

CINCINNATI LOSES TO PIRATES, 2 TO 1; REUTHER FANS 1

CINCINNATI, O., April 18.—Despite superlative hurling by Reuther, the Cincy Reds were forced to accept a 2 to 1 defeat from the Pittsburgh Pirates Sunday afternoon.

The first inning spelled the Red's doom, as a hit, walk, sacrifice and an error by Kopt enabled two runs to cross the pan. Adams also pitched superb ball, the only Red tally coming in the fifth on three solid bingles. Reuther fanned seven Pirates.

CO-EDS TO PLAY BASEBALL
ON CAMPUS, IF IT'S FAIR
Providing the weatherman is agreeable, Earlham co-eds were to gather on the Earlham campus Monday afternoon for a regulation baseball game. Baseball got under way last week, but no actual contests were staged. About 80 girls have signed up and practically all announce they will be out on Monday's game. An inter-class baseball championship tourney may be held.

BRINGING UP FATHER BY McMANUS

RICHMOND IS MEMBER OF NEW CENTRAL LEAGUE; MAY START SOON

Reorganization of the old Central league was effected at a meeting of baseball moguls in Dayton, Sunday afternoon. Nine towns were represented, but Dayton withdrew in favor of Ludington, Mich. The other members of the league will be Richmond, Ft. Wayne, Lima, Springfield, Muskegon, Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo.

E. E. Dickerson is manager of the league. He announced that the forfeit money must be in to him by Tuesday night. Several towns were prepared to meet the money Sunday afternoon, but others were not notified to bring forfeit checks. Richmond officials say that their forfeit check will be sent Tuesday morning.

May Start May 12 or 19.
No definite date was set for the opening game, but May 12 or 19 are in most favor. The Michigan clubs of the new league have already appointed managers, and players will start to report Monday.

Ludington officials announce that word will be sent to the players tentatively signed and these will start reporting later in the week.

A manager for Richmond will be selected Monday afternoon or Tuesday. Five men have applied.

Ludington is strong.
Ludington was at Sunday's meeting with two official representatives and three other men. It developed that although Ludington has a permanent population of about half of Richmond, it has about 30,000 in the summer months.

Certified figures showed that when Ludington was a member of the Michigan league and Grand Rapids in the Central, Ludington drew greater crowds than Grand Rapids.

Dayton baseball men have aspiration for an International league berth for next year and were slightly "leery" about entering the Central league.

The four representatives present, however, announced that Dayton would have entered and finished the season.

OF Jupiter Pluvius Just Pours and Pours on Reid Field; Mow Gets Anxious
Coach Mow of Earlham is literally "up a tree" as he has two baseball games and two track meets scheduled for this week, and old Jupiter Pluvius is determined to grant no let-up in his down-pours.

The Wilberforce baseball nine comes to Reid Field Friday afternoon in the first game of the season for both schools. The Quakers are scheduled to play the Starr Piano nine Tuesday afternoon, but if rain prevents, Mow will have to send a practically green team against the strong Ohio school.

Coach Mow is determined to hold the interclass track meet this week. Earlham is scheduled for the first track meet of the season against Cincinnati university at Carson Field Saturday afternoon and the interclass track meet is needed to bring out the best track material for the meet.

Mow has a line upon a relative value of the different candidates but expects the track meet to prove his choice.

If the fates and the weatherman are favorable, the meet will be held Wednesday afternoon. Later than that will not do, as the thinly clad will need at least two days to rest up before the Cincinnati clash.

LEGION BACKS FT. WAYNE

The Ft. Wayne franchise has been taken over by the American Legion of that city, and this is regarded as one of the strongest clubs in the league. Springfield representatives are sorry Dayton is not in the league, but still have Lima as a rival. Richmond and Ft. Wayne will be antagonists during the season, and the Michigan clubs will be pitted in a battle royal.

Twenty-seven representatives were at Sunday's meeting and 15 of these were officially appointed. Doc White, famous Chicago White Sox hurler and world series hero, is manager for Muskegon and headed the representatives from that town. William Heffron also attended for Muskegon.

Vickers at Kalamazoo.
Rube Vickers—well known to the big league baseball fraternity of 10 years ago, is managing Kalamazoo and in company with Edward Sergeant, represented that city.

W. T. Morrissey, represented Grand Rapids; J. B. Smith and Richard Shiers represented Ludington; J. H. Heilbronner represented Ft. Wayne; J. Mahoney represented Springfield; Alex Curtiss and George Logue, Ludington; and E. E. Eggemeyer, C. W. Jessup and Joseph Hill represented Richmond.

BASEBALL, KING OF SPORTS; WILL START BOOMING THIS WEEK

This promises to be the banner week of baseball in Richmond for this spring. Plans for Central, Suburban and S. A. L. leagues are to be completed Sunday by Adams of Pittsburgh, who won his second victory.

The champion Chicago team of the American league and the Boston Americans each won twice with no defeats.

The National league teams, on the whole, outbatted and outscored the American leaguers, but the latter were steeper in the field. The New York Yankees and Chicago Nationals, generally among the leaders, are in last place.

In the National league Cincinnati hit Alexander of Chicago freely on opening day and took the next two games by coupling hits with Cub errors. Chicago lost its fourth straight game yesterday, when Alexander failed against St. Louis.

Back in Detroit, Eayra, successfully against New York and also captured a 1-0 pitchers' battle between Oeschger and Toney. Pittsburgh and St. Louis, the only major teams to play a full schedule, engaged in four hard-fought contests, two going into extra innings.

Pirates at Top Three Times.
The Pirates came out on top three times, Carlson and Ponder each blanking the Cardinals. Brooklyn and Philadelphia shared two games in which 26 runs and 44 hits were made. The superbas and Quakers continued their hard battling yesterday and defeated Boston and New York respectively.

Good pitching gave the Chicago Americans two victories over Detroit. Williams struck out eight on the opening day, while Clotte showed good form in Saturday's shutout. Boston kept batting yesterday and Washington, out of the box and also won a 14-inning contest from the Senators.

Babe Ruth failed to aid New York against Philadelphia, his error losing the opening game. He fanned three times in the next game, which the Yankees won. Cleveland and St. Louis split even in two games. Coveleski whitewashed the Browns on opening day and turned back Detroit yesterday.

Players May Report Soon
Everything is rosete as regards Central league baseball here. The forfeit check will be posted Tuesday morning and a manager will probably be appointed at the same time. At this rate, players tentatively signed will report the last of the week.

Work has been started to put exhibition park in shape for daily practices. Nearly all players tentatively signed by Richmond have received spring training from other clubs and will not require much work to get into shape for the opening bell.

Richard Zeyen was appointed director of athletics for the Richmond Knights of Columbus at a meeting Saturday night. Games are to be scheduled with Kaysee teams of other towns. Cincinnati and Springfield, Ohio, have both written their willingness to meet Richmond in a series of games.

All Stars Ready to Start
The Richmond All-Stars are all ready to take the field. The first game will be played at Boston Sunday afternoon against the C. & O. team of that town. Eldorado will be played the following Sunday. Eaton and

BAD WEATHER MARS SEASON'S OPENING; REDS WIN FIRST 3

Inclement weather marred the opening week of the major baseball season, causing 13 postponements. The Cincinnati world champions battled well and won three straight contests until checked Sunday by Adams of Pittsburgh, who won his second victory.

POTATO PRICES DUE TO SCARCITY, SAY DEALERS
SEYMOUR, Ind., April 19.—The price of potatoes is unusually high because of a shortage and not because of speculation or market manipulation, according to local retailers in answer to the movement started here among housewives to refrain from buying potatoes until the price is reduced.

The potato boycott is growing here and many housewives have pledged themselves not to buy them until the price drops. Spuds are retailing around $5 a bushel. Farmers who have raised potatoes for commercial purposes in former years declare that they will plant only enough for their own use because of the exorbitant prices charged for seed stock.

JUDGE LUTHER C.

Citizens respected him for fine traits of character, his geniality, his winning personality.

He was one of the "characters" of the city, in the highest sense of the word. Many are the traditions that cling to his name, deep is the affection in which he was held by his associates and the public.

"One of the most companionable and congenial men I ever knew," said Judge Will Bond of the late Judge Abbott, Monday.

"He had a way of taking the happy side of life, and the faculty of making life with whom he associated better and happier because of his friendship. He was an entirely unselfish man, thoroughly honest and will long be remembered by his many friends in Wayne county."

Was Genial Companion
Henry U. Johnson, attorney, another professional friend of Judge Abbott, said: "He was the most genial and pleasant man I ever knew. He possessed a fine sense of humor; was a good reasoner, and never made enemies. Luther Abbott probably had as large a circle of friends as any citizen of the community. He liked good literature, and read it."

Ex-Judge Henry Fox was keenly affected by the death of Judge Abbott, with whom he had held a close friendship for years. They were together frequently while Judge Abbott was a resident of Richmond.

"He was a kind hearted man and one who had friends everywhere," said A. C. Lindemuth. "He occupied my building for a number of years while serving as justice of peace, and I found him always a just and genial man. He was a good judge of the law and had a store of common sense. He made an excellent justice of peace. By the children he was especially admired. He would always stop and talk to a group of children going along the street, and invariably won their confidence."

Traced Family Back 600 Years.
Judge Abbott traced his ancestry back 600 years to the fourteenth century. A son of Cheney and Rachel Abbott, he was born in Hampshire county, Mass., on May 11, 1831. His ancestors had established Abbott's Academy, which is still flourishing.

Judge Abbott had a brother and sister, neither of whom are living. His wife, who was Miss Lydia A. Cook, is buried in Summerville, Mass., where she died in 1910. Four children reside at Summerville.

Funeral services are to be held at Mill Village, Mass., and burial will be in Mt. Auburn cemetery in Cambridge, Mass. It is understood from a message sent to friends in Richmond.

He was educated at Exeter Academy, New Salem Academy, and at Sheldon Falls.
After completing his academic work he began teaching at North Dana, in Worcester county; then in Prescott, North Prescott, Old Boylston, and the high school at Amherst.
