting-compelling from start to finish.

RICHMOND.
"I will take Europe: the Crown Prince the Orient and my other boys can use America for golf links," says the All Highest, the Kaiser, in Mack Sennett's delightful satirical comedy, "Yankee Doodle in Berlin," showing at the Richmond Theatre.

Never before have the pompous ambitions of the Hohenzollerns been so well described as in this five-part comedy-satire.

WASHINGTON.
George Fitzmaurice, who has rapidly become one of the most successful motion picture directors in the business, passes another milestone on the road to fame with his first production to be released under his own name, "On With the Dance," featuring Mae Murray and David Powell. This picture, which is declared to be in every respect out of the ordinary, will be shown at the Washington Theatre for four days commencing tomorrow.

Mr. Fitzmaurice started his cinema career as a scenarist with Pathé. "On With the Dance" is a story of a Russian immigrant girl, played by Miss Murray. She is selfish, beautiful and pleasure-loving. Temporarily yielding to temptation that leads her into New York "night life" with a vengeance, the heroine later redeems herself and works out a happy destiny. David Powell has the leading male role.

WASHINGTON.
Maurice Tourneur's epic production, "Woman," which comes to the Washington theatre on Thursday of this week, is unique in many ways. For

To Play Pipe Organ

Mr. Durst, nationally known organist, composer, and fellow of the American Guild of Organists, will appear in the organ recital Tuesday. He graduated with highest honors from the Royal Academy of Music of Munich, under Josef Rheinberger. In 1915 he gave recitals at the San Francisco exposition.

one thing the photo-offering is remarkable in the number of beautiful women utilized in telling the story and the few men necessary to the unfolding of the plot.

"My new picture," says Mr. Tourneur, "reflects the spirit of the day. Women—women—everywhere! We find women in every position these days and it is quite natural to turn out an almost wholly feminine production."

The masculine portion of the picture is upheld by Paul Clerget, the famous French actor and the lovable Pierrot, Sr., of "Pierrot the Prodigal"; Escamillo Fernandez, Chester Barnett, George West and Warner Richmond.

WASHINGTON.
The big stage success, "Just a Wife," that added considerable laurels to Charlotte Walker, the well known actress, when she appeared in it on the speaking stage, will be the photoplay attraction at the Washington Theatre, commencing Friday.

It was written by Eugene Walker, whose numerous virile plays of American domestic and business life have attracted attention.

Miss Poppy Wyndham, daughter of Lord Inchcape, is said to be England's only girl jockey.
