

OLD HENRY COUNTY DAYS REGALLED AS HENRY NATIVES OF INDIANAPOLIS MEET

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article, by Billy Blodgett, in the Indianapolis News, is on the annual meeting of Henry county exiles in Indianapolis.)

EDITOR'S NOTE:—The following article, by Billy Blodgett, in the Indianapolis News, is on the annual meeting of Henry county exiles in Indianapolis. On April 3, 1821, David Butler, of Cincinnati, journeyed to the land office at Brookville, Ind., and bought a tract of land. Three days later, Joseph Morris and Samuel Ferguson made purchases, and what is now Henry county came into being. Could the immutable law of life and death be suspended long enough for these three to visit Brookside park, in Indianapolis, they would be surprised and pleased. For the Henry county society, made up of former citizens and descendants of the early pioneers of that county, held its annual reunion.

Troops of children, bright-eyed and merry, romped about the grounds. Maidens not in lincey woolsey, and young men accoutred in Palm Beach suits instead of home-made jeans, laughed and chatted.

Sedate matrons and staid citizens from the Harvey neighborhood or the Heaton neighborhood, or the Leavelle neighborhood, told of the days when they attended the Henry county seminary, the academy at Knightstown, Speland academy or the school established by the Rich Square meeting of the Society of Friends, where Huldah Wickesham and Lydia White gave training to many men and women distinguished in public and private life in later years.

Wonders of Former Days.
How they used to meet at the Shroyer corner in Newcastle, and wander over to Christian Ridge, or visit the mounds on the Huddleston farm were told again.

Here and there venerable patriachs delighted to tell of the times they went swimming in Blue river, and caught turtles in Flat Rock or Stoney creek, and how Asahel Woodward raised the first crop of corn in Henry county, and what excitement there was when Martin Bundy brought the first sewing machine into the county, and brought, too, a woman from Cincinnati to show his wife how to operate it.

The whole village turned out to inspect the first cook stove brought to the place by Thad Owen and the first steam saw mill set up in Jintown was considered a marvel in progress. Some were on the reception committee when President Martin Van Buren visited Knightstown, and told how the great crowd was charged 18½ cents for breakfast, dinner or supper, 6¼ cents for lodging, and 12½ cents for hay for their horses for the night, and 6¼ cents a gallon for oats or corn.

That was long before the James boys and the Younger brothers went into the hotel business. The fathers of some helped George Barnard build the first courthouse, at a cost of $247 to the taxpayers, and since that day there has always been a Barnard practicing law in Henry county.

Warlike Period Recalled.
In the crowd were some who marched to the war with Captain Fred Tykle, of Company E; Captain W. D. Wiles, of Company A; Captain Lewis C. Freeman, of Company F; Captain Pyrrhus Woodward of Company C, and Captain D. W. Chambers, of Company D, of the 36th regiment, commanded by Colonel William Grose, with a staff consisting of Major Isaac Kinley and Captain George W. Leonard, adjutant.

Many present remembered the glorious runs of Newcastle hook and ladder company No. 1, with George Burke as captain, assisted by John Thornburg, Lon Rodgers, A. W. Coffin, Mat Grose, W. J. Shelley, William Albright, Will Gary, B. F. Moore, David Fisher, Wesley Goodwin and Charles Jefferies, and the old Newcastle Silver Cornet Band, with Mit Fouts blowing the principal horn. Treasured as keepsakes are a few copies of the Daily Noon Courier, published for a few days in 1880—the forerunner of the Newcastle Courier, now one of the most enterprising dailies in Indiana.

Present were some born in Knightstown, Middletown, Honey Creek, Mechanicburg, Lewisburg, Greensboro, Kennard, Cadiz, Sulphur Springs, Millville, Mount Summit, Hillsboro, Spring Port, Blountsville, Spiceland, Dunreith and Newcastle, and among them was more than one who came to Indianapolis on the first passenger train between Newcastle and Indianapolis over the old Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western—now the Peoria & Eastern division of the Big Four, which made its way carefully from one city to the other June 20, 1882.

Proud of Past, Live in Present.
But it was not raisings, corn huskings and log rollings, barn dances, spinning wheels and distaffs that took up the time today. All of these are happy memories—things delightful to

PESKY BED BUGS

(Pesky Devils Quietus) P. D. Q. is a new chemical that puts the ever-living to the Pesky bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants and beetles—impossible for the pesky devil to eat where P. D. Q. is used.

Recommendations of Hotels, Hospitals, Railroad Companies and other public institutions are a guarantee to the public that the safest, quickest and most economical way of ridding the pesky insects is by the use of P. D. Q. as this chemical kills the eggs as well as the live ones, and will not injure the clothing.

A 25c package makes a full quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas or beetles—and also contains a patient spout to get the egg nests in the hard to get-at places, and saves juice.

Special Hospital also $2.50 makes five gallons—contains three spouts—supplied by druggists or sent prepaid upon receipt of price, either size, by the Owl Chemical Co., Terre Haute, Ind.—never peddled.

talk about. But Henry county's citizens and former citizens are living in the present, and the wonderful progress of Newcastle, the county seat, was the topic on every lip.

The annual address as made by Ed Jackson, secretary of state for Indiana, whose forebear, Daniel C. Jackson, was the foreman of the first grand jury impaneled in Henry county.

Mrs. Daisy Douglass Barr, widely known as a woman evangelist, also made an address. A number of enter-

New York Landlords Find Ways to Defeat the Purposes of Rent Laws

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 13.—The new state rent laws are ineffective and have not deterred profiteering landlords from continuing rent gouging assaults on thousands of tenants in New York City, according to Leo Kenneth Mayer, chief counsel for the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering.

The landlords are adopting diverse methods to circumvent the new laws, Mr. Mayer declared and have been successful to a certain extent.

The three chief dodges employed by the landlords as outlined by Counsel Mayer are to:

Notify tenants that their leases will not be renewed unless they are willing to pay exorbitant rentals. If they refuse to meet this increase the tenants are then ousted by due process of the law.

Notify tenants that the premises have been sold on the co-operative plan but offer to sell them the apartment, if they will pay the exorbitant sum asked.

Show a higher valuation on their property by inter-transfer of property through alleged sales and thus be able to extract a higher rental.

The entire legal staff of the rent committee has been placed at the disposal of tenants in their fight against the rent profiteer.

The rent committee which has been in operation for 15 months has handled more than 80,000 cases of which 62,000 have been settled in and out of court. Of the remaining cases, 8,000 are listed as hopeless and no settlement is possible.

plaints into the committee's office, which is visited by about 5,000 tenants every week.

The committee's office staff of seven, according to Mr. Mayer, handles more than 2,000 complaints by mail daily besides from 250 to 300 telephone calls.
