

OPEN SHOP BACKED BY MANUFACTURERS AT ANNUAL MEETING

Resolutions endorsing the open shop among manufacturing industries in Indiana, and recommending revision of the state tax law to "make the law equitable among all classes," were adopted at the sixth annual meeting of the Indiana Manufacturers' association, held at Indianapolis.

Officers were elected at a business meeting. J. L. Kimbrough, of Muncie, was elected president, succeeding Charles H. Barnaby. William F. Taylor, of Indianapolis, was re-elected first vice-president; Linn Faulkner, of Seymour, second vice-president; Fred C. Gardner, of Indianapolis, was re-elected treasurer, and S. L. Jones, of Anderson, P. M. Ruddell, of Kokomo, H. C. Stuckel, of Terre Haute, and Oscar Soderquist, of East Chicago, were elected members of the board of directors. The meeting was attended by manufacturers from all parts of Indiana, including Richmond.

Miss Esther Beck, Of Richmond, Is Married

KENOSHA, Wis., April 23.—Miss Esther B. Beck, daughter of the Richmond postmaster, Charles Beck, and Carl Green McIntyre, of Kenosha, eloped to Waukegan yesterday where they were married.

McIntyre is a world war veteran, having been seriously wounded while in France. Miss Beck has been here for six months as society editor of the Kenosha Herald.

McIntyre has accepted a position in the Detroit Y. M. C. A. His wife will remain in Kenosha until August, when they will visit her parents in Richmond.

Hagenback-Wallace Show Promises Much Action

Holding forth a promise of elephants upon which to rope, popcorn to chew, and other attractions which time never dims, the Carl Hagenback and Great Wallace Shows combined, the largest circus organization in the world, will arrive here Wednesday, May 5.

Three rings, two stages and a mile hippodrome track are included in the great outfit, and there will be something "doing" every minute, according to a representative of the show here yesterday.

Embargoes Lifted Here; Strike Situation Easier

The industrial tie-up in Richmond was materially relieved Friday, when announcements of lifting of embargoes were made by C. and O. and American Express officials.

The C. and O. embargo to Chicago and the express embargoes at New York and St. Louis were lifted. Cleveland and Pittsburgh are the only points where express embargoes are in effect.

WEATHERMAN SERVES OUT HIS BEST SLANTS DURING WEEK

The weatherman has given Richmond a thorough assortment of his wares this week. Rain fell in torrents the first of the week, causing the rivers to rise. Then came the terrific storm of Tuesday night. Wednesday and Thursday were clear and warm. Friday sees a return to winter form on part of the weatherman. The prediction for Saturday forecasts cold, blustery weather with light rain or snow. However, the promised rain storm for Thursday failed to materialize.
