The Farm and the Farmer

BY WILLIAM R. SANBORN

According to J. F. Seagraves, of the Losantville elevator, nearly half as much wheat was cut on Friday as had been cut previously this season. "It was an all-day session," said he. "Some wheat was cut on Monday and a little on Thursday afternoon, but Friday was a real harvest day."

Mr. Seagraves says that while a lot of wheat is "thin" the heads are well filled; it has ripened fully and the quality of wheat will be excellent. Oats have "wonderfully improved" in past two weeks and corn couldn't look better. "Two or three more days of sunshine will see our harvests completed, or say, by Tuesday night." It was thought until lately that oats would head too short for the binders.

MADE A CHANGE IN HER
Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th & Edison St., La Crosse, Colo., writes: "My kidneys were giving me a great deal of trouble and I consulted a doctor. They gave me Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away. They made such a change in me that I feel fine." Foley Kidney Pills promptly relieved backache, rheumatic pains, sore, swollen, or stiff muscles, joints, etc. They put the kidneys and bladder in sound, healthy condition. For sale by A. G. Luken & Co., 630 Main St.—Ad-and that much of the crop would be cut for hay. "Most of the oats will now be threshed. We are late in our haying and these operations will delay wheat threshing for a few days."

Buying More Binder Twine.
John W. Neches, of the Equity elevator at New Paris, makes a most encouraging crop report. He says that farmers underestimate their wheat when ordering twine and many have come back for more to finish binding. He says the wheat has filled well, and is of fine quality, and that there is much more of it than expected. The heavy shower on Thursday evening did not prevent harvesting on Friday, which proved the banner day. Oats are coming fast and prospects are fine. Should begin cutting in 10 days, depending on weather. "Wheat should all be safe in shock not later than next Wednesday, if rain holds off."

Best Oat Crop in Years.
The cashier of the Randolph county bank, at Winchester, predicts the "best oat crop in years." He stated on Friday evening that about half of the wheat crop was in shock, possibly a little more, Friday being an ideal day for harvesting. Too much rain has fallen in past two weeks to suit harvester, either of grain or hay. "Corn is in splendid condition and making up for lost time."

Brownsville Farmers Busy.
The elevator at Brownsville, Ind., reports harvest delayed by rain and stated Friday evening would see a little better than half the wheat cut, Friday being their best harvest day. Oats are promising and corn doing well in clean fields.

Has Good Seed Wheat.
County Agent Murphy states that Dan Smith, living 2½ miles northeast of Hagerstown, has just cut a field of wheat which was free of cockle, smut or other injurious elements, and that it is "smooth grain of seed wheat quality."

Coal and Fertilizer.
The buying of coal and fertilizer will be the principal topic at the Franklin township federation meeting at Bethel on Monday evening. Both the coal and fertilizer trades will be represented, and C. F. Patterson, state speaker, will be present to entertain the occasion. "Bring your families."

Dr. Carver, federal veterinarian, has been visiting various counties looking into the results of feeding hog powders. He investigated the Wayne county poisoning cases three weeks ago, then visited Union and adjoining counties, dropping back into Wayne early this week. His work here was completed on Friday.
