

DR. CHARLES F. GRAY FUNERAL SATURDAY; ROSE-RUPE WEDDING

WINCHESTER, Ind., June 19.—Dr. Charles Fremont Gray, 65, is dead at the home of his son, Dr. Fred Gray, in Brown street, following a month's illness of heart trouble. Besides the son and his family, the deceased is survived by one brother, Dr. E. F. Gray.

Dr. Gray was the son of Simon and Nancy Smith Gray, both deceased and was reared on a farm near this city. Since 1876 he has practiced dentistry, in many of the principal cities of the west, spending several months each year at his beautiful country home, near Winchester. He was an active member of the Friends' church, and was a Mason, Knight Templar and K. of P.

Funeral services in charge of the Knights Templar, will be conducted from the Friends church, Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock. The Rev. Frank Cornell, officiating. Burial will be in Fountain Park cemetery.

Miss Jessie Lucile Rose and Thomas Clarke Rupe were married Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. S. Hunt, of this city, where Miss Rose has made her home for several years. More than 50 guests were present.

Miss Frances Ellen Hunt sang "At Dawning." Mrs. Hunt played the "Lohengrin" wedding march and Miss Harriet Elder, Miss Mary Miller, Miss Ruth Clark, Miss Marjorie Elliott, Miss Ruth Hinchshaw and Miss Elizabeth Reed sang the "Bridal Chorus," as they descended the stairs, each carrying a basket of flowers. Miss Verda Paxen, of Geneva, a niece of the bride, was maid of honor, and little Miss Mary Martha Hunt bore the ring in a white lily.

Before the ceremony which was in charge of the Rev. J. H. Wilson, of Newcastle, formerly pastor of the Church of Christ of this city, Miss Emma Hunt sang "I Love You Truly." A wedding supper was served after the service. Mr. and Mrs. Rupe will be at home in East Washington street in this city. Among those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Elingham and son, Miller, of Ft. Wayne, and Mrs. Rufus Paxen, her daughter Verda and sons Herbert and Joseph, of Geneva.

The thirty-first anniversary of the T. H. E. Society, the club in this city, will be observed Saturday at the home of Mrs. Fred Nichols, a charter member in Muncie.

Those who will attend from Winchester, are Miss Ella McDonald, Miss Etta Wells, Mrs. G. C. Markle, Mrs. J. E. Hinchshaw and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Cora Veach, Mrs. Clara King, Mrs. B. S. Hunt and daughters, Mary Martha and Frances, and Mrs. T. L. Ward.

Allow Appropriations.
The following appropriations have been allowed by the county commissioners: Two new bridges, one, the Jackson township school bridge, at a cost of $500; the other, the North street bridge, in Winchester, at a cost of $1,000. These are bridges that necessarily must be built. They also appropriated additional funds for the following bridges: The Model Farm bridge, Monroe township, $100; the Green Bridge, White River township, $100; P. M. Thornburg bridge, Stoney Creek, $50; Union Church bridge, Stoney Creek, township, $200; Hodgkin bridge, Washington township, $300; Hills bridge, Washington township, $1,500; John I. Thomas bridge, No. 1, Greensfork two, $4,200; J. I. Thomas bridge, No. 2, Greensfork township, $500; Wright bridge, Franklin township, $50; Ridgeville Cemetery bridge, Franklin township, $75. They also appropriated $500 to repair the court house clock. Out of the petitions for 76 bridges, the commissioners have asked for appropriations to repair eleven.

Order Wool Sacks Promptly.
Members of Pool Asked

Farmers having wool for the Wayne county pool are requested to send orders for sacks to the Greensfork elevator at once, enclosing 75 cents per sack. Orders must be in by noon Wednesday, June 23, as it is intended to buy all the sacks in one order. Sacks hold 200 pounds, and are to come from Indianapolis. All pooled wool in Wayne county will be handled at the Greensfork elevator, and the work is now to be rushed along," said Theodore Davis.

Farmers are requested not to bring any wool to the elevator until the sacks have arrived, as each farmer's clip will be sacked and marked separately.
