MAY THROW TURKS CLEAR FROM EUROPE, SAYS ALLIES' NOTE

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, England, July 17.—The allies have arranged to deliver their reply, which takes the form of an ultimatum to the Turkish peace delegation in Paris this afternoon.

The Turks are informed that they must signify their willingness to sign the peace treaty within 10 days, failing which the allied powers will take such action as they may consider necessary under the circumstances.

The allied reply is couched in the bluntest language and says: "If the Turkish government refused to sign the peace treaty, still more if it finds itself unable to re-establish its authority in Anatolia or give effect to the treaty, the allies, in accordance with the terms of the treaty may be driven to reconsider this arrangement by ejecting the Turks from Europe once and for all."

"The allies are clear that the time has come when it is necessary to put an end once and for all to the empire of the Turks over other nations."

Refers to Turkish Atrocities. The note refers to Turkish "atrocities which startled and shocked the conscience of mankind," and cites that it is estimated that since 1914 the Turkish government has "massacred on the mendacious pretext of alleged revolt of 800,000 Armenians, including women and children."

The allies state that they are resolved to "emancipate all areas inhabited by a non-Turkish majority from Turkish rule."

The allies decline to make any modification in the clauses of the treaty which detach Thrace and Smyrna from the Turkish rule, since in these provinces the Turks are in the minority; the same considerations apply to the frontiers between Syria and Turkey.
