

COX AND WILSON IN ACCORD ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS TREATY

WASHINGTON, July 19.—In their first meeting since long before the San Francisco convention, Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, and President Wilson exchanged felicitations Sunday and agreed that the treaty of Versailles should be ratified and the United States should become a member of the League of Nations.

Mr. Cox pledged himself, if elected, to do his utmost to bring about ratification on the basis of the Democratic platform and to cause the United States to join the league.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, nominee for vice president, who participated in the interview, pledged himself to support the Wilson policy on the league question.

Explain Their Stand.

Statements issued by the president, Mr. Cox and Mr. Roosevelt, after the interview, made the position of each of the participants clear and unambiguous. Mr. Cox in his statement said:

"From every viewpoint the meeting was delightful. The president was at his best, recalling my detail inquired about as bearing upon the international situation and enlivening the whole conference with a humorous anecdote now and then in his old-time characteristic way."

"Agreed as to Platform."

"We are agreed as to the meaning and sufficiency of the Democratic platform and the duty of the party in face of the threatened bad faith to the world in the name of America.

"His thought still is of the war and the pledges we gave to those who sacrificed. One easily sees that as the leader of the nation, who asked for our sons and our resources upon a distinct understanding and obligation, he is resolved that the faith shall be kept. To this his thought and life are dedicated. What he promised, I, if elected, shall endeavor with all my strength to give."

The president's statement was as follows:

"The interview in every respect was most satisfactory and gratifying."

"I found what I indeed already knew and what Governor Cox has let the whole world know in his speeches, that he and I are at one with regard to the great issue of the League of Nations, and that he is ready to be the champion in every respect of the honor of the nation and to bring about the peace of the world."

United Support Forecast.

"Governor Cox will have the vigorous support of an absolutely United party, and I am confident, also of an absolutely united nation."

Mr. Roosevelt's statement was:

"I wish that every American could have been a silent witness to the meeting between these two great men. Their splendid accord, and their high purposes are an inspiration."

"I need add only that my regret in leaving my post under President Wilson is softened by the knowledge that my new commander in chief will be his worthy successor."

American Legion

The campaign for new posts started recently by the American Legion is progressing rapidly, according to an announcement made from national headquarters at Indianapolis.

The latest report, submitted for the second week in July showed that 21 new posts and 12 new units of the Women's Auxiliary units throughout the Legion.

Kansas, with three new posts, and one auxiliary unit, showed the greatest gain. The state now has 295 posts and 43 units of the auxiliary. New York continued to lead the other departments, having 932 posts. Indiana gained one post and one auxiliary unit during the week and now has 293 posts and 42 units.

The American Legion's membership at the last counting, totaled 2,500,000, with posts in all parts of the United States and in Alaska, Canada, Hawaii, Panama, the Philippine Islands, Mexico, Argentine Republic, England, China, Cuba, France, Poland and Santo Domingo.

How To Look and Feel Bright in Hot Weather

When depressed by the heat and you want to freshen up for the afternoon or evening, just bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered sasolite in a half pint of witch hazel. You will find this more refreshing than an hour's rest.

As a wrinkle-remover the sasolite lotion is remarkably successful. Its action is almost magical. The deepest furrows, as well as the finest lines—whether due to age, illness, weather or worry—are immediately affected. Enlarged pores are reduced, flabby skin is "drawn in," facial contour is improved wonderfully. The simple ingredients of course can be had at any drug store, and you need not hesitate to try the lotion, as it will not harm any skin in the least.—Advertisement.

Republicans Here Pleased at Harding's Questions on Cox's Foreign Policies

Militant Republicans of Wayne county expressed satisfaction today over the pointed interrogations which Warren G. Harding, the Republican nominee for president, directed at his Democratic opponent, Governor Cox.

Senator Harding challenged Governor Cox to say categorically where he stands on Article 10, the Armenian mandate and other problems wrapped up in American participation in the League of Nations.

Republicans here have insisted all along that the great campaign issue centers on these questions.

Senator Harding's statement follows:

"The president and the Democratic nominee for his successor are in conference today, and at the conclusion it will inevitably be announced that they found themselves in complete accord, that harmony reigns, and unity is established in the Democratic party. The significance of that announcement will not be missed. There is just one way that one can establish accord between himself and the president—that is, by yielding his own opinion at every point to that of the president. When the nominee establishes accord with the president, it means that the latter is in charge of the campaign and will be the real force of the next administration, if it is Democratic."

"Therefore, in connection with the announcement of harmony between the president and the Democratic nominee, it will be pertinent to inquire the basis of the agreement.

"The country is very anxious to know if an unqualified acceptance of the League of Nations program is agreed upon.

"2. Has Governor Cox pledged himself to ratification of the treaty and league without essential modifications?

"3. Has Art. 10 been accepted?" It has been repeatedly declared that Art. 10 is "the heart of the treaty," and that to cut it out would "break the heart of the world." Is the Democratic ticket dedicated? What he promised, I, if elected, shall endeavor with all my strength to give."

The president's statement was as follows:

"The interview in every respect was most satisfactory and gratifying."

"I found what I indeed already knew and what Governor Cox has let the whole world know in his speeches, that he and I are at one with regard to the great issue of the League of Nations, and that he is ready to be the champion in every respect of the honor of the nation and to bring about the peace of the world."

A LETTER FOR WOMEN

From a Woman Whose Serious Illness Was Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Garnett, Kas.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a complete nervous breakdown following the birth of my oldest child. I got a condition which caused serious female trouble. I was so weak that I was not able to be on my feet but very little and could not do my housework at all. I had a bad pain in my left side and it would pain terribly if I stepped off a curb-stone. One day one of your booklets was thrown in the yard and I read every word in it. There were so many who had been helped by your medicine that I wanted to try it and my husband went to town and got me a bottle. It seemed as though I felt relief after the second dose, so I kept on until I had taken five bottles and by that time I was as well as I could wish. About a year later I gave birth to a ten pound boy, and have had two more children since and my health has been fine. If I ever have trouble of any kind I am going to take your medicine for it. I always recommend your medicine whenever I can."—Mrs. Eva E. Shay, Garnett, Kansas.

BLADE ACCUSES CITY OF DOUBLE CROSSING

Vigorous protest is registered against the recent action of the board of public works in failing to appoint 32 colored members of the fire department by the Richmond Blade, a colored weekly newspaper. In its current issue.

"It becomes, therefore, timely to ask: What are the various mysterious, uncertain obligations to which the President has committed us? Somebody must tell us, because the people are wanting to know."

"Has Governor Cox undertaken, in case he is elected, to renew the demand that this country take a mandate over Armenia?

"A Democratic successor could not possibly grant less, because he stands on a platform that makes the same guarantees."
