

NEXT WEEK AT THE THEATERS

WASHINGTON

The Paris underworld in all its romantic glamour and sordidness lives before the audience's eyes in "L'Apache," the new Thomas H. Ince picture starring Dorothy Dalton, which was produced for Paramount-Artcraft release and will be shown at the Washington theatre for three days beginning Sunday next. Miss Dalton is seen in a dual role. As an Apache dancing girl, she performs at the command of her ruthless criminal husband, and finally flees from his cruelty and finds refuge in the bohemian quarter. By a freak of fortune she encounters her double, a rich American girl who has fallen under the power of a profligate millionaire. This part also is played by Miss Dalton and gives her an opportunity to wear some exquisite gowns. After many thrilling adventures and a startling climax, the drama is worked out to a happy ending.

Robert Elliot, Macy Harlan, Austin Webber, and Louis Darclay are included in the supporting cast of "L'Apache," which was directed by Joseph De Grasse.

MURRAY

Owing to the fact that the local high school play "Under Cover" will hold the boards at the Murray next Wednesday matinee and evening, the vaudeville bill the first half will only play Monday and Tuesday. This show will be headlined by Coleman and Ray "Millionaire Ventriloquist" in their offering in which they employ a dummy and walking dolls. This is a very entertaining novelty offering, something different, and the announcement is made that they will give away one of the walking dolls at the Tuesday matinee. Pauline Saxton and sister, two of the prettiest and cleverest girls in vaudeville in comedy songs and dances, and Dave Manley will offer a political monologue entitled "Leave The Hall." The picture this first half will be Corinne Griffith in a five-reel Vitaphone production "The Deadline At Eleven," a newspaper story showing the workings of a big New York daily.

RICHMOND

The cast of Zane Grey's "Desert Gold," produced by Benjamin B. Hampton and Eltinge F. Warner for Zane Grey Pictures, Inc., a W. W. Hodkinson release, to be shown at the Richmond theatre, beginning Sunday reads like a page from "Who's Who in London." Scarcely if ever before has such an all-star cast been gathered and never before to bring to life the novel of a famous author. In choosing the cast more than 200 players were interviewed. Among the principals are such famed personages as E. K. Lincoln, W. Lawson Butt, Edward Coxen, Walter Long, William Bainbridge, Frank Lanning, Eileen Percy, Margery Wilson, Arthur Morrison, Russell Simpson and Laura Winston. E. K. Lincoln has been a reader "fan" of Zane Grey for years, and although the star and the author had never met, Mr. Grey so greatly admired Mr. Lincoln's work that he wanted him for "Dick Gale." W. Lawson Butt, the famous English actor, was chosen by Mr. Grey nearly a year ago to create the role of the Yaqui.

For the part of the dashing border captain, George Thorne, Edward Coxen was chosen as ideal and to the man who has won fame by such virile roles as he played in "Carmen of the Klondike," the part of Capt. Thorne opened wonderful new opportunities. The extremely important "heavy" Rojas, the bandit chief, is taken by the "worst hated man in pictures," Walter Long, whose work as "Gus" in Griffith's "Birth of a Nation" will be recalled everywhere.

The women's roles are in the hands of beautiful, golden-haired Eileen Percy and the dark and willowy Margery Wilson, players notable for some remarkable screen achievements.

MURRETTE

Constance Talmadge in her latest production from the pen of John Emerson and Anita Loos, will be seen for the first time locally when "The Love Expert" is thrown on the screen of the Murrette Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

As the central thought for this picture, the clever authors have provided the theme that whereas this is an age of specialization, what would be more natural for a young romantic girl to try to become expert at love. Thus we find Constance Talmadge in the role of Babs, a boarding school girl whose school days end before the senior year thanks to her delinquencies in the elementary courses and her mania for self-instruction in the science of the heart.

Emerson and Loos have given the screen many bright pictures but "The Love Expert" is declared to have excelled all previous efforts.

Might As Well Prepare for Lot of Fly, Farmers Told

Specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture stationed in the middle West have determined that, in spite of the severe winter, at least three-fourths of the Hessian flies in the "max-seed" stage overwintered successfully. Experiments have shown, also, that Hessian fly eggs exposed all night to a temperature of 9 degrees above zero will hatch perfectly healthy maggots.

The indications are, therefore, that the Hessian fly infestation this year in Indiana and Wayne county will be very severe. A severe infestation was indicated last fall, the only hope of alleviation being that the numbers might be greatly reduced during the winter. This did not occur. Nothing can be done now toward protecting the present crop from damage, but information recently gathered by the entomologists will emphasize the necessity for the practice of control measures this fall when planting is being done for next year's crop.

Control consists in late sowing, rotation of crops, plowing under of stubble, destruction of volunteer wheat, thorough preparation of the soil, the use of fertilizer and selection and proper sowing of the best seed.

LOOK OUT FOLKS!

The Love Expert's in town nabbing the unmarried ones. She's going to a flock of 'em for a row of altars before she's through. If you see any one blushin' or timid-like, as if they needed a little encouragements, call us up—or, better still, amble down and see

CONSTANCE TALMADGE in "THE LOVE EXPERT"

Remember Connie in "The Virtuous Vamp?" and "In Search of a Sinner?" Say, you want to see her in this one.

She knew her soulmate the moment she clasped hands with him, but to get him she first had to marry out his whole family. Talk about a miracle worker—Zowie! Old ones or cold ones, longs or blondes, veterans or youngsters—she matched 'em like Grant took Richmond.
