

105 GRADUATES FROM H. S.; ASSOCIATION OF ALUMNI IS FORMED

Gone but not forgotten is the graduated 1920 class of Richmond high school which held commencement exercises in the coliseum Friday night. The class numbered 105, and is the largest since 1913.

Immediately after commencement, the class adjourned to the high school where an alumni association was formed. Clem Price was elected president; Anna Dallas, secretary. A reunion will be held between Christmas and New Years.

The commencement exercises were beautiful. The girls dressed in delicately tinted frocks of organdy, voile and georgette crepe, and the boys in dark suits, marched down the center of the coliseum. They were led by Leroy Harding, class president. The class occupied five rows on the north side of the building.

Rev. J. P. Miller, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, delivered the invocation. Piano solos during the exercises by Mary Luring and Helen Wickert were enjoyed. Kenneth Dolins' vocal solo, "The Horn," was encored twice.

Dorothy Lebo talked on "Better English." She dealt chiefly with the evils of slang. James Sackman's oration was on "Appreciation."

Arch M. Hall, of Indianapolis, made the principal talk of the evening. He said to the graduates that they were the choice products of the city. He urged the class to help development of civilization and suggested a spirit of harmony and moderation throughout life.

Those who graduated were Gertrude Adams, Alvin Alexander, Katherine Arnett, Marie Bage, Marjorie Batchelor, Ruth Bellman, Paul Brown, Mary Brumfield, Jane Carpenter, Katherine Carr, Edwin Johnson, Winifred Comstock, Dorothy Cook, Robert Conner, Murray Cosand, Katherine Cox, Myra Cox, Esther Coyle, Cecil Cureton, Roland Cutter, Anna Dallas, Kenneth Dolins, Gertrude Eggleston, Rosella Elstro, William Emslie, Wynn Evans, Morris Fisher, Esther Fouts, Hazel Fuller, Ruth Goret, Alice Gennett, Iva Hunt, Ruth Good, Herbert Gross, Earl Haisley, Wayne Haisley, Leroy Harding, Florence Harris, Inez Harris, Clyde Hart, Cora Hazeltine, Helen Hazeltine, Robert Hawekotte, Edith Hollingsworth, Nelson Hunt, Helen Jessup, Edna Johnson, John Kelley, Adelaide Kemp, Glenn Kempton, Isabel Kenworthy, Florence Kerlin, Hadley Kirkman, William Kirkpatrick, Madeline Kitchen, Mildred Koltz, Katherine Klute, Dorothy Korves, Ada Lamont, Ada Lloyd, Harold Latta, Dorothy Lebo, Marg Luring, Mildred Martin, Frances Mayhew, Grace Miles, Ralph Motley, Helen McWhinney, Emily Parker, Wilson Pierce, Esther Pegg, Elmer Placke, Helen Polner, Arthur Porter, Clem Price, Esther Reed, Oakley Richey, Richard Robinson, Harold Richey, Lucille Rubey, Claude Russell, James Sackman, Faye Schmidt, Corinne Schneider, Alfred Smith, Joseph Smith, Catherine Steins, John Teegarden, Marie Thomas, Richard Thornburgh, Wilbur Vogelzang, Harold Vore, Howard Wagner, Clarice Welfer, Florence Wentz, Hazel Underhill, Levi Underhill, Byron Wetlik, Helen Wickert, Helen Young, Stanley Youngflesh, Elmer Zimmerman, Clarence Fetta, Ralph Whistler and Frieda Schneider.

ECONOMIST TELLS OF PROFITEERING

W. Jett Lauck.

The jobbers the country over shared a profiteering melon of $18,000,000, or a tax of nearly one dollar on every family, is the charge of W. Jett Lauck, consulting economist of the railroad brotherhoods and unions, in a statement to the railroad labor board. He declared that the middleman exacted 20 per cent on his investment, "their wartime practice being actually criminal." Millers of flour, he contended, received profits 375 per cent greater in 1917 than in 1913.

Picnic Meeting Is Scheduled

The picnic meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Grace Methodist church will be held in the church Wednesday afternoon. Business session will be held at 4 p. m. The evening session will be in charge of the young people's organization of the church. A short playlet is to be presented.

BURLEY GROWERS MAY PUT IN BIG ACREAGE

Reports from the growing districts of the burley belt of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia indicate that rapid progress has been made with the transplanting of the 1920 crop during the past week. Weather for the most part has been ideal and much additional ground has been prepared. Tobacco men who have been through the fertile burley fields say that plants in the bed have made such progress that more than the intended acreage will probably be set out, bringing the planting up to that of last season.

PLAN LARGER COAL CAPACITY FOR LIGHT PLANT, AFTER REPORT

The Municipal Light and Power plant, under the direction of Superintendent James Dillon, is making extensive preparations to lay in an adequate coal supply.

The supplemental report of the Morris Knowles engineers, emphasizes the necessity of adequate storage. The experts make the following recommendations in their report:

"As a result of our examination and studies, indicating the necessity of adequate coal handling facilities at your Municipal Electric plant and further indicating the operating economies which will result from such an installation, we would recommend the following program of improvements:

1. "Extend the lower railroad siding along the west side of the existing plant to permit direct delivery of coal and afford ample space for car storage.

2. "Install necessary track hopper, a telfer system for conveying coal across the power plant to the boiler room and to storage and a drag scraper installation for the outside storage of coal on the area north of the plant.

3. "Install a centralized coal bunker of approximately 120 tons capacity in the boiler room, with a traveling lorry for the conveying of coal to the various stoker hoppers.

4. "Obtain all equipment through competitive bidding on general plans and specifications permitting the use of any reliable make of equipment."

Confirmed Members To Be Honored at Trinity

Two special services are planned by Trinity Lutheran church for Sunday. At the morning session the class that was confirmed last Sunday, May 23, will receive the Lord's Supper, together with the congregation. "Te Deum Laudamus," by Ashford, will be sung by the choir, and T. W. Druley and Louis Stauber will sing a duet, "Still, Still With Thee."

A social converse will be held between all members who have been confirmed during the present pastorate, early in the evening, and all will go in a body to the evening service. The choir will give several selections. Miss Edna Deuker, organist, will render organ numbers.

CALLS U. S. A POOR MODEL FOR IRISH

Thomas Johnson.

Thomas Johnson, acting secretary of the Trades Congress, is said to have stated at a labor meeting held in the city hall, in Cork, Ireland, that the Irish had no intention of establishing a republic like that of America, where personal liberty was almost unknown and one could be imprisoned for saying that America is not a land of the free.
