

MOTHERS HONORED IN EATON; DRY MEN SPEAK AT RALLIES

EATON, O., May 10.—Special services marked observance of Mothers' Day in the local churches Sunday. Special sermons were preached at the Methodist church, by Rev. Bussard; at the Christian church, by Rev. Baker, and at the United Brethren church, by the Rev. Yingling, at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Murray conducted special services in the evening at the Universalist church.

Hanly at Temperance Rally.
Former Governor J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana, spoke here Sunday evening in the Christian church, at a temperance rally, several of the local churches uniting in the meeting. Pastor Hiley Baker of the Christian church, presided.

Meeting at New Paris.
Oliver T. Stewart, of Chicago, former member of the Illinois legislature, addressed a temperance meeting Sunday evening at New Paris, in the Christian church. He spoke in the forenoon at a similar meeting in Eldorado, in the United Brethren church. Baccalaureate services for the senior class of the centralized high school of Jackson township were held Sunday evening at Campbelltown, in the Christian church. The sermon was preached by Rev. P. V. Harris. The annual commencement exercises will occur the evening of May 15, in the school auditorium.

Lewisburg Commencement.
Annual commencement exercises of the Lewisburg high school will occur the evening of May 18. A class of 17 students will be graduated.

Big Class Graduated.
Annual commencement exercises of the Lanier township centralized high school occurred Saturday evening in the school auditorium, when one of the largest classes within the history of the school was graduated. Dr. H. C. Minnich, dean of teachers' training college, Miami University, addressed the class valedictory. Miss Elsie Stroup presented the class will, and the class prophecy was presented by Miss Mildred Eikenberry. After a brief address, M. D. Johnson, president of the board of education, presented the diplomas to the class. Rev. B. F. Petry offered prayer and pronounced the benediction.

Four Teachers Re-Employed.
Four of the present teachers of the schools at Lewisburg have been re-employed for next year's school term by the board of education. They are: Mrs. Anna Wood, Katherine Rice, Helen Van Dyke and Edna Locke. Their salaries have been fixed at $125 a month.

Jefferson Seniors Honored.
Twenty students in the senior class of the Jefferson township centralized schools were graduated at the annual commencement exercises Saturday evening, which were held in the school auditorium. Prof. Jesse McMillan, Miami university, addressed the class the members of which were: Willard Morrison, Scott Hawley, Irene White, Louis W. Murray, Nora Harrison, Sherman Miller, Iris Alexander, Guy Murray, Helen Oates, Cyrus Emrick, Leo Smith, Paul Northrop, Rhea Davison, Harry Kessler, Marjorie McKoon, Charles Benson, Fred Brandenburg, Elsie Richards, Herman Shaffer and Ronald Freed.

ROBBERS STEAL WHISKY
JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 10.—The theft of $25,100 worth of whisky from a warehouse was discovered by police. The door had been broken open and 16 barrels and 298 cases of liquor hauled away. The liquor was owned by a former wholesaler.

Indianapolis Truck Men's Tour Includes City, Vicinity

The itinerary of the truck tour of the truck division of the Indianapolis Automobile Trade association, which includes Richmond, scheduled for the week of May 17, was announced Monday in part. The schedule follows:

Monday, May 17—Leave Indianapolis. Wednesday, May 19—Cowan, Oakville, Springfield, Mt. Summit, New-castle, Hagerstown, Greensfork and Richmond, the night stop. Thursday, May 20—Centerville, Cambridge City, Milton, Connersville, Glenwood and Rushville, the night stop. Friday, May 21—Milroy, Sandusky.

Greensburg, Adams, Waldron and Shelbyville, the night stop.

Necessary arrangements have been made for the big event. A committee of local citizens composed of W. W. Zimmerman, chairman, Harry Gilbert, J. Hanes, Elmer Eggemeier, Adolph Hildebrand and County Agent Marley will complete the arrangements and be in charge of all details.

This committee and as large a number of citizens as possible will meet the trucks as they approach our city at 5:15 p. m. on May 19th. In this meet will be about 25 trucks and 60 men. Upon arrival in town they will be parked on the east side of the court house.

After a concert at 7:30 p. m., an expert on farm hauling will talk. It was most emphatically stated that no trucks will be sold or offered for sale. A demonstration will be held on C. N. Teeter's farm, 1 mile west of Hagerstown, Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock.
