GRAIN PRICES

CHICAGO, July 17.—The week-end with a 19 day bear market in force. Crop news of all grains so good that country buying power is low. The usual high temperature that stiffens the markets are absent (there never was such a July). Bears predict larger July corn deliveries. Rust news shows moderate damage to date. One report shows over 1,100 thousand corn passed around on July deliveries. Support is present in provisions and shorts have bought. Smaller corn receipts guessed but the period of fancy old corn prices is growing short. The aid time hysteria about supplying Europe with wheat is in the scrap pile. Hedgers pressed wheat and exporters are seeking cheaper prices. Problem is from what little corner will the famous Monday bulge emerge. Problem is will December corn sell at $1.30 next week?

MILTON MEETING IS A FRIENDLY AFFAIR; TALK MANY TOPICS

By WILLIAM R. SANBORN

The farm federation meeting at Milton on Friday night resolved itself into a round table talk after E. F. Murphy, county agent, had spoken on various matters of interest in relation to his work, for and with the farmers. It became a free-for-all discussion in which most of the men present took part. Individual experiences in cropping, feeding, etc., were related. The air of the assemblage was of friendly mutual interest.

Fertilizers and Prices
It developed during the evening that no federation orders had as yet been placed for fertilizer, but would be placed as soon as the bids and analysis were received next week. This matter will be one of the things before the meeting of federation directors at the office of the county agent on Saturday afternoon and on Monday cards will go out to various township salesmen who will impart the information to the members.

Mr. Murphy gave quite a talk on this subject and on the difference in soils. In a talk about phosphates he said that a western concern had a great surplus of sulphuric acid; that they had discovered phosphorus in the vicinity and were now putting out a 42 per cent acid phosphate preparation, as a by-product, and soon to come on the market.

It developed during the meeting that Mr. Murphy had given six months to the organization of the Wayne federation, in connection with his other duties, before becoming county agent, and this work was discussed briefly.

Pig Club Work
A brief summary of what the members of the pig clubs were doing and of the benefit of such clubs to farm youngsters was given. There was a demand for some explanation as to the wool pool and the wool market. Mr. Murphy stated that an Indianapolis dealer who early paid up to 55 cents for wool told him that he expected to "get out later with a profit." Andrew Keiber said he had 600 pounds of wool in the lot shipped from Greensfork.

The meeting was interesting and the attendance fair, considering the busy hay season and other field work now crowding the farmers. Charles Hurst, township president, presided and H. W. Lindsay, secretary, made a statement of membership, financial condition, and of the fact that the funds were now mostly tied up in the Milton bank.

NEW PARIS TO PLAY ANY HOW
George Fine, manager of the former New Paris suburban league baseball team, said Saturday that his Indianapolis baseball team to play at Union City Sunday afternoon. The nucleus of the team will be men of Fine's former All-Stars.

NO GOLF CHOICE YET
Rotarians are undecided as to what golfers will represent the Richmond Rotary club in the golf tourney with Union City Rotarians at the Richmond Country club links next Thursday afternoon. Dudley Elmer, chairman, says the choice probably will be made next week.

FUTURE DELIVERIES TRADING IS RENEWED IN WEEK'S BUSINESS

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 17.—Renewal of futures deliveries trading in wheat has attracted the lion's share of attention on change here this week. The ease with which ordinary business methods were resumed after nearly three years interruption due to world war entanglement was an outstanding feature of the event.

Compared with first prices, wheat this morning had fallen 11c to 15c, while as compared with a week ago corn showed 3/4 to 7/8 decline, and oats varied from 3 1/2c off to 1/2c advance. In provisions the difficulty for the week was a setback ranging from 72c to $2.25.

Downward swings in the price of wheat were associated to a considerable extent with hedging sales by rural owners of the new crop. Heavy margins required as a precaution against wild dealings counted too apparently in some degree as a bearish influence by curtailing power to purchase.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The stock market this week yielded much of the ground gained in the preceding period, reaction throughout the general list being attended by a lapse into the sluggishness which characterized June's operations.

Trading in bonds was relatively larger and broader, however, a firm tone prevailing, especially in several of the newly issues, such as Swiss eights and Belgian 7 1/2s, in which the high interest returns seemed to attract more than a little investment demand.

According to authoritative reports the backward movement of movement shows signs of extending from the textile and leather trades to other important lines of manufacture, notably automobiles and related specialties. Shares of many of these companies were most susceptible to pressure.

Credits continued tense, although some loosening of funds was reported.

Pete Minner will start the game for the Eagles. Sillen will hurl for the Eagles. Play will be called at 2:45 p. m.

LEAVE FOR VACATION, FULL OF PEP; RETURN, DEJECTED
Vacationists are supposed to leave Richmond with rather a dejected air, but return full of pep, sunburn and vigor. But the crowd on the G. R. and I trains leaving for the summer playgrounds in northern Indiana and Michigan gainsay this.

The vacationists leaving for the summer outings are full of pep and expectations. They have tennis racquets strapped on suitcases. Some carry golf bags. They return with a dejected air, the racquets and golf sticks are in the baggage room and the vacationists are so bored and sunburned that they take a taxi.

COX WILL SPEAK AT MIAMI CHAUTAUQUA
Governor Cox, of Ohio, presidential candidate on the Democratic ticket, probably will speak at the Miami Valley chautauqua, held near Franklin, Ohio, from July 20 to August 15. Many persons in Wayne county annually attend. It is expected that on the day he appears, a record breaking crowd will be present.

MORAN SIGNS AGAIN; FISHER BLOWS FIRST TO DODGERS, 6 TO 4

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 17.—Manager Pat Moran has been appointed manager for the Cincinnati Reds for another two years. His original contract was to have expired this fall. It is understood that a fat increase was contained in the new contract.

Although Moran's chief concern is to win the present series from the Dodgers, he will begin to build for next year. Moran says this is no indication that he thinks the Reds will not cop the 1920 flag, but a measure to provide the team with needed reinforcement.

The Reds have to win four games from the Dodgers in order to go into first place. Although the largest Friday crowd of the season, numbering about 8,000, was out for the game, the Reds lost the first copy to the Dodgers, 6 to 4. Fans were peeved as the Reds blew a four run lead in the first innings in the fifth and sixth innings.

Fisher Blows It
Fisher pitched high class ball for four innings, wavered in the fifth and blew in the sixth. Walter Reuther was sent to his aid. Reuther walked a man in the eighth. Neale misjudged Wheat's liner and allowed it to go for three bases.

A sacrifice fly followed and three runs were across. Hod Eller or Jimmy Ring will be entrusted with the task of winning Saturday's game. The score of Friday's bubble:
