"Black Frank" Buried.

Following his death Friday at the county infirmary, funeral services for Frank Wright, past 90, better known as "Black Frank," who had been an inmate of the infirmary more than 50 years, were held Sunday morning at the institution. Burial was in the infirmary cemetery. Records of the infirmary do not reveal his age or that he has any relatives. It is thought he was more than 90 years old.

"Black Frank" was one of the odd characters of the infirmary. He wore a gown instead of male attire. It is not within the memory of the oldest inmates and attendants of the institution when he first adopted such garb. He roamed about the fields of the infirmary and many of the grown-ups in Eaton and vicinity can recall instances in their boyhood when at the sight of "Black Frank" in the fields they hastily "beat it" from a good fishing hole in the creek in the rear of the infirmary grounds. However, he was regarded as harmless. His intellect was extremely deficient and he is said to have never spoke to or conversed with anyone during the many years he was in the infirmary. The records of the institution show only the name, "Frank Wright," it is said.

Commencement exercises of the Camden high school opened Friday with the class play, which was repeated Saturday. "Much Ado About Betty" was the title.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church. The sermon was preached by Rev. Beekley, of Gratis, pastor of the First Brethren church.

Members of the school faculty will give their annual reception Tuesday evening. Class night will be observed Wednesday evening. The juniors' reception will take place Thursday evening. Commencement exercises occur Friday evening, and the alumni banquet will take place Saturday evening.

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every hatch, and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

An Avicol tablet, placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all such diseases. Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop.

Mrs. Vannie Thacker, R. F. D. 3, St. Paris, O., writes: "I raised 90 chicks and they all died but 22. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and promptly cures white diarrhoea, chick cholera, and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be refunded by return mail. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers, or you can send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid. Parrott-Dugger Co., 162 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

EATON, O., May 17.—For a week or 10 days Maynard Wehrley, 27, local man, driver of an army truck used in county road work, worked with a broken right arm and did not know it. He does not know when or how he sustained it, he says.

The only manner in which Wehrley can imagine he suffered the injury was in shifting the gears of the big truck. MUSTARD USED RIGHTLY EASES RHEUMATISM PAIN; FOR GRIPPE AND COLDS APPLY IT ON CHEST

A very penetrating liniment is made from mustard, pepper, saffron, anionia and menthol. It enters the pores of the skin without much rubbing, and does not blister.

A few applications will ease the pains and aches caused by rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, and muscular soreness. For grippe, coughs and colds put a small portion on the chest, back and throat. It will not bite or sting, but will produce a pleasant, soothing, grateful warmth.

This liniment is scientifically prepared by the American Drug Co., of Dayton, Ohio, and sold under the name of "Peppen Liniment." You can obtain it at any first class drug store anywhere.

It is a good idea to take Peppen tonic internally while using Peppen Liniment externally. The tonic acts as a general builder and blood cleanser; it strengthens the digestion and spurs the vital organs to do their duty while the liniment enters the pores and relieves swellings and pains. This liniment is also valuable for cuts, sprains, and bruises. As a gargle it gives splendid results in sore throat, sore mouth and gums, and prevents infection. Hot water and Peppen Liniment make an excellent bath for tired, aching feet. Owing to its multitude of uses it is one of the most universal of all family remedies. —Advertisement.
