

REDS GET MOUTHFUL OF BEAR-MEAT; 3RD GAME PLAYED TODAY

CHICAGO, April 24.—The Cincy Reds finally broke their losing streak, pounding out a 5 to 3 victory over the Cubs at the Windy City Friday afternoon.

The Champs protested vigorously against playing in the extremely cold weather. Manager Mitchell decided that he might as well kick the Reds when they were down. However, the wildness of the Cub hurlers and opportunist hits gave the Reds the game. The third game probably will see Vaughn hurling for the Cubs and Fisher or Luque for the Reds.

Earlham Not Much Good, But Wilberforce Is Worse; Goat Fans 10 Opponents

The highly touted Wilberforce baseball nine failed to materialize against the Earlham Quakers at Reid Field Friday afternoon, the long end of an 8 to 5 score being chalked up for Earlham.

Doubt existed throughout the afternoon if the game would be played. Although cloudy and with a blustery wind sweeping Reid Field, the game started with Goat whiffing all three opponents in the initial round. Earlham got a man on base in their half of the second through an error. The visitors scored in the second and added another in the third.

Innumerable errors and free tickets enabled Earlham to tie the score in their half of the third and to score four runs in the fourth. Two more were added in the seventh and eighth. Wilberforce alarmed Earlham fans by a determined rally in the ninth. Three runs were the extent, however.

Free tickets by Anderson, Wilberforce hurler, and innumerable errors were responsible for the Earlham win. Goat pitched good ball and gives promise of being the best pitching ace seen at Earlham in a number of years. He whiffed 10 men and distributed but two tickets. Anderson fanned eight and allowed five hits. The score:

BOOSTER FUND TO BE RETURNED, IS CLUB'S DECISION

Decision to return the $10,000 booster fund to the original subscribers, was made at a meeting of the board of directors of the Richmond Exhibition company Friday night.

The original subscribers will in turn sign an agreement to reimburse the booster button holders.

The decision was not reached until after considerable discussion. Several of the directors were in favor of obtaining the consent of the subscribers and purchasing Exhibition Park and turning it over to the city as a recreation center. Others favored putting the money out at interest until next year.

The majority, however, felt it would not be fair to button holders and others to hold the fund when the main purpose of the fund had failed to materialize.

No announcement was made as to the ultimate disposition of the ball park. It will take a thousand dollars to enable the company to pay the rent of the grounds, repairs, and other expenses.

Indications are, however, that a fast semi-pro baseball team will represent Richmond this year. The team will be far superior to the one of last year. Games may be scheduled with such organizations as the champion Norwoods, Toledo Rail Lights, Dayton Triangles and the team playing out of Chicago whose members never get a hair cut or a shave.

Several boosters do not favor the return of the money. They maintain it should be used as a general fund, and that one of the best semi-pro teams in the country be organized to represent Richmond, and that a fund be set aside as a fund to equip a football team for Richmond next fall.

However, the action of the board of directors is final. Ten teams will be organized Monday, two men to a team, and each subscriber will be personally visited and given a check for the original amount.

Benny Kauff

Benny Kauff, having slipped a bit below the speed he set for himself last season, is anxious for the present season to get under way so that the can "tear loose." Benny believes he is off for a big year. And the spirit he shows is one of the reasons why he is one of the few Federals still starring in baseball. Benny is more than willing to learn and is a plunger.

The Federal league put Kauff in the baseball limelight. Benny, a Midwesterner, O. boy, started his baseball career with a semi-pro team near home in 1909. He helped his father in the coal mines as a boy. He first tried the pro game with Parkersburg in the Virginia Valley league in 1910—as pitcher and outfielder. The Yankees gave him a tryout in a few games the next year and then sent him to Bridgeport, recalling him the next season. He decided he would not do, however, and back to the bushes he went. He played with Rochester, Brockton and Hartford. After two years at Hartford Benny figured he was due to go up again, but was turned over to the Indianapolis A. A. club. Just at this time the Federal league was signing every likely looking player in sight to build up its outlaw league, and Benny heard the call of coin and jumped. He became one of the big stars of the Federals and in the settlement that followed the armistice between the Federals and organized ball Benny became the property of the Giants. Manager McGraw saw a star in Kauff and labored long with him to correct a batting fault and teach him other fine points of the game. How Benny, press agent to the skies as "greater than Ty Cobb" and heralded as one of the greatest finds of all time, managed to keep his head clear is a mystery. But he pulled through. He's a very valuable member of the Giant outfielding trio of Young, Burns and Kauff. He's 29 years old. Last year he batted .277, collecting 27 doubles, seven triples and 10 home runs. His fielding was only fair.

Wool! Hagerstown Getting Ready to Trim 'Em Again

The Hagerstown independent baseball team is being reorganized for 1920, with the avowed purpose of again copping the championship of Wayne county. Hagerstown defeated Richmond 9 to 5 on Sept. 28, last year.

An athletic association is being formed at Hagerstown and a new grand stand will be built. The playing field will be put in such a condition that it will rival the best in the county. A sweeping challenge will be issued within a few weeks.
