

CARDS FALL WITH A CRASH BEFORE REDS; SCORE YESTERDAY, 2-0

CINCINNATI, July 1.—It has been the role of the Cincinnati Reds to hook up with their nearest rivals for first place when these said rivals were going at top speed.

Way back in May the Pittsburgh Pirates were skimming along like a house afire. Then came the Reds and the Pirates dropped from first place. The Cubs started raising things in general about this time and it took the Champs to take the pennant prospects from them.

Then the Reds walloped Brooklyn from first place and assumed the place themselves. And now St. Louis has been turned down. The Cards broke even in the six game series, however.

The last game of the series was won by the Reds, 2 to 0. Chief credit for the game must be given to Walter Reuther, as the crack southpaw pitched a masterful game. He was given support par excellence at all times, however. Reuther had to be good, as Jose Haines of the Cards was equally well in form. He allowed the Champs but 4 hits and no walks. An error, sacrifice and hit gave the Reds their first run. A triple by Allen and a sacrifice fly by Reuther scored him. The Cards did not get a man to first base after the first inning. The score:

BRINGING UP FATHER BY McMANUS

James A. Ten Eyck.

Victory in the Olympic rowing events is the next goal sought by James A. Ten Eyck, veteran rowing coach. The sprightly gent, at over 70 years of age, tutored the Syracuse team that won the intercollegiate regatta recently on Cayuga lake. He has taken the Syracuse team to Duluth to keep it in condition for the races at Worcester, Mass., late in July, at which time the team that will represent the U. S. at Antwerp will be chosen.

Ten Eyck has been coach at Syracuse since 1903 and has the honor of having coached the winning team in the last two regattas held. Syracuse won the 1916 race. With this year's crew practically intact another year, Ten Eyck hopes to win the intercollegiate event in 1921 and thereby obtain for Syracuse permanent possession of the regatta cup, valued at $5,000.

Blackberry Cordial, Wild Cherry Wine, Intoxicating

Blackberry cordial and wild cherry wine have been added by the bureau of internal revenue to the list of intoxicating liquors and may be sold by druggists in retail quantities of less than five gallons only to persons who have obtained permits to buy intoxicating liquors.

Instructions have been issued to federal prohibition directors detailing a number of preparations containing alcohol which are declared to be fit for beverage purposes and are therefore regarded as intoxicating and subject to the prohibition regulations.

Elixir of licorice came under the bureau's ban along with the elixir of bitter orange. Compound spirits of juniper and myrica were put on the intoxicating list as well as compound tincture of lavender and a number of other pharmaceutical preparations.

ALL STATE ROADS TO BE BROUGHT TO U. S. STANDARD

Orders have been issued by the state highway commission requiring the standardization of road plans and specifications for county highways which will be subject to the approval of the commission.

The action probably will result in uniform road construction throughout the state.

All county road projects submitted to the commission for approval would be affected by the bill, which is to become effective July 1.

Standards for Indiana county roads, as arranged for by the new regulations, will be identical with the federal requirements. Improvement of roads connecting principal highways is one of the important features.

OVERHEAT CAUSES DEATH.

PETERSBURG, Ind.—July 1.—Robert C. Gutter, 56 years old, of Vincennes, an oil-well driller, became overheated, while working on the Shafer lease, in Logan township, yesterday, and was stricken with apoplexy and died within a few minutes. The widow and nine children survive.

The elementary schools of Louisville, Ky., take pains to interest the children in good music.

NOT SO EASY TO PICK COUNTY CHAMPIONS

The challenge of Hagerstown to Richmond Eagles for the baseball championship of Wayne county, brings forth large possibilities of a little world's series of our own this fall. Hagerstown, Richmond Eagles, Richmond Giants, and the winner of the Suburban league are the main contenders.

Hagerstown is not in the Suburban league. By virtue of the hundreds of men employed at the Teeter-Hartley Motor company at Hagerstown, good ball players are plentiful. The Motor company is also willing to hire good ball players from other towns.

The Richmond Eagles are supposed to represent the pick of baseball talent in Richmond. Thus, Richmond and Hagerstown consider themselves the most logical contenders for the championship of the county.

Brehm puts in claim. George Brehm, president of the Suburban league, is anxious to have his league considered in when picking the county champ. He suggests that the winner of the Suburban league cup be counted as a contender.

The Richmond Giants, in their turn wonder just "where they come in". George Brehm again comes to the front with a suggestion that Wayne county could have a little world's series all its own this fall.

Brehm believes the Eagles, Hagerstown, winners of the Suburban league and the Richmond Giants should get together and settle the championship dispute in action rather than on paper.

Feasel Will Clean House In Miller-Kemper Team
Manager Charles Feasel is going to find out what is the matter with the Richmond Miller-Kemper baseball team. To get on the inside track of things, Feasel has requested all players of the team to meet at his home, 620 South Seventh street, at 8 p. m. Friday.

Feasel says several players on the team have been in a habit this season of failing to show up for the scheduled games. Unless these A. W. O. L. players can give reasonable excuses, Feasel says, they will be gently requested to turn in their soiled uniforms.

Commercial League

The champions of the cellar will meet Thursday afternoon. This means that Englebert's Pennsy commercial league ball team will clash with the drooping Palladiums at the Playgrounds.

The Palls lost heart when they lost to the item. The game with the Home Telephone company proved this. If the Palls can take the same liberties with the Pennsy as other teams of the Commercial have done, then they will come back into society.

EAGLES WILL SCRAP DESPITE ROUGH FIELD

It may be rough and rocky playing, but the Richmond Eagles are determined to fill the contract with Hamilton at Exhibition park, Sunday afternoon.

Officials of the Richmond Exhibition company say they will have an army of men, shovels, sawdust and dirt and a steam roller at the diamonds early Sunday morning to get the field in shape.

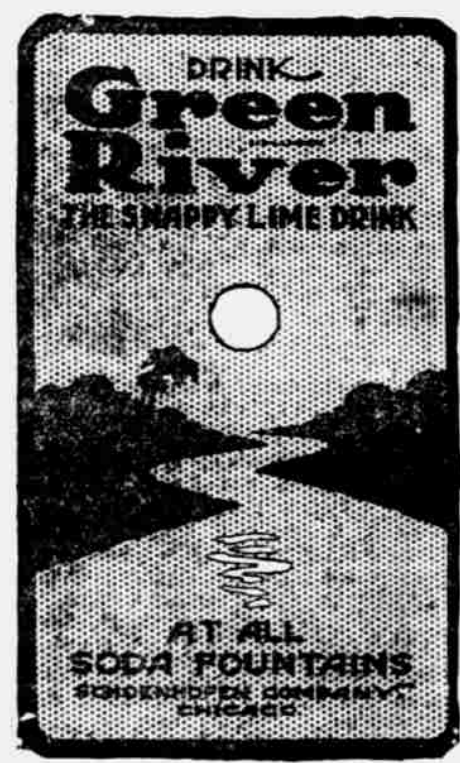

Manager Everette Haas, of the Eagles, is not enthusiastic over the condition of the field. If Wednesday's rain is repeated, the drenching down-pour of Wednesday caused the ball field to be a slippery mass of mud.

The hundreds that trampled the infield part of the outer gardens Wednesday, chopped the ground into ruts. Haas says that although the players may slip and fall in occasional ruts, a good game will be forthcoming.

Hamilton possesses a strong aggregation. Proof was given when an even break was made with the strong C. N. B. team in May. However, the C. N. B. aggregation is not thought by Richmond fans to have anything on the Eagles.

Minner probably will start the game against Hamilton. When he starts, he usually finishes. Hawekotte may have to await another game before strutting his stuff from the hurling line.
