

REUTHER PITCHES, SO REDS WIN OUT; TRY OUT PROSPECTS

CINCINNATI, O., May 29.—Manager Pat Moran is trying out all classy amateur hurlers around Cincinnati. Among these is Potts, a huge south-paw, who has blanked the strongest semi-pro teams in Cincinnati this season. This includes the champion Norwoods. The class of amateur talent, "Rube" Benton, got away from Moran and was grabbed by the Phillies. Benton is no relation to the other Benton of the National circuit.

Walter Reuther pitched for the Reds Friday. Which means they won. The support given Reuther was of the brand which made the Reds champs last year. Adolfo Luque is booked to pitch Saturday's game. The Cuban has shown second best class on the Red staff this week. Chicago trimmed St. Louis two games and went by the Reds into first place. The Pirates dropped to third. The Reds must win one more game from the Pirates to clinch second place. The score:

BRINGING UP FATHER BY McMANUS

HOLIDAY BASEBALL CARD INTERESTING

Sunday and Monday's baseball calendar for Richmond and vicinity includes several good games.

The Kokomo-Dayton games at Exhibition park hold most interest for Richmond fans. Boston, Ind., will see the Richmond Shamrocks, clashing with the C. and O. team of that town.

Centerville will stage its opening scrap of the season against the Richmond Senators. Manager Sullivan has lined up a strong aggregation. He will have mean opposition in the Senators, however.

The Richmond Miller-Kempers are booked for games at Eaton Sunday and Monday. These will be the first games for the Preble county nine, but members are confident of holding the Miller-Kempers.

The Richmond All-Stars will journey to Eldorado Sunday. The Ohio team has lost but one game this season and later revenged that. The Richmond Senators and Shamrocks have fallen before Harry McCoy's team.

State Critics Leary Of Earlham Chances Today

State track and field critics are picking Notre Dame and Purdue as favorites in the state track meet at Lafayette, which was to have been held Saturday afternoon. These critics pick Earlham and Wabash as next in line.

Some critics, however, pick Earlham to be in the running for first honors with Purdue and Notre Dame. Their claims are upon performances of Earlham's state record holders, Ivey and Johnson. These men are supposed to be the mainstays of Mowe's squad and are picked to cop three firsts for the Quakers. Lawler, Dalton and Fauquhar are almost certain of placing for Earlham.

The Quakers squad arrived at Lafayette, Friday afternoon. Before leaving Richmond, Coach Mowe said the squad was in perfect condition and that the other eight entries at the meet would be made aware of Quaker prowess.

Miss Nicholson and Miss Heironimus To Be Honored

The annual banquet for the Earlham College Women's Athletic Association will be held in the college dining hall, Saturday night. All girls in the college are eligible to membership.

Girls' letters will be awarded to winners following the banquet. These are to be awarded members of hockey, basketball and baseball squads. Margaret Nicholson, '25, and Dorothy Heironimus, '20, will receive the highest athletic award of Earlham to girls, the "E. C."

MANAGING PENNANT CONTENDER HASN'T SLOWED DOWN TRIS SPEAKER'S PLAYING

Speaker being tagged out at third by Jimmy Austin in game with Browns this spring and a glimpse of Manager Spoke on the bench with the Indians at bat.

By all the theory of baseball when big league stars add managerial worries to their field of labor their playing should suffer. But Manager Speaker of the Indians is guiding a pennant contender and playing the game of his life—which is some game. Speaker's fielding has been one of the brightest spots in the team's defense and his batting has been a potent factor in many a rally that has picked a game for the tribe. Looks right now as though Spoke is in his element.

20 Colleges Qualify In Great Athletic Meeting

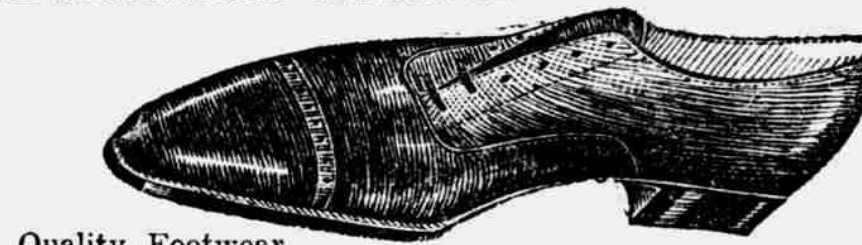

(By Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—Twenty colleges and universities had one or more men in the semi-finals and finals of the Intercollegiate track and field championships at Franklin field today.

And of this number any one of six institutions was in a position to capture the I. C. A. A. A. title.

Aside from the one and two mile runs, in which the entrants were not required to participate in elimination heats yesterday, Pennsylvania led in the number of men qualified for the finals with 15. Princeton with 14 was second, and Cornell was third with 11. Next in order were California and Dartmouth, each with seven qualifiers. Stanford had six.

The showing of the Pacific coast universities in the preliminaries was considered remarkable.

LETTERS AWARDED TO EARLHAM MEN

Twenty-five letters in three branches of sports were awarded at chapel exercises at Earlham college Friday. Baseball, track and basketball varsity men being recipients.

Fonzo Lawler, varsity forward on the Quaker basketball team for three years, was elected captain for 1921. Charles Ivey was re-elected captain of the track team. Robert Hinshaw was elected captain of the baseball squad.

Gold emblems were presented to captains of the past year's athletic teams. Paul Gordon, football, received a gold football; Johnson, basketball, gold basketball; Templeton, gold baseball; and Ivey, a gold track emblem.

Josiah Russell was the only member of the tennis squad to qualify for a letter.

Letters were awarded to the following basketball men: Ray Johnson, Fonzo Lawler, Herbert Carey, Cyril Pike, Orville Hall, and Jeane Goan.

Track letters were awarded to nine men, Charles Ivey, Fonzo Lawler, Herbert Carey, Raymond Johnson, Warren Fauquhar, Charles Robinson, Carl Dalton, Howard Graffis, Paul Whitley, Morris Tomlinson, and Alfred Carter.

Baseball letters were given to nine men Eugene Ralford, Jeane Goan, Dewey Bookout, Julius Tietz, Robert Hinshaw, Cecil Collins, Arnold Templeton, Leslie Nicholson, and Park Kirk.

Fur to Fly When Quakers And Saints Clash Today

Everything was in readiness Saturday morning for the entertainment of St. Mary's baseball team, from Dayton, by the Earlham Quakers at Keld Field, Saturday afternoon.

The game was to have started at 3 p. m. In case the weatherman squashed the game, the colleges will get together next week.

Both student bodies are taking interest in the game as they regard each other as mortal athletic enemies. The Quakers have been trimming the Saints in all athletic branches but baseball and therefore hope to down the Ohioians in this field.

S. A. L. Baseball

Saturday afternoon's S. A. L. program has the Starr Piano-Wayne Works game as the opener of the double-header at Exhibition Park. The Natco-Jenkins Vulcan game is second.

The Natco and Starr teams have the best playing material in the city and probably will have a walk-away.

SPICELAND AGAIN IN WIN OVER SHORTRIDGE

K. OF C. TO PRACTICE Members of the Knights of Columbus will hold a general baseball practice at Exhibition park Sunday morning. A team is to be picked to play out-of-town games later in the month.

Richard Zeyen is in charge of the baseball committee.

INDIANA FIGHTER BEING GROOMED TO LICK BENNIE

Tommy Teague.

Tommy Teague, Muncie, Ind., boy, is being touted as a comer in the ranks of the little scrappers. His friends are boosting him as a future contender for Benny Leonard's crown. At present he is content to tackle featherweights and bantams. He has boxed two no-decision affairs with Frankie Mason.

Sunday and Monday Games Will Start at 3 O'clock

Sunday's baseball game between the Kokomo C. N. B. baseball team and the Dayton Rubbers will be held at Exhibition Park at 3 p. m. Monday's game between these teams will start at the same time.

The C. N. B.'s held a snappy workout at the ball lot Friday in preparation for the game. The colored manager made the team step lively, as the brand of ball against Hamilton last Sunday was not up to the standard. The Rubbers will be here with a stronger team than Hamilton.

K. OF C. TO PRACTICE

Members of the Knights of Columbus will hold a general baseball practice at Exhibition park Sunday morning. A team is to be picked to play out-of-town games later in the month.

Richard Zeyen is in charge of the baseball committee.

G. O. P. Colored Meeting to Be Held Thursday; Women's Meeting After Convention

A Republican meeting will be held Thursday evening, June 3, in the auditorium of the African M. E. church, on South Sixth street, under the auspices of the Woman's Republican organization of Wayne county.

Dr. Amelia Kellar, of Indianapolis, one of the noted women of Indiana, will speak, and Miss Katherine Smith of the state Republican headquarters, will be present.

Mrs. M. A. McCurdy, state Republican organizer, will preside, and Miss Anna Brown, of the Wayne county organization, will have general charge. Dr. Kellar was one of the founders of the Indiana Woman's Franchise league, and its president for seven years, and has a national reputation as a suffrage leader and professional woman. She is president of the Woman's Rotary club, of Indianapolis.

Esther Griffin White, Republican Woman chairman for Wayne says the county meeting for the Republican women will be held after the Chicago convention.

MILLER-KEMPERS TO SPORT NEW UNIFORMS

New uniforms will be given the men on the Miller-Kemper baseball team Sunday morning when they meet at 620 South Seventh street. At 12:45 p. m. they will leave for Eaton, where they will play the New Madison nine. The local men expect to return victors, even though a tight game is looked for.

To keep the British peace delegation in Paris for nine months cost the nation more than $2,500,000.
