Miss Mary Margaret Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Evans, 6019 North Meridian street, Indianapolis, and Benjamin Nicholson Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, North Eleventh street, of Richmond, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The Rev. Willard O. Trueblood of the First Friends Church officiated. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Frank Wilhite Weber, harpist, and Mrs. Jackson, violinist.

Pedestals bearing baskets of Dorothy Perkins roses and larkspur with smilax garlands formed an aisle from the stairway to the altar, which was arranged before the fireplace banked with palms and roses. In the center of the mantelpiece was a medallion of roses and larkspur, and cathedral candles shone from above the altar. The music room was decorated with garden flowers and the sunparlor was a bower of laurel trees and palms.

The attendants were Mrs. Robert B. Evans, nee Miss Johnson, sister of the groom, matron of honor; Miss Edith Evans, the bride's sister; maid of honor; Miss Evelyn White, of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Louise Frenzel, bridesmaid. Edward L. Farr, Jr., of Philadelphia, was best man. The matron of honor wore her own wedding gown of white satin. Miss Evans wore a pink Georgette frock and the bridesmaids wore frocks of blue Georgette. Their flowers were bouquets of roses and delphinium. The bride's gown was of white satin covered with tulle. Her veil was arranged in cap effect, held with orange blossoms and embroidered with pearls and crystals. A shower bouquet of orchids, lilies and roses were her flowers.

After the ceremony there was a reception. The dining room was beautiful with baskets of roses and larkspur. The wedding cake was placed on a mound of white roses and sweet peas. It was ornamented with a bouquet of sweetheart roses and valley lilies. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have gone on their wedding journey. The bride traveled in a suit of blue tricot-lette and Georgette hat. They will be at home after Aug. 1, at 111 South Sixteenth street, Richmond, Ind.

Miss Evans attended Earlham college and is a graduate of Wheaton college, Massachusetts. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Moses Brown school, Connecticut, Earlham College, and attended Harvard University. During the war he was commissioned captain and after spending several months at Camp Taylor took a company to England. Mrs. Johnson has many friends here made by her sweet manner and charming personality and she will be welcomed to Richmond as a bride. Mr. Johnson is associated with his father and grandfather in the firm of B. Johnson and Company.

Among the many out-of-town guests were Miss Yur Watanabe of Tokio, a college friend of the bride, Miss Mary Coffin, of Whitler, Cal., a cousin of the groom; Miss Evelyn White, of Norfolk, Va.; Edward Farr of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, Robert Johnson, Miss Cecilia Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Marvel, Miss Helen Nicholson, Raymond Nicholson, Mrs. John Nicholson, Timothy Nicholson, Eugene Quizer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, all of Richmond.

Miss Elsie Bullerick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Bullerick, South Thirteenth street, and Robert Cady Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thompson, Randolph street, were married Wednesday at 8 p. m., at the home of the bride in the presence of 50 guests. An altar of ferns, ramblers roses and hydrangeas, was erected in the front parlor where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. A. Dressell, pastor of the First English Lutheran church. The double ring service was used. The bride's gown was pale pink georgette over charmeuse, beautifully embroidered. Her flowers were Victoria roses. After the ceremony the guests were served a two-course buffet luncheon. Yellow and white were colored out in an attractive color scheme in the dining room. In the center of the table was a mound of daisies around which were yellow and white candles. Ribbons of yellow and white satin were suspended from the ceiling to the corners of the table. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on a wedding trip, the bride traveling in a gown of tub silk with accessories to match. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Clyde Hunt, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bullerick, of St. Louis, Mo.; H. H. Rasor, of Brookville, Ohio; Waldo Smart, of Hardingsburg, Ky.; George Hoyt, of Utica, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McDivitt, of Kitchel, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Kitchell, of Gary, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schwarz, of Cincinnati; Mary Bullerick, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of Indianapolis.

The social to have been given by the Enterprise Bible class of the East Main Street Friends church Friday afternoon has been postponed indefinitely.

The Tirzah Aid Society will meet Saturday, July 3, in the hall instead of at 142 Fort Wayne Avenue. The affair was to have been a lawn fete.

PASSPORTS NOW COST $9: GOES INTO EFFECT TODAY

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Increased passport rates authorized under a bill passed at the end of the last session of congress, providing for a charge of $9, instead of $1, became effective today.

Representative Porter, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the house foreign affairs committee, who drafted the original measure, will be the first person to pay the increased rate. His passport enabling him to tour the orient this summer with approximately 100 other members of congress, was sent to San Francisco today by the state department.

"Two National Parks in Two Weeks" solves the vacation problem. 14 days escorted tours of Yellowstone and Rocky Mountain National Parks, Utah and Colorado—400 miles of motor-ing, 11 days escorted tours of Colorado. All expenses included, actual cost. Everything arranged in advance. Tours leave Chicago every week this summer. Make reservations now. Bureau of Service National Parks and Resorts, Chicago & North Western—Union Pacific, 145 So. Clark St., Chicago.
