

LIBERTY PLANT CLOSES; H. S. ADOPTS OVERALLS; LEGION HAS FISH FRY

LIBERTY, Ind., April 22.—Owing to lack of materials, the Rude Manufacturing company was forced to close Thursday for an indefinite period of time. The company has been unable to get shipments of parts through for more than a month, owing to the unsettled freight conditions.

High School Adopts Overalls
Liberty high school has formed an "Overall club." The pupils will wear bungalow aprons and overalls to school during the remaining weeks. The action of the pupils has been endorsed by the school officials. The graduating class, has been requested to comply to a reasonable extent with the spirit of the movement in the school in making the commencement plans.

Republicans Attend Rally
Among the Republicans of the county who attended the meeting in Richmond Tuesday evening were O. L. Stiller, W. F. Bossert, Thomas and Chas. McCoy, Barton Clark and Andrew Smith.

Barnard Tries Out
Alvah Barnard returned home Tuesday from Chicago, where he went last week to make the trial for entry into the Redpath chautauqua circuit for this summer.

Culvert Washed Out
A small culvert was washed away Monday by high waters on the Richmond-Liberty road, near the Charles Marth farm, in Union county. All of the rural mail carriers were unable to make their rounds Monday owing to high water, but it is said that very little actual damage was done here by the excessive rainfall.

Members of the Simon Edelbert Snyder Post of the American Legion enjoyed a fish fry here Tuesday evening at the Legion rooms. The affair was well attended and marks the beginning of the social activities of the Post for the coming year.

Helen McCoy Entertains
Miss Helen McCoy entertained at dinner Tuesday a company of guests. A profusion of Easter flowers was used throughout the spacious rooms of the McCoy home. Appointments were made for the following guests for an elaborate dinner, which was served at 7:00 o'clock in several courses: Mrs. William P. Kennedy, Mrs. T. P. Dubois, Mrs. Samuel Lam.

New Method Keeps All Teeth Spotless

Do you imagine that because you "clean" your teeth regularly that they are spotless? Just take a hand mirror over to the window where the light is good, examine your teeth closely, notice the stains and tartar. Why are they there? Because your dentifrice is powerless to remove them, even though you scrub your teeth several times a day. The stains are really discolored films—thin coatings of fat—which the usual powders, pastes and liquids do not penetrate.

You will be glad to know that there is a new product, discovered by a well-known dentist, which will positively remove all stains or spots—yellow, black, gray, any color—almost as "quick as a wink," without scratching or harming the teeth in the least. Just get a package of "Once-a-Week Tooth Polish" from your druggist, use a little of your tooth brush—then consult your mirror again. The result will surprise you most greatly. Use Once-a-Week Tooth Polish weekly and the trouble will not reappear, the germs which multiply underneath those films will disappear, tartar will no longer accumulate, decay will be prevented—"pearly white teeth" will have a new meaning to you.—Advertisement.

Fosdick, Mrs. George Tappen, Mrs. J. L. Pierson and Miss Minnie Verrier. Five hundred furnished diversion for the evening hours, and the favors were awarded to Mrs. George Tappen and Mrs. Charles Mitchell.

The Theatres

WASHINGTON
Maurice Tourneur's newest production, "Woman," which is showing at the Washington today only, marks a distinct step in the development of the well known creator of "Sporting Life," "The Blue Bird," "Prunella" and other productions of distinct artistry. "Woman" disregards the usual scenario form to a marked degree. Yet "Woman," which Mr. Tourneur is now giving the screen world, should not be considered as typical. In rapid succession during the past year he has produced dramas touching upon fairy fantasy, symbolical whimsy, sex analysis, the code of morals.

Mr. Tourneur, too, does not believe strongly in a player's previous knowledge of screen technique. "Woman" is at least unusual in that it presents a cast of faces new to the screen, the principal players being Flora Revallies, Paul Clerget, Gloria Goodwin, Diana Allen, Ethel Hallor, Lyn Donaldson, Rose Rolande and others essentially new to the films.

MURRAY
"Molly and I," based on Frank R. Adams' novel "Molly and I and the Silver Ring," will be presented at the Murray Theatre, beginning Thursday with Miss Shirley Mason as the star. "Molly and I" is said to be a charming comedy.

ling comedy, in which this delightful star finds abundant opportunity to demonstrate her right to the description 95 pounds of pep, personality and prettiness.

As is usual in Fox productions, a cast of well-known artists supports the star. In this instance Albert Roscoe plays opposite Miss Mason, while the balance of the company is said to be consistently good. The picture was directed by Howard M. Mitchell, who has directed several big screen successes for Fox Film Corporation.

RICHMOND
Earl Metcalfe and Harry C. Brown stage a great fight in the new World release, "The Battler." The scene is in the home of Duncan Hart (played by Mr. Brown), a society man. Hart holds a boxing bout between himself and a pugilist, Jom Fortune (played by Mr. Metcalfe). The bout is intended only as an exhibition and a large number of guests are present. Hart does not know that he is to meet Fortune, his hated foe; he thinks he has engaged another man who will permit himself to be easily beaten rather than offend the wealthy amateur. At the ringside just as the fight is about to commence, Mrs. Hart (Virginia Hammond) bares her neck, and showing Fortune an ugly red welt from where Hart hit her with a whip, implores the fighter to kill her husband. This scene carries more punch than anything ever before filmed!

It is just one of many such striking scenes from "The Battler." This film will be the feature at the Richmond theatre next Friday.
