

ROY O'DELL PLEADS GUILTY TO SERIOUS CHARGES IN EATON

EATON, O., July 8.—Roy O'Dell, 21, confined in the county jail in default of bail on a charge of burglary and larceny, pleaded guilty Wednesday to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 14-year-old girl, when arraigned in juvenile court, according to Juvenile Officer L. T. Stephens. The case will rest on the open docket until advices are received from military authorities, as it is alleged O'Dell deserted from the army.

The delinquency affair took place about 18 months ago, three sisters being involved. Several boys were involved in the case. One of the girls was sent to the girls' industrial school at Delaware.

When warrants were being issued in the delinquency case it is alleged O'Dell skipped out and went to Kentucky and enlisted in the military service.

Third Suit Against Burd.

Elliott C. and Birdie Gimbel, operating a business under the name of the Gimbel Motor Car company, Hamilton, have brought suit here in common pleas court against Frank A. Burd in an effort to recover $550. Plaintiffs aver Burd sold them a car for $450, claiming, they say, that it was his property and free of any incumbrance. They aver Burd with fraudulent intent misrepresented ownership of the car, as they claim, it develops that a Wapakoneta loan company holds a mortgage on the car and that it has been replevined. Plaintiffs allege they put $100 repairs on the car.

The Gimbel suit is the third filed against Burd within the last few days, as a local bank sued on notes for $1500. Another local man is suing for $160 on a note. The bank obtained a court order for writ of attachment. The Gimbel also seek a writ of attachment. It is alleged Burd's whereabouts is unknown. His home is in the southeast part of the county.

Auto Theft Trial Put Off.

Owing to the illness of Attorney John Risner, counsel in the case, the trial of William Mills and R. L. Estis, charged with theft of an automobile, did not open today in common pleas court, but was postponed until Sept. 22. The case has been set for trial and postponed half a dozen times. The accused have been at liberty under $450 bond since their arrest a year or longer ago. They are alleged to have stolen a car from S. C. Ritchie, banker, New Paris, which later was recovered.

Postponement of the trial necessitated reassignment of other cases that had been set down for trial. The cases and new trial dates are: July 12, Methodist church, Gordon circuit, dayton district. Application to sell church property in Preble county; July 19, 20, 21, Harley Creager vs. Perry Elkenberry and Perry Kretzer; July 22, 23, F. R. Christman vs. J. C. Connel; July 26, 27, Charles G. Miller vs. Ona Miller, divorce; July 28, Josephine Goodwin vs. Bertha Yost, 5,000 damages, alleging alienation of affections; July 29, state of Ohio vs. Leroy Lyons, assault; July 30, 31, G. F. Glick vs. M. H. Markey.
