

Society

The dancers who attended Mr. and Mrs. Bert Klop's regular assembly dance Friday evening were Miss Benita Monarch, Miss Vivian Harding, Miss Esther Coyle, Miss Virginia Livingston, Miss Maude Reber, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Miss Marjorie Gennett, Miss Long Weist, Miss Julia Diehl of Newcastle, Miss Martha Smith, Miss Martha Eggemeyer, Miss Jane Carpenter, Miss Doris Puckett, Miss Clara Myrick, Miss Martha Jones, Miss Katherine Binkley, Miss Gwendolyn Spitzer, Miss Katherine Carr, Miss Myrtle Stugel, Miss Miriam Little, Miss Mildred Whitley, Miss Muriel Mashmeyer, Miss Marguerite Cox, Miss Loraine Long, Miss Wilma Sudhoff, Miss Helen Murray, Miss Elizabeth Klop, Miss Conda Haworth, William Eggemeyer, Kenneth Middaugh, Gene Rethmeyer, Kenneth Toler, William Dunn, Ronald Cox, William Morgan, Barnett Brown, Paul Moore, Paul Burris, Roland Wrede, Elwin Hooper, William Hale, Albert Chrown, James Rees, Alfred Stess, Edmund Sudhoff, Earl Tower, Lester Letter, Alvin Alexander, Howard Kramer, Howard Seleckman, Roland Lechner, Carlton Smith, Scott Kemp, Eugene Messick, Wayne Hill, Neil Bly, Mark Gordon, Clarence Leroy Hardin, Mr. and Mrs. Everett McConaha, and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Elmer.

Miss Mildred Edwards of South Sixteenth street, announced her engagement and approaching marriage to Paul Overman at a party given at her home Friday evening. Following an informal evening the guests were invited to the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served. The room was decorated in yellow and white. The guests were seated at one table over which was suspended a large white bell from which yellow streamers were strung to the place of each guest. At the end of the streamers were bells in which the engagement was announced and the month of the marriage, June. At a small table were seated Miss Charlotte Mitchell, a bride-elect and Miss Mildred Edwards, with their sisters, Miss Frances Mitchell and Miss Evelyn Edwards. The guests were served by Miss Pauline Smith, Miss Thelma Campbell and Miss Marjorie Edwards. Those present were Miss Charlotte Mitchell, Miss Frances Mitchell, Miss Ruth McRae, Miss Lovia Mansfield, Miss Lena Leive, Miss Anna Eves, Miss Ada Study, Miss Teresa Karcher, Miss Fern Marshall, Miss Eula Miller, Miss Ruth Heitbrink, Miss Ruth Webber, Miss Clementine Overman, Miss Evelyn Edwards, Miss Mildred Edwards, Mrs. Glen Dennis, Mrs. Morris Gay, Mrs. O. S. Overman, Mrs. Ray Kinder, Mrs. Rex Buckley, Mrs. A. S. Stont, Mrs. J. T. Fouke and Mrs. A. J. Edwards. Miss Edwards is the daughter of Mrs. A. J. Edwards. She is a graduate of the Richmond business college and is at present employed at the Second National bank. Mr. Overman is the son of L. F. Overman of North Nineteenth street and is a draftsman with the Detroit United Railway Lines.

Over $200 was made at the card party given Friday afternoon at the Arlington hotel for the benefit of renewal of subscriptions for 18 French war orphans. During the afternoon Mrs. William Dunay Fouke, who is in charge of the French War Orphans fund in Richmond, gave a brief talk on the period after the war in France. Euchre, five hundred and auction bridge was played at 22 tables with 100 women present. Favors were given to Miss Elizabeth Comstock, Miss Mary Barton, Mrs. Albert Gayle, Mrs. Juliet Swain Shirk, Mrs. Webster Parry, Mrs. Ida Carpenter, Mrs. Charles Drury, Mrs. Russell Alexander, Mrs. William Dill and Mrs. George Fox. The committee in charge, composed of Mrs. John M. Lontz, Mrs. Henry Goldfinger and Mrs. Mary A. Wood, wishes to extend to the merchants, who made contributions their sincerest thanks.

Mrs. Anthony Stolle was hostess Thursday evening for a towel shower in honor of Mrs. Theresa Allinger, who will be married Tuesday, May 4, to James Sharits. During the evening Miss Rhea Stolle, dressed as a small bride, delivered the gifts to the bride-elect. Euchre was played at five tables. The favors were given to Mrs. Albert Hodapp, Mrs. Fred Schwengen, Mrs. Mat Kuhlenbeck, Miss Mary Weaver and Miss Anna Overman. At a late hour the guests were invited to the dining room, where a delicious repast was served. In the center of the table was a French basket filled with spring flowers and tied with raffia. Around the basket were large shaded candles in crystal holders and at each place was a small candle. Pink and white were carried out in the menu. The guests were Mr. Joseph Stolle, Mrs. William Stolle, Mrs. Harry Hauer, Mrs. Henry Helmrich, Mrs. P. Rethmeyer, Mrs. Elizabeth Gessman, Mrs. Howard Elstro, Miss Anna Stolle, Miss Flora Hauer, Miss Olive Rose, Miss Edith Helmrich, Helen Helmrich, Mrs. Fred Schwengen, Mrs. Albert Hodapp, Mrs. Mat Kuhlenbeck, Miss Mary Weaver, Miss Anna Overman and Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Campbell, Mrs. Relia Chenoweth, Miss Margaret Campbell, Miss Reba Townsend and Miss Thelma Thomas.

The proprietor of the Cedar Springs Hotel announced Saturday that the season at the hotel will be open Sunday, May 2. The hotel will be open each day.

The art gallery will be open Sunday from 2 until 5 p.m. This will be the last Sunday the exhibit of the New York Society of Painters will be hung. The exhibit will be taken down Wednesday.

The last regular meeting of the Criterion club will be held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. B. Harrison, 428 West Main street. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

A successful entertainment was that given Friday evening in the high school auditorium by the Tatomekiya Camp Fire girls. The stage was arranged with oriental rugs. The Indian dances which the girls gave were well given. Each number was well received. Mrs. Fred Bartel sang a group of Indian songs by Cadman. Miss Lucille Spears gave an Indian solo dance. Mrs. Charles Logan sang two songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hibbert, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huen and Mr. and Mrs. Everett McConaha, and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Elmer.

Miss Mildred Edwards of South Sixteenth street, announced her engagement and approaching marriage to Paul Overman at a party given at her home Friday evening. Following an informal evening the guests were invited to the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served. The room was decorated in yellow and white.

The guests were seated at one table over which was suspended a large white bell from which yellow streamers were strung to the place of each guest. At the end of the streamers were bells in which the engagement was announced and the month of the marriage, June. At a small table were seated Miss Charlotte Mitchell, a bride-elect and Miss Mildred Edwards, with their sisters, Miss Frances Mitchell and Miss Evelyn Edwards.

The guests were served by Miss Pauline

Smith, Miss Thelma Campbell and Miss Marjorie Edwards. Those present were Miss Charlotte Mitchell, Miss Frances Mitchell, Miss Ruth McRae, Miss Lovia Mansfield, Miss Lena Leive, Miss Anna Eves, Miss Ada Study, Miss Teresa Karcher, Miss Fern Marshall, Miss Eula Miller, Miss Ruth Heitbrink, Miss Ruth Webber, Miss Clementine Overman, Miss Evelyn Edwards, Miss Mildred Edwards, Mrs. Glen Dennis, Mrs. Morris Gay, Mrs. O. S. Overman, Mrs. Ray Kinder, Mrs. Rex Buckley, Mrs. A. S. Stont, Mrs. J. T. Fouke and Mrs. A. J. Edwards. Miss Edwards is the daughter of Mrs. A. J. Edwards. She is a graduate of the Richmond business college and is at present employed at the Second National bank. Mr. Overman is the son of L. F. Overman of North Nineteenth street and is a draftsman with the Detroit United Railway Lines.

Over $200 was made at the card party given Friday afternoon at the Arlington hotel for the benefit of renewal of subscriptions for 18 French war orphans. During the afternoon Mrs. William Dunay Fouke, who is in charge of the French War Orphans fund in Richmond, gave a brief talk on the period after the war in France. Euchre, five hundred and auction bridge was played at 22 tables with 100 women present. Favors were given to Miss Elizabeth Comstock, Miss Mary Barton, Mrs. Albert Gayle, Mrs. Juliet Swain Shirk, Mrs. Webster Parry, Mrs. Ida Carpenter, Mrs. Charles Drury, Mrs. Russell Alexander, Mrs. William Dill and Mrs. George Fox. The committee in charge, composed of Mrs. John M. Lontz, Mrs. Henry Goldfinger and Mrs. Mary A. Wood, wishes to extend to the merchants, who made contributions their sincerest thanks.

Mrs. Anthony Stolle was hostess Thursday evening for a towel shower in honor of Mrs. Theresa Allinger, who will be married Tuesday, May 4, to James Sharits. During the evening Miss Rhea Stolle, dressed as a small bride, delivered the gifts to the bride-elect. Euchre was played at five tables. The favors were given to Mrs. Albert Hodapp, Mrs. Fred Schwengen, Mrs. Mat Kuhlenbeck, Miss Mary Weaver and Miss Anna Overman. At a late hour the guests were invited to the dining room, where a delicious repast was served. In the center of the table was a French basket filled with spring flowers and tied with raffia. Around the basket were large shaded candles in crystal holders and at each place was a small candle. Pink and white were carried out in the menu. The guests were Mr. Joseph Stolle, Mrs. William Stolle, Mrs. Harry Hauer, Mrs. Henry Helmrich, Mrs. P. Rethmeyer, Mrs. Elizabeth Gessman, Mrs. Howard Elstro, Miss Anna Stolle, Miss Flora Hauer, Miss Olive Rose, Miss Edith Helmrich, Helen Helmrich, Mrs. Fred Schwengen, Mrs. Albert Hodapp, Mrs. Mat Kuhlenbeck, Miss Mary Weaver, Miss Anna Overman and Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and of their thirteenth wedding anniversary. Stunts were arranged for entertainment among them being a High Cost of Living Shower. Refreshments were served. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lebed, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gilmer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Doan, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Riggins, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis King, Dr. and Mrs. Leo C. Hoover, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Marvel, Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Cox, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Harold, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Mendenhall, Professor and Mrs. Allan D. Hole, Mrs. William Quigley, Mrs. Bessie Thompson Keates, Miss Anna Horn and Miss Halsey Harold.

The Current Events club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Hibbard at her home on Bungalow Hill.

The younger set of the city is anticipating the dance to be given Tuesday evening in the Odd Fellows hall by Frank Bescher, Roland Wrede, Clarence Coyle, Peter Lichtenfeld and Edie Loehr. The Syncopating Five of the Gold Dragon Cabaret of St. Petersburg, Fla., will play the program of dance music.

The Old IH club will give an "Anti-Prolifter Hop" Thursday evening in the Odd Fellows hall. Everyone is asked to come in old overalls and gingham dresses. The Evan Smith orchestra will play.

Mrs. L. F. Burns of North Fifteenth street who has been seriously ill at the home of her mother in Crawfordsville for several weeks, is in a much improved condition.

Funeral Arrangements

Maley—Funeral services for James Maley will be conducted from St. Mary's church Saturday at 9 a.m. A Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated. The advance lesson for May will be given by Mrs. J. F. Propst. A large attendance is desired as the report cards will be distributed by the county superintendent.

Kepler's orchestra will play for the Starlight dance to be given Saturday evening in Vaughn hall.

Mrs. Blanche Stanberry was hostess for the Hiawatha Literary club Friday afternoon. Responses to roll call were "Spring" quotations. Miss Olive Shute and Mrs. Stanberry were readers for the afternoon. Mrs. Charles Darland will be hostess for the meeting in two weeks at her home on North Nineteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Buckley had as their dinner guests Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Buckley and Mr. and Mrs. Q. M. Buckley. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buckley are en route from Florida to their home in Niagara Falls.

The Tirzah club will give a dance Monday evening in the Ben Hur hall. All members and their friends are invited.

A general rehearsal of the "Posie Shoppe" cast will be held Monday evening in the Knights of Columbus hall. This promises to be one of the best musical comedies of home talent production ever put on in Richmond. It will be given at the Washington Theatre May 10-11 under the direction of the Moorhead Production company of Cincinnati. Four hundred persons will take part. Rehearsals for the children are being held each afternoon in the Commercial Club rooms.

Mrs. George Hamilton will be hostess for the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace M. E. church Wednesday afternoon, at her home on 225 South Fifteenth street. A matter of special importance will be brought up and all members are urged to attend.

The last meeting of the Wayne County War Mothers' association will be held Tuesday afternoon in the post room at the court house. A large attendance is desired. A meeting will be held the latter part of the week to organize as the woman's auxiliary of the American Legion.

Miss Inez Sliders entertained the five hundred club Friday evening. Miss Eunice Wettig received the favor.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Those who attended were: Miss Reba Lewis, Miss Edna Starr, Miss Grace Dye, Miss Eunice Wettig, Miss Elizabeth Starr, Miss Clementine Overman, Miss Lorene Shissler, and Miss Sliders. Miss Edna Starr will entertain the club in two weeks.

Miss Mildred Raper was hostess for a party Thursday afternoon in honor of her birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent playing games. A delicious luncheon was served. The guests were Miss Charlotte Phillips, Miss Mary Terhune, Miss Leonay Bulerdick and Oscar Foreman. Miss Hazel Haustetter assisted in entertaining the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Dennis were pleasantly surprised by a number of friends Friday evening at their home on South Thirteenth street, in honor of Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.

The Young People's club of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening instead of Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis were host and hostess Friday evening for a party for the members of the Narcissus embroidery club and their families at their home on West Main street. The evening was spent informally, after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and

Mrs. Allinger.