

PUPILS OF LIBERTY AND HARMONY TOWNSHIPS TO GRADUATE MAY 8

LIBERTY, Ind., April 20.—The joint commencement exercises of Liberty and Harmony townships will be held at the Quakertown church on Saturday, May 8, at 1:30 p. m. Prosecuting Attorney J. Ralph Himelek, of Connersville, will deliver the commencement address. The pupils of the two township schools will furnish the music. The following pupils will graduate: Liberty township, Paul Hughes, Virgil Beck, Florence Corrington, Lloyd Shepler, Katherine Bond, Raymond Presley, Alma Lake, Melvina Edna Davis and Josephine Showalter; Harmony township, Francis McMahon, Roma Fields, Hazel Loper, Gladys Masters, Gordon Brandenberg, Marguerite Jenkins, Wilbert Watterson, Clara Henry and Robert Fields.

Buya Fosdick Home.—A. H. Dorsel purchased the residence of William Harbison on East Union street, this week. The place is known as the "Fosdick Home," and was purchased for the sum of $4,000.

Crawford Is Home.—William Crawford, candidate for county treasurer, arrived home today from Florida, where he has been spending the past five months. Since the decision ruled Miss Nell George out of the race, Mr. Crawford is without opposition in the primary, but will give a close race in the finals by Wilson T. Hill, the democratic nominee.

Davis to Dayton.—James J. Davis, who for the past year has been connected with the Rude Manufacturing company, has gone to Dayton, Ohio, where he has accepted a position with the research department of General Motors. He is associated with Charles Kettering, who is interested in McCook's field.

Wayne Martin Is Ill.—Wayne Martin, a member of the 1920 graduating class of Liberty High school, is seriously ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin, here. Some weeks ago he was forced to leave school owing to an attack of the influenza, which has developed into inflammatory rheumatism.

Delta Theta Tau.—The members of the Delta Theta Tau fraternity were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Claude Huddelson on Friday night. The affair was in the nature of a pledge party for Miss Nell George. Among the members present were Misses Isabelle Sharpe, Frances Graham, Gladys Lippert, Charlotte Dubois, Mary Rebecca Pigman, Charlotte and Kate Husted, Ruth McCarty, Jean Parker, Olive Mildred Timmerman, Ruth Morris, Mary Catharine Calkins, Mary Carmichael, Ruth Raridan, Estelline Owne, Enid Orr, Miriam Kirker, Emilie Tappen, Vivian Douthit, Mrs. Donald Fosdick, Mrs. George Coughlin and Mrs. Francis Farley.

Judge Abbott Was Genial

Man, Says Judge Fox.—"I have known Judge Abbott since 1858," said Judge Henry Fox, Tuesday, speaking of the dead jurist. "I used to know him back in the days when he taught school at Sugar Creek. He was always good company; always had a string of stories at hand, and usually funny ones."

While he never made pretence of being much of a lawyer, he was an able speaker, and often lectured on literary subjects. I always enjoyed talking over late books and new poetry with him.

"He was a genial, jolly, companionable man, one I am glad to have called friend."

GAIN WEIGHT AND STRENGTH

With Bitro-Phosphate on $300 Guarantee

NEW YORK. If you are feeling run-down, weak, nervous, tired-in-the-morning, and generally ailing, these are the symptoms that should warn you to take care of your health.

Four persons in every ten are needing more phosphorus in their bodies. When you see thin and fretful people; or those who are anemic, pale, frail, oft despondent or lacking in energy, you may look for the need of certain elements that make for a strong constitution.

Some people, after relying upon preparations composed chiefly of salts, quinine, drastic drugs, iron, calomel, cod-liver oil, etc., wonder why they find no benefit. That is easily explained by the fact that such persons need the phosphoric element, which is a most potent essential to health, and contained in BITRO-PHOSPHATE, the famous health preparation. Now obtainable everywhere.

The right thing for you to do is make a trial of BITRO-PHOSPHATE beginning at once. It is not a patent medicine; the formula is prescribed by many physicians for the ailments and weaknesses mentioned above.

With every box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE, are a few simple health rules and a $300 guarantee. Buy a box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE. It is sold and recommended by D. and S. Drug Company and all good druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

Company K. Leaves Service; Members to Sell Equipment

Sixty-six men and three officers of Company K, Indiana State Militia, were mustered out of state service, in the armory in the Colonial building, Monday night. The discharge of the men results from a state law which will not support a state military organization other than the national guard in time of peace.

All equipment of the company except guns, was disposed of to members and outsiders following the discharge. State equipment was sold for less than half the original cost, while government material was sold at reduced prices.

Mrs. Wood Frost Is Dead

At Home Near Eldorado
ELDORADO, O., April 20.—Mrs. Wood Frost died at her home here Sunday. She had been afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis for some time and had been confined to her bed for nine weeks.

Mrs. Frost is survived by her husband, a seven-year-old son, father, L. Bowman, and numerous relatives in Kentucky.

The funeral was held at the Universalist church, Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. Thomas Murray. Burial was in Monroe cemetery.

Cambridge High School Commencement May 25

CAMBRIDGE CITY, April 20.—The commencement of the Cambridge City high school will be held May 25. There are 20 graduates, the largest number in many years. The members of the class are: Evelyn Gaar, Thelma Leslie, Dorothy Moore, Ethel Stahl, Marie Danner, Bernice Lamott, Lenora Byers, Helen Barnes, Madge Mannon, Lavesta Brumfield, Mae Morris, Pauline Woodward, Carl DeHays, Robert Krone, Martin Dolan, Raymond Boughner, Karl Koehler, Herbert Jacobs, Paul Ferguson and Dewitt Scheidler, or 12 boys and eight girls.

The Theatres

WASHINGTON.—"On With the Dance," the George Fitzmaurice Production featuring Mae Murray and David Powell, at the Washington Theatre, gives a true picture of the cabaret life of New York City.

Mae Murray has the role of a dancing girl, and is, of course, the center of interest. David Powell has the role of a man who is in love with her. The picture is one of intense heart appeal and dramatic conflict. It was adapted by Ouida Begere from a stage play.

The story concerns the adventure of a little, pretty Russian girl, suddenly left an orphan amid the luxury of New York's smart set. He encounters with men, good and bad, her temporary yielding to the lure of a "soft life," and her final redemption in the big crisis provides an absorbing plot that held the interest of last night's audience every moment.

The action revolves around a gamb-

Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

TELLS SAFE, SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parment (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.—Advertisement.

ling saloon and a country home and tells of the interrupted romance of Dr. Ralph Strong and Anita Frane by the war. She goes to New York with Ralph's father—but he soon tires of her. From then on she leads the life of a lamb by day, but becomes a tiger at night. Upon Ralph's return from France they become engaged—the later introduces her to his father as his future wife—not knowing the life he led her into or anything about the past. She faints and not long afterwards the father dies.

It is no ordinary story—totally unlike any other photoplay produced this year; nothing in the early part of the picture gives any suggestion as to how it will end.

MURRETTE

Mildred Harris Chaplin, the star in "The Inferior Sex," tells girls how to win the men of their choice and how to hold love after they are married, and she says that the same plan will work in real life, for the play is based on facts and conditions of today.

"A certain amount of reserve will add zest to any courtship," said Mildred Harris Chaplin. "You must keep a man guessing to a certain extent. It is all right to show him that you like him, and that you prefer his company to that of others, as a general rule, but do not let him think that he is the whole story of your life."

"Let him know and feel that there are others that would be glad to woo you. If he feels too sure of you, his interest wanes. Men like to fight for what they get, and if they win it in a fight they appreciate it more."

Outside of its unusual love story and the interest in its up-to-date problems of life, "The Inferior Sex" carries an especial appeal to women in the exquisite gowns displayed, its marvelous millinery creations, the beautiful settings and wonderful scenery.

MURRAY

Misses Merritt and Bridewell, who close the bill at the Murray with their offering, "Bright Bits of Mirth and Original Melody," offer an act of unusual merit. Both have very pleasing voices and use them to advantage. Miss Bridewell, besides being a vocal artist, plays the piano very well. Their singing of "Alexander-Hello," accompanied by their one-sided comedy, was one of the hits of the performance. Their closing number, "Love Sick" stamped their act as one of the very best.

Nixon and Sans, a clever man and woman team in a black and tan revue entitled "Hotel Happenings," supply abundance of comedy. The man is easily the better of the two and his dancing is exceptionally clever.

The costume worn by the man is elaborate, original, and eccentric. All

Conrad and Co. in "A Little Bit of This and a Little Bit of That" opened the bill. The company is composed of two musicians—a violinist and an accordion player.

"The Tattlers," a new William Fox photoplay featuring Madeline Travers, and showing at the Murray Theatre, is a triumph for producer, star and director.

This play affords an interesting study of the effect of divorce, the malignant power of gossip and the desperate circumstances following a divorce more sinned against than sinning. Miss Travers has put all the fire and force of her great talent into an intensely dramatic role. Stirring scenes carry the spectator from one big moment to another, with Miss Travers dominating each. The star is supported by a company of well-known artists who add their quota to the success of the photoplay.

The cast includes Howard Scott,

Mildred Harris Chaplin in "The Inferior Sex"

Ever since the Stone Age, man, in his opinion, has been the master, woman the slave. You women who know, is this man's conceit, and does the physically weaker actually rule the stronger by a subtle power of which man is unconscious? Is the fighter, the bread-winner superior to the home maker? Woman today is playing a new part in world affairs. Has her position changed? Strip man and woman of all social veneer and behold them in their natal state. Is one superior to the other?
